OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

It was on December 6, '88, that Agnes Neill Williams, who succeeded her late husband, Edward Bennett Williams, as chairman of the board of the Orioles, announced that agreement had been reached to sell the Orioles for approximately $70 million to a group of investors with three things in common: a love of baseball, an association with the Baltimore area, and degrees from Yale University Law School.

The group of three included Eli Jacobs, the principal shareholder, Orioles President Larry Lucchino (see below for biographies on both) and Westminster MD native R. Sargent Shriver, a practicing attorney who is also president of Special Olympics International.

Mr. Shriver, a long-time Orioles fan who now lives in Potomac, MD, was the first executive director of the Peace Corps, from its inception in '61 during the administration of his brother-in-law, President John F. Kennedy, until '66. He served as U.S. Ambassador to France from '68 to '70, and in '72 ran as the Democratic nominee for the vice-presidency.

ELI S. JACOBS, 52 (10/5/37), officially became Chairman of the Orioles April 18, '89, the day the purchase of the Orioles received unanimous approval from all major league owners. Not long after, he was appointed to Major League Baseball's Executive Council. Although Mr. Jacobs prefers to rely on management to run the club on his behalf, he has taken an active role in the design and planning of the Orioles new ballpark at Camden Yards.

The former sandlot third baseman is Chairman of the Board of Memorex-Telex, the world's second largest manufacturer of computer peripheral equipment, and owns a controlling interest in companies whose annual revenues exceed $5 billion.

Mr. Jacobs was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts, grew up in Newton, west of Boston, and was, of course, an ardent Red Sox fan. (One of his biggest disappointments came as a nine-year-old when the Cardinals defeated the Sox in the 7th game of the '46 World Series).

Mr. Jacobs is a graduate of Phillips Academy, Andover, and Yale College ('59) as well as Yale Law School ('64). As an undergraduate he served as the managing editor of the Yale Daily News.

Mr. Jacobs has had extensive ties to Baltimore and Maryland and currently serves on the board of directors of the Times Mirror Company, owner of the Baltimore Sunpapers. During a two-year tour of duty in the U.S. Army, he was stationed at Fort Holabird in Baltimore.

LARRY LUCCHINO, 44 (9/6/45) was appointed acting president of the Orioles by Edward Bennett Williams in May, 1988, succeeded him as the club's chief executive following Mr. Williams' death on August 13, 1988.

Prior to becoming president, he had been vice-president/general counsel and a member of the board, beginning in 1979 when Williams purchased the ballclub.

During his 11 years as an Orioles officer, he has held wide-ranging responsibilities that have included: participating in player acquisitions and front office reorganization; developing and coordinating the company's marketing policy; negotiating major business and player contracts; serving as the Orioles' principal representative in negotiations with the Maryland Stadium Authority regarding the new downtown ballpark, and representing the club at American League and major league meetings.

He is a partner at Williams & Connolly, the firm founded by Mr. Williams, where he also specialized in sports law and litigation. Larry was also secretary/general counsel and a member of the board of directors of the Washington Redskins from '78 thru '85.

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, PA, he was all-city in basketball and a second baseman on the city championship baseball team at Taylor Allderdice High School (Class of '63). He graduated cum laude from Princeton University in '67, and was a '72 graduate of Yale University Law School.

While at Princeton, he was a varsity basketball letterman on two Ivy League championship teams, coached by Butch Van Breda Kolff. As a sophomore, he was a teammate of U.S. Senator Bill Bradley who led the team to the Final Four tournament.

In Larry's senior year, the Tigers were 23–3, the best record in Princeton basketball history. He has had the unique sports distinction of receiving a World Series ring (Orioles '83), a Super Bowl ring (Redskins '83) and an NCAA "Final Four" watch (Princeton '65).

He is a member of the Bar of the District of Columbia, California and Pennsylvania. He is a bachelor.

ROLAND HEMOND, 60 (10/26/29) was named 1989 Major League Executive of the Year in his second season as executive vice president and general manager of the Orioles. It's the third time in his career he's won the award, the second time in the '80s.

Hemond, team President Larry Lucchino and Assistant General Manager/Director of Player Personnel Doug Melvin were the chief architects of the Orioles 32 1/2-game improvement over '88, third greatest improvement in major league history.

It wasn't, however, all that new to Hemond. In fact, the energetic Frenchman has engineered three of the major league's 10 best turnarounds since divisional play began in '69. As general manager of the Chicago White Sox, Hemond's '71 club improved 23 games over the previous year and his '77 team climbed 26 games above the '76 White Sox.

One of the more active members of baseball's trade market, Hemond has made 121 trades involving 335 players in his career. He made 17 trades in his first 17 months with the Orioles, and has made a total of 20 deals since he was named by Edward Bennett Williams to succeed Hank Peters as Orioles vice president and general manager on November 10, '87. Of the 40 players to wear an Orioles uniform last season, 17 were acquired via a Hemond trade.

Roland's career dates back some 39 years to 1951, when he joined the front office of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs following a 4-year tour of duty in the U.S. Coast Guard. At the end of that season he was promoted to the parent Boston Braves, where he worked for John Mullen (now with the Atlanta Braves). In '53, Roland accompanied the Braves' franchise move to Milwaukee.

In December, '60, former Braves Manager Fred Haney became the first California Angels' general manager, and less than a month later, Roland joined him as scouting and farm director.

On Sep 14, '70, he was appointed director of (major league) player personnel for the White Sox who were well on their way to a 56-106 final season record. At the same time, the Sox hired, at his urging, his former Angels' organization colleague, Chuck Tanner, as manager. At their first winter meeting, the 2 newcomers moved 16 players in the first 18 hours of the convention in Los Angeles.

In their first 2 full seasons, the Hemond/Tanner combine brought the Sox in third ('71) and second ('72). The Sox sent 87-67 in '72 and Roland won the 1st of his three Major League Executive of the Year awards.

He became a vice president in July, '73, in the John Allyn administration, then worked with Bill Veeck from December, '75, when the latter bought the club, until January, '81. After Jerry Reinsdorf and Eddie Einhorn purchased the franchise from Veeck, they promoted him to executive vice president for baseball operations.

Roland earned his second "major league executive" award in '83 after his White Sox won the Western Division by a record 20 games (biggest winning margin in either league since the divisional system was adopted in '69).

He was replaced in October, '85 by Ken Harrelson, but remained with the Sox in a consulting capacity for a time as "special assistant to the chairman and president." Seven months later, in May '86, he joined the commissioner's office and remained there thru 2 baseball seasons before joining the Orioles.

Roland was born in Central Falls, Rhode Island. His mother was French-Canadian and his father's family is of French descent.

He married Margo Quinn on Nov 8, '58. They have 5 children: Susan (1/3 /60), Tere (12/27/61), Robert (4/20/64), Jay (12/11/65), and Ryan (12/11/72). The Hemonds are truly a baseball family. Margo's father was John Quinn, a major league g.m. for 28 seasons--first with the Braves for 14 years (Boston and Milwaukee), then with the Phillies for 14 more (to '72). Quinn won 3 pennants with the Braves ('48, '47, '58). Born in '08, he went to work in '32 with the Red Sox, who were then operated by his father.

In addition to Margo, John Quinn's children include: Susan, who worked for the Angels and was Roland's secretary for a number of years; Bob, the Cincinnati Reds' general manager, and Jack, president of the St. Louis Blues hockey team and former baseball general manager of the Hawaii Islanders and Vancouver Canadians of the Pacific Coast League.

Two of Roland's children, Susan and Bob, are also in baseball. Susan is the associate director of San Diego Padres telecasts and Bob is a member of the front office of the Wichita Wranglers in the Texas League.

TOM DAFFRON, 51, was named senior vice-president/assistant to the chairman in January. He comes to the Orioles after serving 16 years as chief of staff to U.S. Senator William Cohen, R-Maine.

Daffron's Capitol Hill career began in 1970 when he left his position as editor of the editorial page at the Wilmington (DE) News-Journal to accept a nine-month fellowship from the American Political Science Association. Following the fellowship, he spent three years on the staff of Senator Charles Percy, R-Illinois, before joining Cohen, then a member of the House of Representatives, in 1973.

After earning degrees from Brown University and Columbia University's School of Journalism, Daffron was a reporter at the Miami Herald and Wilmington News-Journal and Associate Director of Public Relations at the University of Chicago. He also served in the Peace Corps in Thailand.

A native of New York City, Tom and his wife, Margot, have three children: Thomas, Susan and Cynthia.

DOUG MELVIN, 37 (8/8/52), is a native of Chatham, Ontario, Canada (also the home of 284-game winner Ferguson Jenkins). Still a Canadian citizen, Melvin is in his 19th year in professional baseball, 5th with the Orioles. He was named special assistant to Orioles President Edward Bennett Williams and Executive Vice-President Hank Peters on February 11, '86. A year and a half later, he became director of player personnel in charge of minor league operations and for the past two seasons has served as assistant general manager/director of player personnel.

His pro career began in '72 when he was signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates as a righthanded pitcher. Melvin went on to spend two seasons in the Pirates' system ('72-'73) and four more in the Yankees' chain ('75-'78) after sitting out one season with a leg injury. He was released by the Pirates following the '73 campaign, but was re-signed by Yankees Scouting Director Pat Gillick, now the general manager of the Toronto Blue Jays.

Over six pro seasons, Melvin was 29-19 with a 3.43 era (ip-520, er-198). He was 16-4 combined in his last two seasons ('77-'78), both at West Haven, the Yankees' affiliate in the AA Eastern League. Although he was 6-7 in '76 at Fort Lauderdale, he finished with a 2.41 era, fifth best in the Florida State League.

After his playing career ended, Melvin served as the Yankees' batting practice pitcher for one year, then spent the next six seasons ('80-'85) with the Yankees building a reputation as a bright, young executive. His responsibilities included scouting, working with a succession of Yankees' managers as a spotter in the press box, compiling managers' statistics, and working on defensive alignment. In '85, he was named the club's scouting director.

There was no baseball at Ontario's Chatham Kent Secondary School, but Melvin played football, basketball and hockey, and is in the school's athletic hall of fame. He holds the school's basketball record of 55 points in a single game. Among his hockey opponents were Mark and Marty Howe, sons of Hockey Hall of Famer Gordie Howe.

He and his wife, Ellen, reside in Columbia, MD, and have two children: Ashley (4/18/83) and Cory (7/9/86).

JOHN B. BARR, 32 (6/22/57), the Orioles scouting director, has both a varied front office career in baseball and a diversified career in business. Barr was named to his current post on October 1, '88 after serving tours with two of the most successful teams in the majors over the past decade—the New York Mets and the Minnesota Twins.

He began his career in professional baseball in '84 as an administrative assistant in scouting and minor league operations for the Mets, where he served under Director of Player Personnel Joe McIlvaine.

After four seasons with the Mets, Barr joined the Twins in January, '88 as East Coast scouting supervisor, working closely with Twins' Scouting Director Terry Ryan. Less than a year later, he joined the Orioles.

Barr was a first baseman-outfielder at Rider College (Lawrenceville, NJ), where he received a B.S. degree in commerce in '79. Following graduation, Barr worked with the Burroughs Corporation and Merrill Lynch, where he was a financial planner. He also spent time as an assistant coach at both Fairfield University (CT) and Mercer (NJ) Community College.

A native of southern New Jersey, Barr helped lead Audubon High School to the only state baseball championship in the school's history in '75.

John and his wife, Marianne, reside in Baltimore. His father-in-law, Charles Ready, played in the Dodgers' and Cardinals' systems in the '50s.

STARTS, FAST AND SLOW

The O's best start was 11-1 in 1966 . . . They won a club record 5 consecutive games at the start of the '70 season . . . The major league record, incidentally, in that category is 13, shared by the '82 Atlanta Braves and '87 Milwaukee Brewers.

The worst start in Orioles and major league history occurred in '88 when they lost their 1st 21. That shattered the previous club record of 5, set in '78.

LONGEST AFFILIATIONS

Only 3 minor league baseball teams have affiliations with the same parent club continuously since 1961, and 2 of them are part of the O's farm system. Bluefield, the O's rookie team in the Appalachian League since 1958, has baseball's longest current affiliation. Next is Lakeland (Class A, Florida State League), with Detroit since 1960 and Rochester, the Orioles AAA team in the International League since 1961.

MINOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP

The Orioles' 5 youthful minor league teams posted a 264–300 (.468) cumulative record in '89. Over the last 2 years, the Orioles have signed 55 of 80 draft choices, including Ben McDonald, the nation's number one pick last June, and as a result, the O's farm system in '89 was the youngest it has been at any time in the '80s. The O's signed 25 of 33 draft picks in '88 and 30 of 47 in '89.

Although the Orioles failed to have a team qualify for post-season, 2 teams, Hagerstown (AA) and Frederick (A), put on great drives in the final month. Overall, Frederick had the best record in the Carolina League's Northern Division, but didn't win either the 1st or 2nd half championship. The Keys, in their 1st year, went 27–9 beginning mid-July, but still finished 2½ games behind 1st place Prince William (Yankees) for the league's 2nd half crown. Hagerstown went 15–6 the final 3 weeks of the season, but finished 4th, one game from qualifying for the Eastern League playoffs.

Frederick 2B Luis Mercedes became the Orioles 3rd minor league batting champion in the last 2 seasons. Mercedes won the Carolina League with a .309 average. 1B-DH David Segui and LHP Mike Linskey were named the Orioles' minor league player and pitcher of the year respectively. Both players spent time at Frederick and Hagerstown. Segui batted a combined .319 and Linskey was 12–8 with a 2.19 era (ip—189.1, er—46).

ROCHESTER (72-73) After a first-place finish in '88, Rochester finished 2nd in the International League East, 11 games behind 1st place Syracuse. Among the I.L. leaders, Tim Hulett was 2nd in the I.L. in triples (12) and finished in the league top ten with a .280 average. OF Butch Davis was 3rd in the I.L. with a .303 average, 2nd in total bases (222), 4th in triples (9) and tied for 2nd in hits (145). Francisco Melendez was 2nd in the league with 78

RBI and led all 1st basemen in fielding percentage (.992). RHP Mickey Weston came within 5 innings of qualifying for the ERA title (2.09).

RHP Curt Schilling tied for 1st in the I.L. in wins (13), starts (27), shutouts (3), and complete games (9). He also finished 8th with a 3.21 era, and 5th in strikeouts (109). OF Keith Hughes was named to the mid-season AAA All-Star Team but was unable to participate after suffering a shoulder injury in a season-ending collision at home plate.

HAGERSTOWN (67–72) was led by Leo Gomez, twice named the Eastern League "Player of the Week." He finished 2nd in the E.L. in rbi (78) and home runs (18), including 2 grand slams. Linskey went 10–6 with a 2.81 era, 7 complete games and 4 shutouts. Don Buford Jr. tied for 4th in the E.L. in stolen bases (30) while Victor Hithe tied for 4th in runs scored (67) and led all outfielders in fielding percentage (.983). Segui batted .324 in 173 at bats after being promoted from Frederick.

FREDERICK (73–65) had the most successful season of all Orioles affiliates. The Keys sent 5 players to the mid-season Class A All-Star game and 2 to the Carolina League All-Star Team. Segui and Mercedes were named to both teams. Segui hit .317 but did not have the necessary plate appearances to qualify for the Carolina League batting crown before being moved up to Hagerstown. Rodney Lofton led the C.L. in stolen bases (62) and was 3rd in at bats (473).

ERIE (25–49) was led on the mound by Mike Oquist who went 7–4 and finished 2nd in the New York-Penn League in strikeouts (110). Melvin Wearing finished 3rd in the league in walks (45) and tied for 3rd in home runs (10). Pat Leinen finished 4th in IP (101.1).

BLUEFIELD (27–41) featured 2 of the Appalachian League's brightest stars. Manny Alexander led the league in hits (85), was 10th in the league in batting (.310), and was named to the post-season Class A All-Star Team. He was also named the top major league prospect in the league by Baseball America. T.R. Lewis, an Appy League all-star, finished 4th in home runs (10). Lewis belted 3 homers and went 5-for-6 on Aug 12 vs. Wytheville.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Eight players in the Orioles organization have fathers who played in the major leagues. They include Don Buford Jr. (father, Don Sr.), Mike Brumley Jr. (father Mike Sr.), Tony Chance (father, Bob), Robert Kessinger (father, Don), Jeff McKnight (father, Jim), Aaron Norwood (father, Willie), Pete Rose II (father, Pete Sr.), and David Segui (father, Diego).

In addition, Orioles farmhand Greg Zaun is the nephew of former Orioles catcher Rick Dempsey.

O'S 2ND YOUNGEST TEAM IN A.L.

Based on major league baseball's 40-man rosters, the Orioles open 1990 spring training as the 2nd youngest team in the American League and the 6th youngest overall.

The Orioles average 26 years, 9 months per player, exactly one year older than Toronto. The Blue Jays are the youngest in the majors (25 years, 9 months).

Second youngest overall is a tie between Atlanta and San Diego, 26 years, 2 months per team. The Mets are next (26 years, 4 months), followed by Cincinnati (26 years, 8 months) and the Orioles.

The New York Yankees are the oldest team at 29 years, one month.

LARGEST WALKUP

The largest "walk-up" sale in Memorial Stadium was 31,626 for a May 9, 1971 weeknite game featuring the Oakland A's sensational rookie Vida Blue against the Orioles' Ace Jim Palmer. Something under 12,000 tickets had been sold in advance of game day . . . The total paid attendance that night was 43,307.

BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE/ORIOLES MUSEUM

Located at 216 Emory Street, the Babe Ruth Birthplace/Orioles Museum is just 6 blocks west of Baltimore's Inner Harbor, and only 2 blocks from the future Camden Yards ballpark.

The museum was officially established in '74 as an historic landmark and shrine to commemorate the birthplace of George Herman "Babe" Ruth. It was expanded in '83 to become the official Baltimore Orioles Museum.

The Babe Ruth Birthplace/Orioles Museum is open daily to the public from 10 am to 5 pm, and is the country's 2nd largest baseball museum, with 26 exhibits on the Orioles, Babe Ruth, and the history of baseball in Maryland.

And, it will soon be getting bigger. If all goes according to plan, a 2nd museum building, at Emory & Portland Streets, cater-corner to the birthplace, will open in the spring of '91. . . . The new facility which will quadruple the current exhibit space will feature an expanded Orioles museum, and a large photo replica of the inside of Memorial Stadium in the grand reception area.

To inquire about birthday parties, private receptions, memberships or group tours at the present facility, please call 301-727-1539.

O'S HAVE USED 35 THIRD BASEMEN SINCE BROOKS

Since Brooks Robinson retired in '77, the Orioles have used 35 different players at 3rd base. Alphabetically, they are: Juan Beniquez, Juan Bonilla, Fritz Connally, Todd Cruz, Rich Dauer, Doug DeCinces, Tom Dodd, Kiko Garcia, Rene Gonzales, Dan Graham, Wayne Gross, Glenn Gulliver, Jackie Gutierrez, Leo Hernandez, Rex Hudler, Tim Hulett, Ron Jackson, Ricky Jones, Ray Knight, Wayne Krenchicki, John Lowenstein, Eddie Murray, Tom O'Malley, Kelly Paris, Floyd Rayford, Bill Ripken, Cal Ripken Jr., Aurelio Rodriguez, Gary Roenicke, Wade Rowdon, Rick Schu, Larry Sheets, Pete Stanicek, Ron Washington; and Craig Worthington.

A total of 80 have played the "hot corner" for the O's during their 36 Baltimore seasons. Brooks appeared in a major league record 2,871 games there, but only 3 other Orioles have played 200 games at 3rd base for the Orioles: Doug DeCinces (792), Rich Dauer (242), and Floyd Rayford (204). Craig Worthington has played in 171 games at 3rd for the O's. Since DeCinces was traded to California prior to the '82 season, 29 Orioles have seen duty at that position.

18 STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS

The O's string of 18 consecutive winning seasons ('68 thru '85) was the 2nd longest in baseball history. The Yankees' 39 year string ('26 thru '64) represents the major league record.

A's played before only 1,201 at home on May 11, a Thursday afternoon make-up of a game rained out the night before. It was the third smallest crowd ever at Memorial Stadium.

The Orioles had 11 100,000+ series at home, most in club history . . . The O's handled 4 of the top 8 best attended series in club history including the 3rd highest ever: 164,040 vs. California, July 13–16 . . . In 36 years, the club has hosted 67 series of 100,000+, 56 of them coming in the last 11 years, starting '79.

30 HOME RUN CLUB

Seven different Orioles have hit 30 or more home runs in a season 17 different times. Eddie Murray has done it 5 times, followed by Boog Powell with 4. Frank Robinson accomplished the feat three times, Jim Gentile twice and Gus Triandos, Ken Singleton and Larry Sheets once each. Triandos was the first Oriole to achieve that mark when the hit 30 homers in '58, earning him a share of the A.L. record for a catcher that stood for 24 years until Detroit's Lance Parrish broke it in '82.

By Year: 1958–Triandos (30) . . . 1961–Gentile (46) . . . 1962–Gentile (33) . . . 1964–Powell (39) . . . 1966–F. Robinson (49, Club Record) and Powell (34) . . . 1967–F. ★ Led league ● Tied for league lead

To qualify as era leader must have 154 innings ('54-'60) and 162 or more innings (starting '61).

100 RBI MEN

During the O's first seven years ('54 thru '60), nobody drove in 100 runs . . . Then, in '61, Jim Gentile broke the barrier with gusto while accumulating 141 rbi, still a club record.

Since then, seven different players have driven in 100 runs 17 times; Eddie Murray (5 times); Boog Powell (3 times); Brooks and Frank Robinson, Ken Singleton and Cal Ripken (twice); Lee May (once).

By Year: 1961–Gentile (141) . . . 1964–Brooks (118)* . . . 1966–Frank (122), Powell (109) and Brooks (100) . . . 1969–Powell (121) and Frank (100) . . . 1970–Powell, (114) . . . 1976–May (109) . . . 1979–Singleton (111) . . . 1980–Murray (116) and Singleton (104) . . . 1982–Murray (110) . . . 1983–Murray (111) and Ripken (102) . . . 1984–Murray (110) . . . 1985–Murray (124) and Ripken (110).

NOTE: Murray became the fourth Oriole to lead the American League in runs batted in with 78 in '81, which was abbreviated by the players' strike.

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS

The Orioles have hit 17 inside-the-park home runs in their 36-year history, but none since Aug. 21, '76 when Al Bumbry hit one off Jesse Jefferson at Chicago. O's opponents have hit 14, including six since Bumbry's. Milwaukee's Mike Felder hit the only inside-the-park home run involving the O's in 1989 when he did it Sep 26 at County Stadium off Dave Johnson.

There have been 11 inside-the-park home runs hit at Memorial Stadium (9 by the Orioles, 2 by opponents). The last one hit at Baltimore came Apr 19, '74, when Bumbry hit one off N.Y.'s Steve Kline. Bumbry's 2 inside-the-park blasts rank him 2nd on the O's all-time list behind Paul Blair (3, two at home).

GRAND SLAM NOTES

O's Led the Majors in the '80's: The Orioles belted 50 grand slams in the '80s, 11 more than any other club (the Yankees (39) and Red Sox (37) were the next closest teams). Former Oriole Eddie Murray led the Orioles during the decade with 12.

Thru the Years: The O's have "outslammed" their opponents 134-85 over the last 36 years (including a 72-38 advantage at Baltimore).

Three in One Game: The Orioles and Texas set a major league record on Aug. 6, '86 when the two teams combined to hit three grand slams in Texas' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium (the record was equalled on June 3, '87, Hou. vs. Chi.). Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit grand slams for the O's, both in the 4th inning. It marked only the 5th time in major league history that one club has hit 2 grand slams in a single inning. It was the 4th time the O's had hit 2 grand slams in one game. Toby Harrah hit Texas' slam.

Two in a Game: Only 7 players have hit two grand slams in one game in baseball history and only 3 have hit them on consecutive at-bats. In both situations, two of them were Orioles: Gentile hit two in a row at Minnesota on May 9, '61 (Metropolitan Stadium off Pete Ramos and Paul Giel), and Frank Robinson did the same on June 26, '70 at RFK Stadium in Washington (off Joe Coleman, Jr. and Joe Grzenda).

Gentile Hit 5 in '61: Jim Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league standard in '61 when he hit 5 bases loaded home runs. The only prior player to reach that total was the Cubs' Ernie Banks in '55. In '87, Don Mattingly of the Yankees broke that record by hitting 6 grand slams.

Post-Season Slams-Slugging Pitchers: Only two pitchers have ever hit grand slam home runs in post-season play. Both were Orioles at the time, and both did it in 1970. In game one of the '70 ALCS, Mike Cuellar hit one off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minny) and in the 3rd game of the World Series vs. the Reds, Dave McNally found the range off Wayne Granger (at Baltimore).

The blast by Cuellar was the only ALCS grand slam ever until Don Baylor hit one for the Angels vs. Milwaukee in '82 (off Moose Haas) . . . Only two bases loaded homers have ever been hit in NLCS play: the Dodgers' Ron Cey and Dusty Baker in '77.

Opponents: Seven opponents have hit two career slams each against the O's. Nobody has hit more . . . Three have hit two at Memorial Stadium: Roy Sievers (Was.), Moose Skowron (N.Y.), Mike Epstein (Was.). There have been 13 alien pitchers to throw up two grand slams each to Baltimore batters.

Orioles "Gophers:" Among Orioles pitchers, Milt Pappas was the most generous. He gave up 6 bases loaded homers during his tenure in Baltimore. Dave McNally and Scott McGregor, are next in line with 4 apiece. On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

Notes on 20-Game Winners

Although the Orioles have had only one in the past 9 years, Baltimore pitchers have produced 23 20-game seasons in the past 22 years (starting '68), nearly twice as many as any other major league club (Oakland is next with 12).

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971 four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21 and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24—first game-clinched division title), Dobson (9/24—2nd game), and Palmer (9/26).

Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/30) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67) was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSER VS. O's

WINNERS: Though he has been retired for 22 years ('67), Whitey Ford, the Yankee Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more than anyone else. He was 30-16 against the Birds.

Ford was one of 11 pitchers to have posted 20 or more lifetime wins against the O's in 34 Baltimore seasons. The others: "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-22), Jim Perry (20-22) and Camilo Pascual (20-23).

Among currently active pitchers, the biggest winners against the O's are Bert Blyleven (19-14) and Frank Tanana (18-16).

LOSERS: Hunter, the 2nd biggest winner vs. Baltimore (26), is also the biggest lifetime loser (24) . . . At one time "Catfish" had a 23-16 lifetime record vs. the O's, but then lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79.

There have been 4 other 20-game losers: Tiant and Jim Perry (22 each), Fritz Peterson (14-21), and Kaat (21) . . . Other big losers were Lolich (19), Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19) . . . From a percentage standpoint, Jim Colborn, formerly of Brewers, Royals and Mariners, with a .150 (3-17) and Rudy May at .167 (3-15) rank near the bottom of the list.

Others who've had little success against Baltimore include: Geoff Zahn (2-11), Matt Keough (1-8), Milt Wilcox (4-12), Jim Beattie (3-11) and Mike Caldwell (3-9).

Among actives, Tanana and Nolan Ryan are the biggest losers (16). Blyleven is 3rd (14).

THREE STRAIGHT PENNANTS

The Orioles' 3 straight pennants '69–'70–'71 were not unprecedented in Baltimore baseball history. The National League Orioles won 3 straight pennants '94–'95–'96. Six of their number ultimately were elected to the Hall of Fame: John McGraw, Wilbert Robinson, Hughie Jennings, Willie Keeler, Dan Brouthers and Joe Kelley.

RULES OF INTEREST

TRADING AND WAIVER REGULATIONS: Player assignments may be made to another major league club without waivers at any time except between August 1 and the day following the final day of the regular season (5 p.m. et).

Waivers are required for assignments to National Association clubs at all times except for optional assignments within 3 years of the date the player first reported to the major leagues. One year shall be deducted from the above three year period for each season in which the player may have been charged with an option prior to first reporting to a major league club during a championship season.

FREE AGENCY: Six years major league service required for eligibility . . . Re-entry draft has been abolished.

By Dec. 7, player's former club must offer to arbitrate or it becomes ineligible to sign player . . . By Dec. 19, player must accept offer or on Jan. 9 former club becomes ineligible to sign the player until May 1.

SALARY ARBITRATION: Three years major league service required for eligibility . . . Maximum cut rules do not apply if, in immediately preceding year, player won arbitration increase of over 50%.

TERMINATION PAY: One full season's pay if player released opening day or later. Thirty days pay for player who is released on the 16th day before opening day or earlier. If player is released after that 16th day prior to opening day he receives one additional day's pay (over the 30 days) for each additional day. In other words, if he were released the day before opening day, player would receive 45 days pay.

SAVE RULE: Credit a pitcher with a save when he is the finishing, but not the winning pitcher, and when he qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(1) He enters the game with a lead of no more than 3 runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
(2) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
(3) He pitches effectively for at least 3 innings regardless of his club's lead.

The current rule was adopted in 1975. Saves became official for the first time in '69. The original rule was amended in '73 and revised again in '75.

BATTING/ERA TITLE QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances/162 or more innings pitched.

ROOKIE AWARD QUALIFICATIONS: A player is considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

(1) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or
(2) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a big league club(s) prior to Sep. 1.

CONSECUTIVE GAME STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a walk, hit by pitch, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate, however, if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated for any of the following reasons will be a suspended game IF it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4-½ or 5 innings):

(1) A curfew imposed by law
(2) A pre-arranged time limit
(3) Darkness where local law prohibits turning on the lights or where lights are not available.

Light Failure: A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical device under the control of the home club will be a suspended game anytime after it starts.

Inning in Progress (added in '80): If weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in progress, it will become a suspended game if either of the following conditions exists:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game, and the home team has not scored.
(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Note: If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither of the above situations prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Procedures for Resumption of Play: Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next single game between the two clubs on the same ground. If that is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in A.L. Regulation 5.2 (c).

CURFEW: The American League curfew provides that no inning may start after 1:00 a.m., but any inning that begins prior to 1 a.m. may be played to completion. Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the parks of the contesting teams. There is no other curfew in the American League.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles executed the only triple play in the A.L. last year, their first in 10 years. It occurred in the first inning of a home game against the Yankees on June 15. With Don Mattingly on first, Steve Sax on second and Jeff Ballard pitching for the Orioles, DH Steve Balboni lined out to SS Cal Ripken, who flipped the ball to brother Bill at second base to double-up Sax. Bill then threw to 1B Randy Milligan to get Mattingly. It was the 9th triple play in club history. The others:

Jun. 10, '79—at Bal.—Buddy Bell "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (DeCinces, Dauer, Murray)
Sep. 9, '78—at Tor.—Rick Cerone "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (DeCinces, Dauer, Murray)
Jun. 3, '77—at K.C.—John Wathan hit a sac fly to Pat Kelly in right. Fred Patek was caught off 1st and was out, Kelly to Mark Belanger to Billy Smith back to Belanger. Belanger then noticed Dave Nelson standing off 3rd base. He ran at him and tagged him out, completing the game-ending triple play and giving the O's a 7-6 win—9-6-4-6-6.
Sep. 29, '73—at Det.—Frank Howard "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, T. Crowley).
Jul. 7, '73—vs. Oak. at Bal.—Gene Tenace "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, E. Cabell).
Aug. 6, '69—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Eliseo Rodriguez "gitp" . . . 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, D. Johnson, B. Powell).
Apr. 9, '59—at Was.—Ed Fitzgerald line drive . . . 3-6-3 (Boyd, Carrasquel, Boyd).
Aug. 3, '55—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Art Ceccarelli "gidp," then runner was thrown out at home . . . 3-6-2 (G. Triandos, W. Miranda, H. Smith).

The Orioles have hit into 13 triple plays in 36 seasons, the last victim being Gary Roenicke against Oakland at Baltimore on May 7, '79. He grounded to third baseman Wayne Gross, who started an "around the horn" 5-4-3 triple play, the first executed against the Orioles since 1972. On four of the 13 occasions that Birds' opponents have completed triple plays, Brooks Robinson has been the batter. Brooks grounded into one, lined into another, and two were "gidp's", with a runner then being thrown out between third and home.

EASY MAGIC NUMBER FORMULAS

This one suggested by veteran Baltimore EVENING SUN baseball writer, Jim Henneman: Add trailing club's losses to leading team's wins . . . Subtract the sum from 162, then add one . . . That is your magic number.

This one from a Baltimore baseball fan, Michael McCoy: Subtract the leader's wins and the trailing team's losses from 163, i.e. Magic Number = 163 - LW - TL.

LOUIS M. HATTER "MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE" AWARD

Gregg Olson, who set an American League record for saves by a rookie (27), was named the winner of the '89 Louis M. Hatter "Most Valuable Oriole" Award. It is the first time in the award's 36-year history a freshman took home the trophy.

Olson came to spring training not knowing if he was going to be a starter or pitch in relief. Nor did he know if he would be pitching for the Orioles or at the "AAA" level. However, he was so impressive in Florida, he earned a spot on the team.

Olson's season began slowly and cautiously. He picked up 3 wins, but only had 2 saves through May 22, However, after that, he caught fire and the attention of the American League with 16 saves in his following 20 appearances.

The MVO award has been annually presented by the Sports Boosters of Maryland since the 1954 when the St. Louis Browns moved here. The Sports Boosters renamed the award in the memory of Lou Hatter, the distinguished sportswriter whose "beat" was the Orioles for 27 years. Voting for the award is done by the media who cover the Orioles on a regular basis.

Winners by position: Outfielders-13, 1st basemen-11, pitchers-8, 3rd basemen-4, shortstops-2, catchers and 2nd basemen-1 each.

NOTES: Though the Orioles have not won a Rawlings Gold Glove for the past 5 years, they bear the distinction of having won more such awards (48) than any other American League club since it all began in '57. Among major league teams, only the St. Louis Cardinals have won more (52½).

Winners by club thru the years: Cardinals-52½*, Orioles-48, Reds-41, Yankees-40, Tigers-35, Pirates-34, Phillies-32, Red Sox-31, White Sox-28, Dodgers-27, Twins-25, Cubs-22, Braves-21, Giants-17, Angels & Royals-16 each, Rangers, Athletics & Expos-13 each, Astros-12, Mets-10½*, Indians-10, Brewers & Padres-9 each, Blue Jays-6, Mariners-4, Original Senators-1.

The Orioles during the 11-year period from '69 thru '79 won 33 Gold Gloves, including 4 each in '69, '71, '73, '74 & '75. During the 80's, Eddie Murray was the Orioles' only winner. He earned three A.L. fielding awards, the last in '84.

A total of 8 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves. Leading that list is Brooks Robinson whose 16 tie him with Jim Kaat for most won by a single player (Roberto Clemente & Willie Mays are tied for 3rd with 12 each). Others: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger—8 each; Jim Palmer & Bobby Grich—4 each; Dave Johnson & Murray—3 each, and Luis Aparicio—2 (9 total).

The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in '57 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by vote of managers and coaches in each league. Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not simply on his fielding percentage.

Keith Hernandez played for both the Cardinals and Mets when he was chosen in '83.

BIRDS' FIRST GAME IN BALTIMORE IN '54

The modern American League Orioles made their Baltimore debut in Memorial Stadium on Apr. 15, 1954 before a crowd of 46,354 including Vice President Richard M. Nixon who threw out the first ball. Behind the seven hit pitching of Bob Turley who fanned nine, the Orioles of Jimmy Dykes defeated Paul Richards' White Sox, 3-1, in Baltimore's first American League game in 52 years. Chico Carrasquel, the Chicago shortstop, was the first to bat in the new stadium and singled off Turley.

Clint Courtney won the distinction of hitting the first home run in the brand new stadium (built on the site of the previous municipally owned ballpark used by the International League O's). It was a bases empty blast off Virgil Trucks who also yielded a solo homer to Vern Stephens in the fourth and was the losing pitcher.

The Birds' starting lineup in that game was: Bobby Young, 2b; Eddie Waitkus, 1b; Gil Coan, cf; Vic Wertz, rf; Sam Mele, lf; Stephens, 3b; Billy Hunter, ss; Courtney, c and Turley, p.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Final Overall Record: 87-75
2nd in A.L. East, 2 games behind Toronto

"When you've gone first class all the way, which station you finally pull into is beside the point."--Jonathan Yardley, The Washington Post, on the '89 Orioles

What a ride it was.

It began for Manager Frank Robinson's Orioles in February in Sarasota, FL with vivid memories of their 54-107 record in '88 and the youngest spring training roster in the major leagues. It ended 7 months later at the Toronto SkyDome with a pair of heartbreaking one-run losses that left the Orioles 2 games short of becoming the 1st major league team to go from last place to 1st since the 1889-1890 Louisville Colonels of the American Association.

Along the way the Orioles spent 116 days in 1st place, including 98 consecutive days, May 26-Aug 31. And they did it with many new, young faces. Of the 40 players to wear an Orioles uniform in '89, 19 were wearing it for the 1st time and 22 began '89 with less than 2 years of major league experience. In addition, 13 were rookies and 6 others were in their 1st full season in the majors...Sixteen '89 Orioles were ex-National Leaguers.

Just how incredible was the Orioles journey?

Ask any of 186 baseball writers polled by The Sporting News for their predictions at the start of the season. Of that group, 170 picked the Orioles to finish last, 11 picked the O's 6th, and 5 conceded a 5th place finish was possible.

Their 87-75 record was a $32^{1/2}$-game improvement over '88, and matched the '36 Boston Braves as the 3rd greatest improvement in modern major league history (and it was the 2nd best in the American League.) The only 2 teams with greater improvement were the '03 New York Giants who improved $34^{1/2}$ games and the '46 Boston Red Sox who improved 33. It should be noted that the Red Sox were aided greatly by the return of World War II veterans Ted Williams .342, and pitchers Tex Hughson 20-11, Mickey Harris 17-9, and Joe Dobson 13-7.

The O's 87 wins tied the '67 Cubs for the most wins ever for a team following a 100-loss season. The Orioles became the 11th team in major league history to have a winning season the year after losing 100 games. Quite a ride for a team that had been 109 games under .500 between Aug 6, '86 and the start of the '89 season.

WINS AND LOSSES: The Orioles opened the season with a pair of wins over the defending Eastern Division champion Red Sox, sparking them to 12 wins in the 1st month, matching '85 for their most wins in April in 10 years...The O's lost 7 of their 1st 10 in May and were only 15-19 thru May 14.

Buoyed by the league's best pitching over the next month (O's pitchers posted a 2.45 era between mid-May and mid-June) the Orioles, beginning with a win at Texas on May 17, went on a 38-19 tear...The Orioles moved into 1st place in the East on May 26 (it wouldn't be until 98 days later that they gave it up).

On July 18, the O's had a 53-38 record and a $7^{1/2}$-game lead, both season highs...The O's lost at home to Seattle on June 19, then went on their longest road trip in 14 years, a 14-game, 4-city trip. They went 2-12 on the trip, but held on to 1st place.

It took a 9-8 win at Boston in the last game of the trip to keep the 2nd place Red Sox from catching the O's then and there...In that game, the O's rallied from a 6-0 deficit in the 6th inning, providing one of the season's most dramatic moments...Between July 19 and the 1st game of Aug 11, the O's were 5-17, but held onto the lead...It tied the worst 20-game stretch ever by a 1st-place team (the '75 Pirates also went 5-17, and didn't give up the lead in the N.L. East on their way to the division title).

The O's lead in the East was 2 games or less for 26 of 31 days in August. Toronto caught up with the O's on Aug 31 and passed them the next night when the O's dropped a 10-1 decision at Chicago.

The Orioles remained no more than $2^{1/2}$ games back and were one game out when they went to Toronto for the final 3 games of the year.

Toronto overcame a pair of O's 8th-inning leads to win 2-1 in 11 innings on Friday and 4-3 on Saturday to clinch the division. It was the 12th time since divisional play began that a race was decided in the final series. The Orioles' elimination matched the 2nd latest in club history...In '82 they were eliminated on the final day; in '80 and '64 it came in game #161.

AGAINST THE LEAGUE'S BEST: The Orioles went 17-6 in games when the opposing pitcher was one of the following pitchers: Nolan Ryan (3-0)...Mark Gubicza (3-1)...Greg Swindell (3-1)...Dave Stieb (2-0)...Ted Higuera (2-1)...Roger Clemens (1-1)...Dave Stewart (1-1)...Bob Welch (1-1)...Frank Viola (1-0)...The O's were 18-10 against pitchers who have won 20 games in the majors.

ALL-STAR BREAK: The Orioles became one of only 6 teams to be in 1st place at the All-Star break after a last-place finish the year before (since All-Star play began in '33)...The others: '74 Phillies, '77 White Sox, '83 Blue Jays, '84 Mets, and '86 Giants...O's 48-37 record was an improvement of 21 games over the break a year earlier, the greatest improvement ever by a team from one All-Star break to another.

ARTIFICIAL SURFACE: The Orioles were 10-14 in the A.L. ballparks with artificial turf, the 5th time in the last 6 years they've had a losing record on the carpet...Over the last 2 seasons, the O's are 7-5 at Seattle and 8-29 in the three other artificial surface parks...In '89 the O's were 4-2 at Seattle, 2-4 at Kansas City, 3-3 at Toronto, and 1-5 at Minnesota...O's lifetime mark on the carpet is 174-188 (.481)...The O's are 167-184 (.476) in the A.L. stadiums (Chicago, 27-24, from '68 thru '75; Kansas City, 39-58; Minnesota, 19-29; Seattle, 44-29; Toronto, 38-44 (35-41 at Exhibition Stadium and 3-3 at SkyDome); and 7-4 in four World Series ('70 Cincinnati, 2-0; '71 Pittsburgh, 0-3; '79 Pittsburgh, 2-1; '83 Philadelphia, 3-0).

BATTING: The Orioles had a .252 team average and were shut out 15 times, most since '68, but only 4 major league teams scored more than the O's 708 runs...How?...One reason was the Orioles received 593 walks, 2nd in the majors and 107 more than the O's pitchers issued...That margin was the best in baseball...Of the O's 593 walks, 167 led to runs and 11 came with the bases loaded...Opponents walked 486 times, 112 scored, 4 came with the bases full.

O's team speed was also evident...Their 118 steals were the most since '76 and their 33 triples were the highest total since '75...O's also executed 63 sacrifice bunts, most since '75 and 30 more than they had averaged over the previous 4 seasons...The Orioles used 113 different lineups...For the 1st time since '78, the Orioles hit higher at home (.255) than on the road (.249)...Biggest increase was by the Orioles' outfielders who batted .262, 26 points higher than a year ago.

O's run production fell off a run per game the last $2^{1/2}$ months...As late as July 18, the Orioles were leading the majors in runs per game (4.8), slugging (.403) and extra-base hits (252), and were batting .262 (at the time the O's were a season-best 53-38)...However, over the final 71 games, the O's batted only .238 and averaged 3.8 runs per game, had 148 extra-base hits and were 34-37...O's batted .270 (148-40) with the bases loaded, .322 (87-28) before the All-Star break and .197 (61-12) after the break.

BATTING WITH MEN IN SCORING POSITION: ANDERSON, .200 (50-10)...BELL, .000 (2-0)...BRADLEY, .240 (121-29)...DEVEREAUX, .238 (105-25)...DAVIS, .000 (2-0)...FINLEY, .273 (55-15)...GONZALES, .244 (41-10)...HOILES, .250 (4-1)...HULETT, .440 (25-11)...JEFFERSON, .385 (26-10)...MELENDEZ, .333 (3-1)...MELVIN, .292 (72-21)...MILLIGAN, .261 (88-23)...MORELAND, .179 (28-5)...ORSULAK, .279 (104-29)...QUIRK, .400 (15-6)...B. BATTING WITH BASES LOADED: ANDERSON, .000 (3-0)...BRADLEY, .167 (12-2)...DEVEREAUX, .429 (7-3)...FINLEY, .200 (10-2)...GONZALES, .000 (1-0)...HOILES, .000 (1-0)...HULETT, 1.000 (5-5)...JEFFERSON (.250, 4-1)...MELVIN, .333 (15-5)...MILLIGAN, .000 (6-0)...MORELAND, .500 (2-1)...ORSULAK, .444 (9-4)...QUIRK, .000 (1-0)...B. RIPKEN, .444 (9-4)...C. RIPKEN, .071 (14-1)...SHEETS, .200 (5-1)...TETTLETON, .250 (16-4)...TRABER, .083 (12-1)...WORTHINGTON, .375 (16-6)...TEAM, .270 (148-40).

BY MONTH: Apr (12-12)...May (14-10)...June (17-11)...July (11-16)...Aug (18-13)...Sep (14-13)...Oct (1-0).

CLOSE GAMES/LATE-INNING WINS: The Orioles were 9-3 in extra-inning games. Only Toronto (13-4) was better among major league clubs...Over the last 2 seasons the O's have gone 16-7, the best record in the majors... O's were 18-16 in one-run games and 37-33 in 1- and 2-run games combined...O's were 22-18 in games decided in the 7th inning or later...The O's were involved in 13 "sudden death" games and were winners in 8 of them...O's were 13-12 in games decided in the last at-bat...The O's won 6 games when they trailed after 7 innings...Entering the last weekend, the O's were 71-4 when they led after 7 innings...However, on Sep 29-30 the O's lost 2 games after leading in the 8th.

DAYS IN EACH PLACE: 1st (116); 2nd (44); 3rd (8); 4th (9); 5th (5); 6th (0); 7th (0). The Orioles' 116 days in 1st were the most ever by a team coming off a last-place finish and 81 more days than any other A.L. East club (Toronto-35)...The O's had spent a combined 23 days in 1st from '84-'88...The Orioles, who spent every day of '88 in last, were the only A.L. East team not to occupy last at least one day this year...The O's spent 98 straight days in 1st place, May 26-Aug 31...The O's were never more than 3 games out of 1st place and their largest lead was $7^{1/2}$ games (June 28; July 18-20)...The O's were alone in 1st later than any team ever coming off a last-place finish.

DESIGNATED HITTERS: The Orioles' designated hitters batted only .237 (603-143), 13th in the A.L. and the club's 5th lowest since DH rule was instituted in '73...O's DH's were 3rd in the league with 85 runs scored...Over the last 17 years that the DH rule has been in affect, O's DH's have batted .272 (9747-2654) and averaged 18 homers and 82 rbi...O's DH's hit 16 home runs, 8 by Mickey Tettleton, and drove in 71 runs...The O's used 13 different DHs...Larry Sheets was the league's 5th busiest designated hitter with 291 ABs.

EIGHTIES: Despite having the worst season by any major league team in the '80s ('88: 54-107), the Orioles finished the decade with an 800-761 (.512) record, 13th best in the majors.

FIELDING, O'S SET MAJOR LEAGUE MARK: The Orioles set a major league record for best club fielding percentage in one season (.9860, TC-6227, E-87)...The Orioles broke the record of .9857 set in '88 by the Twins...The O's and the '88 Twins are the only 2 teams in major league history to finish with less than 90 errors in a full season...The Orioles also set a franchise record with 93 errorless games.

The Orioles allowed only 42 unearned runs, fewest in the majors since the '82 Orioles allowed only 39...O's made only 26 errors in 1st 66 games (38-28); 40 in the next 46 (20-26), and 21 in the last 50 (29-21).

The O's made only 9 errors in May, 3 by the infield...The Orioles didn't allow an unearned run until their 15th game of the season...The last time a team did better was the '81 A's who didn't allow an unearned run until the 17th game.

FIELDING, INDIVIDUAL Phil Bradley had the highest defensive ranking by a leftfielder (.990, 4th in A.L.)...O's 1st basemen Randy Milligan and Jim Traber didn't make an error until June 17...They had gone 63 games without one....Their combined total of 6 errors were 10 fewer at 1st base than '88 and tied with California for the fewest in the majors...O's catchers Mickey Tettleton, Bob Melvin, Jamie Quirk and Chris Hoiles, made only 5 errors all year, lowest total in the majors.

Cal Ripken led all major league shortstops in putouts (276), assists (531), total chances (815) and double plays (119)...His career best .9902 fielding pct. was 2nd in the majors behind Tony Fernandez, who set an A.L. record with a .992 fielding mark...Cal went 47 games without an error (239 TCs), Aug. 5-Sep. 23, longest streak of his career.

Craig Worthington was 2nd among A.L. 3rd basemen with 410 total chances... His 145 games at 3rd were the most by an Oriole since Doug DeCinces in '77 (148), the year Brooks Robinson retired...Tim Hulett became the O's 35th 3rd basemen since Brooks.

Catchers Efficiency (ATT-CS-PCT): QUIRK (12-4-33%)...TETTLETON (71-17-24%)...MELVIN (63-13-21%)...TEAM (146-34-23%).

Triple Play: The only triple play in the A.L. was executed by the O's...On June 15 vs. the Yankees, the Orioles pulled off the 9th triple play in club history, 1st since June 10, '79...NY's Steve Balboni lined into the triple play (L6-4-3, Cal Ripken-Bill Ripken-Randy Milligan).

HOME AND AWAY: The Orioles had the 7th best home record in the majors (47-34)...Despite losing 10 of their 1st 15 on the road, their record away from Memorial Stadium was a 20-game improvement over '88 when they set a major league record for fewest road wins in a 162-game season (20-61)...The Orioles matched last year's road win total on June 21 when they captured their 20th road win at Seattle...The O's snapped a streak of 3 straight losing seasons at home during which they were a combined 37 games under .500.

HOME RUNS: The Orioles were 5th in the A.L. in homers with 129 (2 ahead of Oakland), their fewest for a full season since '76 (119)...There were only 263 home runs hit in Orioles games this year, a dropoff of 40% from 2 years ago when the O's and their opponents combined to hit 437, most in major league history, and a decrease of 10% from '88 (290)...O's allowed 134, fewest since '83 (130).

The O's had their best success with homers against some of the league's toughest pitchers: A.L. save leader Jeff Russell, major league strikeout leader Nolan Ryan and Mark Gubicza, the league's toughest starter to hit a home run off...The O's hit their most homers off Ryan (5) including 3 in one game on May 29 in a 6-1 win, the most he has allowed in a game since Aug 6, '82.

On Sep 16, the Orioles hit 3 home runs off Gubicza, the most he'd allowed since Aug 25, '84...The Birds also hit 2 homers (both game winners) off Russell, who allowed only 4 all year...Combined, Russell, Ryan (17) and Gubicza (10) gave up only 31 homers and the O's hit 10...The O's hit 22 three-run homers and one grand slam (rookie Steve Finley at NY on June 5)...They hit only 9 three-run homers and one grand slam in '88.

Memorial Stadium: Only 126 home runs were hit at Memorial Stadium in '89, fewest since '78 (116)...There were 235 home runs hit at Memorial Stadium in '87, but in 2 years since there have been a combined total of just 273 (147 in '88).

JUNE DRAFT: For the 1st time in history, the Orioles had the 1st overall selection in the June free agent draft. And, for the 1st time since the draft was initiated in 1965, the Orioles became the only team to be in 1st place on the day they picked the 1st player in the draft. The Orioles selected 2-time All-America pitcher Ben McDonald out of LSU.

"MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE": Orioles' rookie reliever Gregg Olson (O's #1 pick in '88) was selected the winner of the '89 Louis M. Hatter "Most Valuable Oriole" Award. The award is selected by vote of sportswriters and broadcasters who cover the team at home and regularly on the road. The award is named in honor of Lou Hatter, the beloved dean of Baltimore baseball writers who passed away in May '88.

Olson is the 1st rookie to win the award. He received a total of 42 points, 6 first-place votes, in the 5-3-1 point system. Cal Ripken finished 2nd in the voting with 29 points (4 first-place votes)...Others receiving votes in order were: Mickey Tettleton (9), Jeff Ballard ($5^{1/3}$ points), Craig Worthington ($4^{1/3}$ points) and Bob Milacki (1/3 point).

PINCH HITTERS: Although Orioles' pinch hitters batted .212 (118-25), 10th in the A.L and 14 points below the league average (.226), the O's did have 2 of the league's best individuals...Joe Orsulak's .400 (15-6) mark was the highest among A.L. pinch hitters with 15 or more ABs...Larry Sheets (.333, 18-6) had the 5th highest average.

The remaining O's pinch hitters batted only .153 (85-13)...The O's hit 2 pinch homers: Orsulak on Apr 11 at KC off Tom Gordon and Jim Traber on June 22 at California off Willie Fraser...Mike Devereaux was 0-for-14, the most pinch-hit ABs without a hit in the A.L.

PITCHING: Only 48 of the O's 162 games were started by pitchers with more than 2 years of major league experience...The Orioles used 17 pitchers-11 entered the season with 2 years or less experience; 14 with less than 15 career wins and 8 were rookies...Those 17 entered the season with a total of 170 career wins--an average of just 10...Only 3 (Dave Schmidt-41, Mark Thurmond-36, Jay Tibbs-31) had more than 15 wins.

O's used 11 starters...The O's recalled a total of 6 pitchers (Tibbs, Mickey Weston, Dave Johnson, Ben McDonald, Curt Schilling, Mike Smith) that didn't start the season with the O's and they went 13-8 with 2 saves)...Thru July 3, minor league recalls were 8-0. O's pitchers struck out 676, fewest by a major league staff since '83 (California-668, KC-593)...The O's fanned 10 or more only 3 times (Nolan Ryan had 18 such games in '89), and their 486 walks were their fewest since '83 (452)...O's walked 2 or less in 81 games...The O's had 11 games without a walk, 9 without a strikeout.

O's 4.00 era was the lowest since '84, 9th in the A.L...O's staff era reached a season-low 3.45 on June 18 following a stretch of 13 games, May 17-30, in which they allowed only 22 runs, the best stretch by an Orioles staff since '74...For more than a month, May 17 thru June 18, the O's had the best era in the majors (2.45, IP-279.2, ER-76) while going 22-9.

Starters: O's starters were 61-58 (4.20, IP-961.2, H-1031, ER-449)...The starters worked into the 7th inning 90 times (57-33)...The Orioles went 18-5 in the last 23 games started by Jeff Ballard and Bob Milacki beginning Aug 17...O's starters worked 26 times on 3 days rest (all coming after Aug 15) and were 14-7 (2.87, IP-188.1, ER-60).

Bullpen: The O's bullpen was 26-17 (.605). Only KC (29-17, .630) had a better winning pct. in the A.L...O's converted 44 of 59 save opportunities (75%), tied with Texas for the 2nd best pct. in the A.L. behind Oakland (76%)...The O's bullpen finished 2nd in the A.L. in the Rolaids Team Bullpen Standings, accumulating 120 points behind Oakland's 135...O's were 5th in the majors according to the Rolaids system (SV +3 pts, Win +2, Loss -2, Blown SV -2)...O's relievers posted a 3.61 era (IP-486.2, H-487, ER-195), 9th in the A.L.

Save/Save Opportunities: HICKEY (2-2, 100%)...HOLTON (0-1)...HUISMANN (1-3, 33%)...OLSON (27-33, 82%)...THURMOND (4-4, 100%)...WESTON (1-1, 100%)...WILLIAMSON (9-15, 60%)...TEAM (44-59, 75%).

Runners Inherited/Scored-Pct. Stranded: HICKEY (48/12, 75%)...HOLTON (30-16, 47%)...HUISMANN (7-2, 71%)...McDONALD (7-4, 43%)...OLSON (45-10, 78%)...SCHMIDT (8-2, 75%)...MIKE SMITH (19-2, 90%)...THURMOND (48-18, 63%)...WESTON (4-2, 50%)...WILLIAMSON (64-25, 61%)...OTHERS (9-3, 67%)...TEAM (291/98, 66%).

PRESIDENT BUSH: The Orioles went 3-1 in games attended by President George Bush, 2-1 at home...Those games were: Apr 3, Opening Day, 5-4 in 11 innings over Boston at home; 8-1 on Apr 25 at California; 2-1 at home over Toronto on June 28; and a 6-4 loss to Texas at home on Aug 4...The President threw out the 1st ball Opening Day and the O's win was their 1st ever when a president has thrown out the 1st ball...O's had been 0-4 (President Reagan 0-3, President Carter 0-1).

ROOKIES: The Orioles used 13 rookies, all but 3 were with the team before Sep 1...Only the Tigers, White Sox, Braves and Twins used more...The O's opened spring training with the youngest roster in the majors and their opening day lineup was their youngest since 1968, averaging 27 years, one month. They opened the season with six rookies on the roster (Mike Devereaux, Steve Finley, Pete Harnisch, Bob Milacki, Craig Worthington, and Gregg Olson).

Rookies had either a win and/or a save in 50 of the O's 87 wins and pitched 39% of the O's total innings...The Orioles became the 1st team (since saves became an official statistic in '69) to get 25 saves and 25 wins combined from rookies.

O's used 8 rookie pitchers, 7 earned wins...O's rookie pitchers led all major league clubs in nearly every category including starts (69, Atlanta was 2nd with 56); innings (569.2, Atlanta was 2nd with 391.2) and wins (32, KC and Min. were 2nd with 20)...The last team to get more innings out of its rookies was the '86 Rangers (775 ip)..Gregg Olson had 8 more saves than all other A.L. rookies combined.

The O's rookie run production was 3rd best in the majors...O's rookies combined to produce 266 runs, 3rd behind Seattle (323) and the Cubs (286)...O's 1,118 at bats by rookies were also 3rd most behind the Mariners

(1,548) and Cubs (1,230)...Craig Worthington led all M.L. rookies with 70 rbi.

OPENING DAY

The Orioles are 22-14 in 36 previous openers, an edge built largely from 1970 thru 1982 when they went 11-2 (including 7-0 from '70 thru '76).

For the past 9 years ('81 thru '89) the O's have opened the season at home and have gone 5-4 in that stretch . . . In home openers alone, the Birds are 23-13. Opening Day in Baltimore has drawn over 50,000 in 9 of the last 10 seasons.

ORIOLES VS. OPPONENTS

VS. BOSTON ('89: 6-7, Lifetime: 287-318, .474)...The Red Sox won the season series for the 6th straight year (starting '84)...In that period, the O's are only 26-52 (.333) against Boston...Over the last 3 seasons, the Birds have gone 11-28 (.282) in the season series, and in the '80s they are 48-73, their worst record against one club in the decade just past.

The Carmines' lifetime won-lost record is the best among all Orioles opponents. It's been more than 17 years since the Orioles have held a winning record against the Sox--since Sep 20, '72 (184-183).

The Orioles maintain a winning record against each of their 13 opponents at Baltimore, but their 154-150 lead against the Sox at Memorial Stadium is easily their most precarious.

Fenway Park has been traditionally a house of horrors for the Orioles whose lifetime percentage there is a modest .442 (133-168), their worst anywhere...Since Mike Boddicker decisioned Bob Stanley in Boston on Sep 30, '86, the Birds have gone 3-17 at Fenway, including 2-5 a year ago.

Pitching was definitely not the name of the 13 games between Boston and Baltimore...The Sox' average run yield was 5.6 runs (era 4.60) and the O's 5.5 (era 4.81).

RED SOX BATTING: Over the last 3 years Boston has batted .312 as a club (1390-433) in 39 games vs. the O's while scoring an average of 6.3 runs per game...Their on-base percentage in that stretch is an impressive 38% (1570-597).

The Sox' offensive achievements at the Orioles expense are borne out by individual stats...For example, the top 2 career active hitters against Baltimore (minimum 100 at bats) are Mike Greenwell (.425, 113-48) and Marty Barrett (.367, 281-103)....Three of the top 6 are Red Sox--add Wade Boggs (.342, 374-128), and 5 of the top 14--add Jim Rice (.324, 680-220) and Ellis Burks (.313, 144-45).

In home runs Rice (38) and Dwight Evans (28) are 1-2 (Evans is actually tied with Tony Armas), and in rbi, it's Rice 136 at the top, and Evans 2nd with 128 (Evans takes the lead if Rice retires)...At the end of last season, those 2, and George Brett (101) were the only actives with 100 or more rbi vs. Baltimore pitching.

Greenwell has developed into the Orioles' chief nemesis. Not only does he lead all opponents in average, but he has driven in 23 runs and hit 8 home runs in 18 games vs. the Birds over the last 2 years...He also hit for the cycle once in that span (9/14/88 at Boston).

Barrett in '87 hit .529 (51-27) against the O's in 13 games, believed to be the highest average ever recorded vs. Baltimore pitching one season (30 or more at bats)...Though Boggs is batting .342 lifetime against the Orioles, that figure is 10 points below his major league career mark (.352).

Here is Rice's consolidated career line against the Orioles in 174 games: Average-.324 (680-220), HR-38, RBI-136....Nick Esasky, in his lone A.L. campaign, hit 4 homers and drove in 14 in 12 games against the Birds.

RED SOX PITCHING: Clemens, 1-0 in 2 '89 starts, has won 7 of his last 8 decisions against Baltimore and is 7-2 lifetime...Reliever Bob Stanley

Lee Smith, in 2 Red Sox seasons is 1-0 with 5 saves in 12 appearances...In his 3 A.L. campaigns, Jeff Reardon is 2-1 with 7 saves in 13 appearances...Over the last 2 years, he's held O's batters to a .111 average (36-4)...Wes Gardner, 1-0 in 3 '89 starts, is 4-0 lifetime against Baltimore (3-0 at Memorial Stadium).

Mike Boddicker had a 9.39 era (ip-7.2, er-8) in 2 starts against his former teammates while going 0-1...He's 1-1 lifetime.

ORIOLES BATTING: The top hitters against the Sox were : Bill Ripken-.333 (21-7), Randy Milligan-.321 (28-9) and Cal Ripken-.314 (51-16)...Lifetime, Cal's .268 average (414-111) vs. Boston is the best on the club).

ORIOLES PITCHING: Six different pitchers accounted for the O's 6 wins against the Red Sox...Jose Bautista, 1-0 in 2 starts, held the Sox to a .200 average (50-10)...So did Pete Harnisch, 1-1 (55-11)...Bob Milacki who was 0-2 in the season series in 2 starts had an 11.57 era (ip-7, er-9)...The Red Sox batted .343 (35-12) against him.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS:

Mon, Apr 3 (Bal)...A dramatic win for the O's who snapped the presidential jinx (they'd gone 0-4 at Memorial Stadium with U.S. presidents in attendance). Not only was Mr. Bush there, but so was Egypt's chief executive, Hosni Mubarak--See page 50 for more on presidential visits)

More than that, they eliminated the possibility of another 0-21 start... Steve Finley's first major league defensive play was a smash (into the fence) that stole extra bases from Nick Esasky, but it was to cost the O's rookie 3 weeks on the DL...Cal Jr's 3-run homer off "Cy" Clemens put O's ahead in 6th, but Sox tied it in the 7th.

It remained for rookie Craig Worthington to win it in the 11th with a 1-out single over a 5-man infield (Greenwell came in from left field to join Wade Boggs and Jody Reed on the left side of the infield) off Mike Smithson...It was the 2nd time Joe Morgan had employed that maneuver in Baltimore, and the 2nd time it failed...Most of 52,161 went home happy.

Sat, Apr 15 (Bos)...O's were 1-13 in last 14 at Fenway before downing Mike Boddicker, 12-4, scoring 7 runs in the 9th off Mike's successors...The rally featured 3-run homers by Brady Anderson & Larry Sheets.

Tue, Aug 1 (Bos)...The absolute low point of the season...The O's dropped both ends of a rare day-night doubleheader and had now gone 1-13 in their last 14...Their lead was down to one game...A total of 70,012 watched the 2 games...At the suggestion of the players from both clubs, a total of $10,000 from the gate receipts was donated to charity.

Wed, Aug 2 (Bos)...Arguably the biggest win of the season...Trailing 6-0 entering the 6th after having lost 13 of 14 games, the O's score 3 each in 6th, 7th and 8th...Randy Milligan's 3-run 7th inning homer ties it and Cal put O's ahead for good with a double in the 8th...Bill (4) and Cal (3) combined for 7 hits...Our distinguished researcher Al Kermisch indicates the only brother combo to have exceeded that total was the Waners, Paul and Lloyd, who once had 8 in one game.

Sat, Aug 12 (Bal)...The Orioles' longest game of the season by time (5:23) was decided negatively at 1 a.m. on a Rich Gedman double in the 13th...Twelve pitchers from both sides threw a total of 501 pitches. Nick Esasky hit a 425' home run to left that nearly cleared the left field stands (only Frank Robby has hit one completely out of the park)...Al Bumbry, Sox 1st base coach, got the heave ho from John Hirschbeck, his 3rd lifetime (first 2 as player with O's).

Sun, Aug 13 (Bal)...O's gained a split in 4 game series (behind Dave Johnson's 2nd straight cg)...The Sox made 9 errors in the set and 10 of the O's 22 runs were unearned.

VS CALIFORNIA ('89: 6-6, Lifetime: 219-173, .559)...The Angels hit .317 (432-137), but had to settle for a tie in the 12 game season series...Ten of the 15 Angels who batted against the Orioles hit over .300.

Over the last 3 years, these 2 clubs have played 36 games, and 26 of them have been decided by 1 or 2 runs...During the '80s, the O's were 71-49 (.592) against the Angels , and went 7-1 in season series competition with 2 ties.

ANGELS BATTING: The Angels' 17 homers were the most hit against the Orioles by a single opponent...In limited duty, 2 Angels hit .500 against the O's: Bill Schroeder (14-7) and Max Venable (12-6)...Venable who trained with the Orioles several seasons back enjoyed his first 4-hit game in the majors on July 15 in Baltimore...Among regulars, Johnny Ray hit .386 (44-17) and Lance Parrish .370 (27-10) with 3 homers.

However, the most productive Angel was Jack Howell whose 5 homers were tops among O's opponents (5 of his first 12 homers were against Baltimore; he wound up with 20)...Howell drove in 10 runs in 11 games.

ANGELS PITCHING: Six different pitchers each won a game against the Orioles, while Willie Fraser (0-3) accounted for half of the California defeats... Chuck Finley (1-0) fanned 29 Orioles in 21.1 innings, tops in the league and one more than Nolan Ryan registered against the Birds...Finley also held the O's to a .215 combined average in his 3 starts, yet his era vs Baltimore was a modest 4.22 (10 er)...Lifetime, he's 2-1.

Mike Witt, 1-1 in '89, is 7-12 lifetime...In Baltimore where he was 0-0 in one start last year, Witt is 1-6, and has lost 5 in a row here in 9 starts since that lone victory on Aug 28, '81 over Steve Stone...In his 7 decisions here, the Angels have scored only 14 runs.

Bryan Harvey, the Angels' prime closer, suffered from wildness in 5 outings totaling 4.1 innings...He was 0-1 with 2 saves and a lofty 10.38 era, thanks to a yield of 6 walks which combined with 4 hits resulted in 5 earned runs...He also fanned 9 Orioles with his blazer...Mike Smithson, after a 3-0 '88, went 0-2 in the '89 season series for the Red Sox with an 8.49 era (ip-11.2, er-11)...The O's hit .417 (48-20) against him last year...Lifetime he's 8-9.

Bert Blyleven was 1-0 in 2 starts and is now the leading active winner vs Baltimore at 19-14...The runner-up is Detroit's Frank Tanana (18-16)...Last year the Netherlands-born righthander didn't give up a home run (in '88 the O's homered 6 times off him, and in '87 8 times). However, the O's did hit .306 (49-15) against him in 2 starts.

During the last 3 years, Blyleven has gone 3-3 against the Birds in 9 starts, and it hasn't been pretty (ip-56, h-62, er-42, hr-14, bb-22, so-32, era-6.75)...Over the past 2 seasons, the O's have batted .333 (99-33) against this grizzled veteran of many campaigns.

ORIOLES BATTING Phil Bradley has been a consistent Angels irritant throughtout the A.L. portion of his career...Last year he led the O's with a .432 average (37-16), and has batted .320 (200-64) against them lifetime... Steve Finley excelled at the plate vs. California (.355, 31-11) in his 1st big league season, but fellow rookie, Craig Worthington struggled (.097, 31-3).

ORIOLES PITCHING: The O's era in the 12 games was 4.92, so don't look for many Herculean feats in this category...Mark Williamson is the only current Oriole with more than one career victory at California's expense...He's now 6-2 after going 2-0 a year ago.

he O's two top starters had their hands full with California...Jeff Ballard was 1-1 in 3 starts, and the Angels batted .379 (58-22) against him, and his era was 8.03 (ip-12.1, er-11)...Bob Milacki went 0-2 despite a 3.00 (ip-18, er-6)...The Angels batted .304 (69-21) against him.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS:

Mon, Apr 24 (Cal)--After 2 losses, Jim Abbott earned his 1st big league victory, 3-2, over the O's and Dave Schmidt.

Tue, Apr 25 (Cal)--Four home runs (Jim Traber, Bill Ripken, Mickey Tettleton and Steve Finley) offset 5 gidps as the O's romped 8-1...Finley's, a 3-run shot, was his 1st in the majors...President Bush was in Anaheim that night and shook a few Orioles hands in the bullpen.

Thu, Jun 22 (Cal)--The O's blew a 5-0 lead over Abbott, but Traber's pinch home run in the 8th inning off Willie Fraser won it before a national television (ABC) audience.

Thu, Jul 13 (Bal)--The Angels won their 4th straight from the O's, 13-5, and had scored 33 runs in those 4 games...Blyleven won his 19th game lifetime (20th if you include a '79 WS win for the Pirates) though he gave up 5 runs in 6 innings..The O's would go on to win the last 3 games of that final series to even their record at 6-6 against the Angels.

Sat, Jul 15 (Bal)--Mike Devereaux turned this one into a classic with a controversial game-winning, game-ending 9th inning home run down the leftfield line that brought out the savage in Angels' skipper Doug Rader. He hyperventilated after Umpire Jim Joyce called it fair...The O's cause was significantly enhanced by 10 walks from 3 Angels pitchers (5 of those runners scored).

The O's had never led in the game until that final moment and they were outhit, 19-9...None of these dramatics would have been possible without Joe Orsulak's 7th inning 2-run pinch triple that kept the O's within striking distance.

Sun, Jul 16 (Bal)--Another "game of inches" for the 2nd day in a row. This time it was a drive down the rightfield line in the 11th inning by Mickey Tettleton off Willie Fraser that brought instant victory to Baltimore as Cal Jr romped home from 1st.

Manager Rader didn't see this one live, having been ejected before the 1st pitch at home plate by Ken Kaiser while rehashing Joyce's final call from the previous night... At this point the O's were 29-22 vs the West, the best record by any of the league's 14 teams against the A.L.'s dominant division (that record diminished to 40-41 by the end of the season).

VS CHICAGO ('89: 6-6, Lifetime: 288-251, .534)...The Orioles have lost only 5 season series to the White Sox in the last 22 years (15-5-2)...During the decade of the '80s, the Birds maintained a 63-53 edge against the Pale Hose.

Frank Robinson drew his 2nd and last ejection of the season on Sep 13 in the last game of the year between these 2 clubs...Richie Garcia gave him the heave ho after a spirited dispute concerning the condition of the playing field in Baltimore following a 49-minute rain delay with the O's trailing 2-0 in the 4th. Frank provided the denouement with an artfully executed bow to the umpires just before he left the field...The Sox went on to win in 9 innings, 3-0 behind Greg Hibbard and Bobby Thigpen.

The home town advantage didn't apply in this season series...Each club went 4-2 at the other's ballpark...The O's outscored the Sox 22-4 in the 3-game series at Chicago May 22-23-24...Over the last 3 years, the O's are 12-6 in Comiskey Park.

WHITE SOX BATTING The Sox hit a swarthy .298 in 12 games vs the Orioles, yet came away with only an even split in the season series. Among the 21 different White Sox who came to bat against the Orioles in '89, 12 hit over .300...In the 3-game series at Baltimore May 12, 13, 14, the White Sox batted .339 (115-39) as a team...On the year in Memorial Stadium, the Sox hit .325 (228-74).

The season leaders, among regulars, were: Lance Johnson-.370 (27-10), Steve Lyons-.353 (34-12) and Dave Gallagher-.345 (29-10)...Ron Kittle saw little service against the Birds in '89, but made the most of his opportunities...He was 7-for-12 (.583).

On the surface it appears that Ivan Calderon experienced a forgettable year against Baltimore in '89--considering that he batted only .192 (51-10)...But he was the only Chicago player to hit 2 homers off O's pitching, and his 8 rbi led the club. Darryl Boston was the only player with a grand slam against the Orioles all year...He hit it off Bob Milacki on Sep 1 in Chicago.

The 3-time all-American (Oklahoma St) and '88 Golden Spikes Award winner Robin Ventura made his big league debut in Baltimore on Sep 12 and registered his 1st hit. Ironically, it came off the '89 Golden Spikes Award winner, Ben McDonald...In the same game, Scott Fletcher hit his 1st home run in 2 years (1,075 at bats since Sep '87)...Mickey Weston had the dubious honor...It was Mickey's 1st big league gopher ball.

WHITE SOX PITCHING: The good news? The O's finally beat Eric King (on May 24 at Chicago)...The bad news? He defeated them 3 times in 4 starts and is now 6-1 lifetime with 2 saves and a 1.45 era (ip-68.1, er-11) in 13 appearances...He's held Orioles batters to a collective .145 (235-34) average.

Rookie Hibbard was also impressive...He was 1-1 with a 1.04 era in 2 starts (ip-17.1, er-2)...Relief ace Thigpen has gone 0-1 with 7 saves in 11 appearances vs the O's over the past 2 years...He had 3 saves in '89 despite an 8.44 era (ip-5.1, er-5).

ORIOLES BATTING: Phil Bradley batted .372 (43-16) against the Sox...His .292 lifetime (216-63) average vs. Chicago is tops on the club. The O's hit 11 homers off Chicago pitching and Mickey Tettleton had 4 of them...Brady Anderson hit only 4 homers all year, but 2 were at the expense of the White Sox...Mike Devereaux, in his 1st A.L. season, batted .321 (28-9) in the season series.

Though he hit only .229 in the 12 games, Cal Jr drove in a club high 9 runs...Lifetime, his 23 homers against Chicago are a career high vs one club. He has driven in 72 runs vs. both the White Sox and Brewers, and that also represents a personal high.

ORIOLES PITCHING: No Oriole won more than one game against the White Sox last year. Only one current Oriole has beaten them more than once lifetime. That's Mark Williamson who is 2-1 with 3 saves. One of those victories was historic...It was the game that ended the O's 21-game losing streak at the start of the '88 season...Two of the 6 losses in '89 were charged to Bob Milacki (1-2).

Kevin Hickey's save against his former teammates in Chicago on May 12 was his 1st in the majors in six seasons, since he pitched for them in their Western Division championship year ('83)...Jeff Ballard, who made his big league debut in Chicago on May 9, '87 in a no decision start, was 1-1 last year...They were his first 2 career decisions against the Sox.

On May 24, Jay Tibbs, in his 1st start after being called up from Rochester, put an end to his 10-game A.L. losing streak left over from the previous year and started a 5-game winning skein (still intact)...That was the day he and Williamson combined to blank the Sox, 8-0, while beating major nemesis, King, for the 1st and only time.

VS CLEVELAND ('89: 7-6, Lifetime: 301-304, .498)...Though the Orioles were out-scored by the Indians, 45 to 35, out-hit .247 to .215, and out-pitched 2.74 to 3.18, the Birds won the season series 7 games to 6...During the decade of the 80s, however, the Indians held the upper hand, 64-59.

The Indians are one of 3 clubs with a lifetime winning record vs. Baltimore (along with the Red Sox and Yankees)...The Tribe re-took the lead in the lifetime rivalry in '88 when they went 9-4 vs. the Birds.

When you consider that in Baltimore's 1st 3 years back in the league ('54, '55, '56) the club went 11-55 vs the Indians (3-19, 3-19, 5-17), it's amazing the O's are even close. It took 25 years for the Orioles to go over .500 against Cleveland (June 18, '79) and they maintained the advantage until Apr 10, '88...At that point, the Indians were in the midst of winning the 1st first 9 games of the season vs. Balmer.

INDIANS BATTING: Cory Snyder continued his 4-year harassment of the O's while hitting .325 (40-13) with 2 homers...Actually that pace reduced his career figure to .340 (162-55) constructed over 42 games in which he has hit 14 homers...In Baltimore, where he is batting .382 lifetime (76-29), he has bashed 8 home runs in 20 games.

Brook Jacoby and Joe Carter each hit 3 homers... Carter, in his last A.L. season (for awhile at least), batted .320 (50-16) and led the Indians with 9 rbi against the O's, one of them on a game-ending bunt (see May 28 below under "Game Highlights")...His lifetime average is considerably more modest: .236 (259-61) with 12 hr & 34 rbi in 65 games.

Another who left the Tribe with less than sparkling anti-Baltimore stats is Atlanta's Oddibe McDowell who batted .199 (151-30) against the O's in 5 seasons...Seattle-bound Pete O'Brien hit only .218 (303-66) in 83 games for Cleveland vs the Birds...Felix Fermin dazzled the Orioles with the leather throughout the season series, but batted only .121 (33-4).

INDIANS PITCHING: In 5 of the 6 games the Indians won, their pitchers shutout the O's 3 times and held them to one run on 2 other occasions...No Cleveland pitcher won more than once, though relief ace Doug Jones was 1-0 with 2 saves...Over the last 2 seasons, he's held the O's to 1 run in 9.1 innings and a .156 average (32-5) while going 1-0 with 5 saves in 6 outings.

John Farrell's 3-2 two-year record against the O's belies his effectiveness...He's held them to a .216 (139-30) average in that time.

Greg Swindell before '89 had allowed the Orioles only 2 earned runs in 32.2 innings (era 0.55)...Last year he wasn't himself (ip-22.1, er-12, era-4.84)...See Aug 30 below under "Game Highlights"... Lifetime he's now 4-2 with a 2.29 (ip-55, er-14)...He had never allowed an earned run at Memorial Stadium (over 28.2 innings) until the 6th inning of a start last May 18. Now his era in Baltimore is 1.49 (er-36.1, er-6).

Tom Candiotti was 1-0 in 2 starts last year (ip-14.2, er-1) and the Orioles hit only .196 (51-10)...Lifetime, he's 6-4 with a 2.83 (ip-89, er-28).

ORIOLES BATTING: The Orioles' 35 runs against the Tribe were the least they scored against anybody...However, although many of their lifetime averages took a beating in '89, there are several current Orioles with impressive figures vs the Indians...For example, Joe Orsulak is batting .364 lifetime (66-24), Mickey Tettleton .313 (83-26), Tim Hulett .304 (102-31), and Phil Bradley .302 (215-65). Rookie Craig Worthington batted only .162 (37-6) last year in 11 games.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Jeff Ballard took the mound 3 times against Cleveland and came away on each occasion with a victory..His era was 2.08 (ip-21.1, er-5) and the Indians average against him was .213 (80-17)...Although he was only 1-1, Bob Milacki was even more effective...His era vs. Cleveland was 1.46 (ip-24.2, er-4) and the Indians average against him was .195 (87-17).

The Mark Williamson-Greg Olson team didn't allow a run in a combined total of 9 appearances (13.2 innings) while going 2-0 with 3 saves and holding the Tribe to a .128 average (47-6)...Williamson was 2-0 in 4 outings (ip-5.2, avg against-.200, 20-4), and Olson had no decisions but 3 saves in 5 appearances...He limited the Ohioans to 2 hits in 27 trips (.074).

On May 27 at Cleveland, Mark Huismann, just up from Rochester, combined with Dave Schmidt on a 4-hitter and earned his 1st big league save since pitching for the Tribe in '87...Ben McDonald made a dramatic big league debut, in relief, against the Indians in Baltimore Sep 6. On his first pitch he induced Cory Snyder to bounce into an inning ending double play...He had relieved starter Curt Schilling, trailing 4-0, and Tribe ultimately won 9-0.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Thu, May 18 (Bal)--Bob Melvin' bases-loaded 10th inning single off Keith Atherton, give the O's instant victory..

Fri, May 19 (Bal)--Brook Jacoby's two 2-run homers off Jose Bautista were more than enough for the Tribe.

Sun, May 28 (Cle)--The Orioles' 5-game winning streak came to a shocking and abrupt end when Joe Carter dropped a 2-out bunt in the bottom of the 9th inning and beat it out as Felix Fermin scored the winning run...It was reminiscent of Paul Blair's perfect bunt in the bottom of the 12th off the Twins' Ron Perranoski that scored Mark Belanger with the decisive tally in the first ALCS game ever played ('69).

Tue, Aug 29 (Cle)--Playing in Cleveland for the 1st time since the Carter bunt, the O's again fell victim to "sudden death" when Brad Komminsk homered in the bottom of the 9th off Pete Harnisch.

Wed, Aug 30 (Cle)--The Birds jumped on long-time nemesis Greg Swindell, not long off the DL, for 7 1st inning runs enroute to a 7-4 victory.

Mon, Sep 4 (Bal)--This one had nearly everything before Tim Hulett, playing in his 1st game at Memorial Stadium since his recall from Rochester, homered in the 9th off Rod Nichols, who had just retired 15 straight hitters, to give the O's the win.

Earlier, Doc Edwards, using moves not seen since Earl Weaver's day, entertained the crowd after umpire Jim Joyce ejected him for the 1st time all year.

And, then there was "The Catch" that nearly postponed an historic achievement...Cal Ripken, bidding to become the 1st shortstop to hit 20 or more homers in 8 consecutive seasons, hit a long drive off Swindell, bound for the leftfield bullpen. But, outfielder Komminsk leaped in the air, caught the ball, then jacknifed over the fence. As he descended earthward on the other side of the barrier, however, the ball fell out of his glove--for a home run...Teammate Carter later called it "the greatest catch never made."

VS DETROIT ('89: 10-3, Lifetime: 315-298, .514)...The O's enjoyed their biggest success against the Tigers since 1980, but they had lost 30 of their last 40 games to the Tigers entering the season, and wound up going 61-69 vs Detroit during the decade of the '80s.

They held the Bengals to a .213 average (427-91), lowest average among all opponents. The O's batted .261 (436-114) in the 13 games and hit a season high 18 home runs.

TIGERS BATTING: Among those Tigers with 25 or more at bats against the Orioles, the leading hitters were Keith Moreland (.360, 25-9) before he joined the O's, and Rick Schu (.320, 25-8) after he was traded by the O's...Mike Heath led the Bengals with 3 homers and 9 rbi against Baltimore.

Matt Nokes, who had hit 8 homers in his first 23 games vs the O's (thru '88), went homerless and batted only .143 (28-4) in 9 games...Fred Lynn's final figures vs. the Birds: .287 (478-137) with 15 homers and 75 rbi in 129 games.

Detroit's longtime keystone combination, Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker, had a terrible time with O's pitching in '89...Trammell batted .108 (37-4) and Whitaker .133 (45-6).

TIGERS BATTING: Doyle Alexander had won 9 of his last 10 decisions from the O's at the start of last year, then went 0-3 in '89 with a 5.40 era (ip-16.2, er-10)...He is 13-8 lifetime since the O's traded him to the Yankees in a 10-player deal in June '76.

Jack Morris was 0-2 in '89 with a 5.74 era (ip-15.2, er-10) despite the fact he held the O's to a combined .214 average (56-12)...He is 11-12 lifetime vs. Baltimore and 6-10 over the past 8 seasons.

Frank Tanana (1-2 last year) is 18-16 lifetime vs the Orioles and the 2nd biggest winner among actives behind Bert Blyleven (19-14)...His '89 victory against the Birds was his lone '89 shutout, a 2-hit 10 strikeout masterpiece at Detroit on Aug 16.

Charlie Hudson is still looking for his first career victory against the Birds...He's 0-2 in the A.L. and 0-4 if you include his 2 losses in the '83 World Series for the Phillies.

ORIOLES BATTING: Cal Ripken, Mickey Tettleton and Craig Worthington each hit 3 home runs and batted over .300 against Detroit. Cal has hit 11 homers in Tiger Stadium, most in one ballpark on the road...He's hit 19 lifetime vs. Detroit.

The top Baltimore hitter in the season series among regulars was Joe Orsulak (.353, 35-12)...Tim Hulett, appearing in 2 games against the Bengals, went 6-for-8.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Bob Milacki has excelled during his brief A.L. career against the Tigers, particularly in Detroit...He's 4-1 overall with a 2.23 era (ip-44.1, h-21, er-11) including 3-1 last year.

In Detroit, he has been better than phenomenal...Over 3 career starts there, starting with his major league debut on Sep 18, '88, Milacki is 3-0 with a--get this--0.36 era...He achieved that figure by allowing only one run in 25.1 innings...He's given up only 6 hits in the Motor City and the only run scored off him there came on a solo homer last June 2 by Fred Lynn...As a club, the Tigers are batting .144 (146-21) against him overall, and only .077 (78-6) at Tiger Stadium.

Jeff Ballard was 2-0 last year in 2 starts with a 1.26 era (ip-14.1, er-2) and held Sparky's team to a .189 average (53-10).

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Thu-Sun, Jun 1-4 (Det)--The O's swept a 4-game series at Detroit to run their winning streak to 7...They'd now won 12 of their last 13.

Fri, June 30 (Bal)--Tigers, trailing 5-1, bounced back to beat their nemesis, Bob Milacki, 16-5...Mike Smith in his major league debut was touched for 8 runs in the 8th inning...Chet Lemon drove in a career high 5 runs and Mike Heath hit 2 homers.

Sun, Jul 3 (Bal)--Badly beaten up in his debut 2 days earlier, "Texas Mike" Smith hurled 4 scoreless innings and gained his 1st big league victory.

Mon, Aug 14 (Det)--One of the truly big wins of the year...Craig Worthington's 3-run homer off Jack Morris in the 10th did the trick. Morris had pitched a 2-hitter thru 9...What made this one so special was that Frank Robinson went with a "bullpen committee" to give his regular rotation a day of badly needed rest. Brian Holton, Mark Thurmond and Dave Schmidt, each went 3 innings, then Gregg Olson came on to preserve the 3-run lead...Stan Jefferson contributed a game-tying homer in the 4th.

Tue, Aug 15 (Det)--Milacki pitched one of his patented gems in Detroit, a 2-hitter...This was the day Frank switched basically to a 4-man rotation and 3 days rest between starts.

Wed, Aug 16 (Det)--Frank Tanana pitched a 2-hitter to win his 18th lifetime victory against the O's who were held to 11 hits in this 3-game series--yet, won 2 of the 3 games.

Tue, Sep 19 (Bal)--The bottom third of the order (Craig Worthington, Tim Hulett and Jamie Quirk) were mainly responsible for the 6-2 win...They were collectively 3-for-40 going into the game, but went 4-for-7 with 5 rbi on this night...Worthy and Hulett homered, and Quirk drove home the game-winner.

For the 13th time at home rain forced an interruption in play (not including 4 other games completely rained out).

Wed, Sep 20 (Bal)--The Orioles batted 7 times with the bases loaded while Hulett continued his hot hitting...He went 4-for-4 and Mickey Tettleton drove in 4 runs...It was the 1st time in exactly a month that the O's had won a game on the same day the Blue Jays lost.

VS KANSAS CITY ('89: 6-6, Lifetime: 131-113, .537)...The Orioles effort against the Royals last year represented a 50% improvement over the year before when they were shutout completely (0-12)...Over the last 2 years, therefore, the O's have gone only 6-18 vs. the Royals.

During the Orioles' 36 years in the A.L. ('54 thru '89), there have been only 3 occasions on which one team has swept another in a season series (excluding strike-torn '81), and the Orioles have been involved in all 3:

1970-Baltimore-12, Kansas City-0

1978-Baltimore-11, Oakland-0

1988-Kansas City-12, Baltimore-0

Before the Birds put an end to it last Apr 12 in a tense 15-inning struggle at Royals Stadium (see "Game Highlights" below), the O's had dropped 15 straight to the Royals...It was a formidable string of losses, but far shy of the major league record set in '69 and '70 when the brand new Royals fell to the Orioles 23 consecutive times.

A week later, on Apr 19, the O's ended a string of 8 straight losses in Baltimore to the Royals.

The Orioles generally haven't fared well at Royals Stadium since it opened in '73...They were 2-4 there last year, and the 2 victories required 15 and 13 innings respectively to accomplish. Lifetime in the Truman Sports Complex they are 39-58 (.402), and over the last 2 years have gone 2-10...There was one 3 year stretch ('85-'87), during which the O's maintained a 12-6 advantage... However, the fact remains that the only currently used stadium where they have been less successful is the HHH MetroDome in Minneapolis (.396, 19-29).

ROYALS BATTING: Pat Tabler, Kevin Seitzer, Bill Buckner, and George Brett are all among the currently active top 14 lifetime hitters vs Baltimore (minimum 100 at bats).

Tabler at .343 (289-99) ranks 3rd, followed by Seitzer, who after 3 years and 34 games, has a .329 average (140-46). Buckner, 6-for-10 last year, has batted .325 (206-67) lifetime against the Birds...At Memorial Stadium, his career average is .393 (107-42) including 2-for-4 last year, all as a pinch hitter.

Brett, hitting .315 (644-203) with 25 homers and 101 rbi in 171 games, was one of 3 actives at the end of last season with 100+ rbi against the O's behind Jim Rice (136) and Dwight Evans (128).

Jose Tartabull, who is approaching the .300 lifetime circle against the O's (.292, 154-45) hit .333 last year (36-12), while the veteran Frank White batted .385 (78-30) off the Birds the past 2 years.

The Orioles were, however, able to hold Bo Jackson fairly well in check last year...He hit only .154 (39-6) with 2 homers and is now at .241 lifetime (116-28) with 6 long balls in 30 games.

ROYALS PITCHING: In '89, the Royals' pitching was often awesome...Their 2.90 era vs. the O's was second only to the Indians' 2.74, and O's batters hit only .217 (424-92) as a unit against KC.

There was no question in any Orioles mind regarding the '89 Cy Young pick...The amazing thing was not Bret Saberhagen's eye popping figures against them, but how they managed to beat him once in 3 decisions (see Apr 20 under "Game Highlights" below).

Saberhagen's era was 0.38 (ip-24, er-1) and the O's average against him was a lusty .139 (79-11)...He was the only pitcher in the league to throw 2 complete games against them, and he allowed only one non-intentional walk...Of the 81 Orioles he faced, only 13 reached base, and nobody homered against him.

Tom Gordon, Gregg Olson's principal competition for the A.L. "Rookie of the Year" (BBWAA) award, also put up some impressive numbers...He relieved in 3 games, pitched 11.1 innings, gave up 1 run (era 0.79), fanned 13 and held the O's to a .158 average (38-6).

Another with impressive stats was former Blue Jay Luis Aquino who pitched a shuout, allowed only 1 run in 11.2 innings overall and limited the O's to a .128 average (39-5)...Mark Gubicza couldn't get a decision...He started 4 times, worked 29.1 innings against the Birds (more than any other A.L. pitcher) and was 0-0...The first 3 games he started went to 15, 13 and 13 innings...Lifetime, he's 4-3. Charlie Leibrandt leaves the league with a 5-4 record. Floyd Bannister (1-0) is now 9-7 lifetime

ORIOLES BATTING: Among the Orioles' regulars Joe Orsulak (.333, 33-11), Mike Devereaux (.333, 21-7) and Randy Milligan (.304, 23-7) with 2 homers, all gave good accounts of themselves in the season series.

Cal Ripken, Larry Sheets, Mickey Tettleton and Jim Traber batted below .200 against KC pitching...Current O's with the highest lifetime averages are: Tim Hulett (.288, 104-30) and Phil Bradley-.282 (248-70).

ORIOLES PITCHING: Jeff Ballard, 1-0 with a 2.01 (ip-22.1, er-5) and Bob Milacki, 1-0 with a 2.70 (ip-23.1, er-7) pitched effectively vs. the Royals as did relievers Olson (2-1 with a save) and Mark Williamson (1-1 with 2 saves)...Those 2 firemen are the only current Orioles with as many as 2 career wins over KC, and the only ones with a lifetime victory in Royals Stadium (each has one).

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Wed, Apr 12 (KC)--One of the big early victories for the good guys. The O's had dropped the 1st 2 games of the series, extending their losing streak to KC to 15 straight...On this night they entered the 9th with a 4-1 lead, but allowed KC to tie...Fortunately, Mark Williamson got the O's out of the inning and, in fact, retired all 14 batters he faced...The Birds then hung in there until winning in the 15th on a Mike Devereaux sac fly off Steve Farr...Gregg Olson, who took over for Williamson in the 14th, earned the win.

Tom Gordon fanned 10 in 6.2 innings of relief for KC, and George Brett stole 3 bases for the 1st time ever, but to no avail.

Thu, Apr 20 (Bal)--Bret Saberhagen went the route against the Birds for the 2nd time in this young season, but was beaten 2-0 (only 1 run earned) by Jeff Ballard who combined with Williamson to match 7-hitters with the KC ace...Cal's 1st inning rbi single was the game's decisive blow...At 2:03, it was the shortest game of the year for the O's.

Fri, Jul 28 (KC)--For the 2nd time this year, the O's blew a 9th inning lead in KC and lived to tell about it...Losers of their last 8 straight, the O's needed this one badly...They led 3-1 in the 9th, but Olson who had relieved Ballard with 1 out and none on had an off night and the Royals tied it.

In the 13th the O's scored the winning run on: an error by Frank White, a wild pitch, and an error by Bob Boone who threw a perfect strike to 2nd base trying to nail Jim Traber running on a would be wild pitch, but nobody was covering.

Fri, Sep 15 (Bal)--Bob Milacki gave up 11 hits, but held KC to 2 runs to win 5-2 with help from Olson.

Sat, Sep 16 (Bal)--The O's hit 3 homers off Mark Gubicza in 6 innings...Bob Melvin's 2-run single in the 8th was decisive..

VS MILWAUKEE ('89: 7-6, Lifetime: 164-113, .592--vs. Milwaukee only)

After losing 5 of their 1st 7 games vs the Brewers in '89, the had gone 9-29 (.237) in 38 games against them, dating back to Sep 21, '86... The Birds bounced back, however, to win 5 of the last 6 between the 2 clubs to win the season series.

Despite the downturn in the O's fortunes against the Brewers in recent years, the Birds were 64-59 during the '80s, and their overall record (see above under "lifetime"), which does not include the Seattle Pilots of '69 (.592), is the O's best against an eastern team, and 3rd overall (vs. Texas-.643, vs. Seattle M's-.610).

At Milwaukee, the O's are 77-63 (.550), but are only 6-17 there starting Sep 24, '86.

BREWERS BATTING: The Brewers hit only 6 homers in the 13 games; and nobody hit more than one (O's hit only 8)...Mike Felder was the 2nd leading hitter in the league vs. Baltimore at .429 (28-12) among those with 25 or more at bats (George Bell led at .479).

BREWERS PITCHING: Don August was 2-0 and held the O's to a .176 average (51-9)...Chris Bosio went 1-1 in 2 starts with seemingly contradictory stats...His era was 1.80 (ip-15, er-3), but the O's hit .293 against him (58-17).

Ted Higuera was 0-2 and is now 5-6 lifetime...Dan Plesac continued his reign of terror against the Birds though he missed much of the season with injury...In 3 appearances, he was 0-0 with 2 saves and didn't give up a hit (let alone a run)...The O's haven't scored on him since '87...Over these past 3 years, he's saved 8 in 12 appearances while holding Baltimore batters to a .111 (54-6) average.

ORIOLES BATTING: Phil Bradley hit .462 (39-18) in the season series to raise his lifetime record vs Milwaukee to .348 (181-63), his highest against a single opponent...Mike Devereaux hit .378 (37-14) off Brewers pitching, and that was about it for excellence in hitting.

Eight of the 18 Orioles who batted against the Brewers in '89 hit under .200...Cal Ripken (2 hr, .167, 48-8) and Mickey Tettleton (3 hr, .143, 35-5) combined to hit 5 of the O's 8 homers, but as you can see, their hits were few and far between.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Bob Milacki at 2-1 was the only multi-winner in the series, but Gregg Olson, 0-0, saved 3 wins in 5 appearances. Milacki and Jeff Ballard are the only current staff members with as many as 2 lifetime wins at the Brewers' expense.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Fri, Jun 9 (Bal)--Cal Sr was thrown out and Frank Robby took a turn on the 3rd base coaching line but the O's won handily, 7-1, thanks in large measure to Mickey Tettleton's 2 home runs off Bryan Clutterbuck...One of them was a 3-run shot.

Sun, Jun 11 (Bal)--For the 2nd time in 2 weeks, the O's lost a game in the 9th on a bunt single, this one by the Brewers' B.J. Surhoff...Cleveland's Joe Carter beat the Birds with a bunt in Cleveland on May 28...The Orioles lost 3 of these 4 games to the Brewers who stole 9 bases in the series.

Sat, July 8 (Mil)--Brian Holton started and pitched a career-high 6.1 innings as he turned back the Brewers, 5-2, with efficient support from both Mark Williamson and Gregg Olson...The game was scoreless until the 6th when Cal's sac fly and Bob Melvin's 2-run single produced what turned out to be a commanding lead.

Sun, July 9 (Mil)--It was the last game before the All-Star break, and it was obvious that everyone needed a rest. Frank got into a long hassle with Jim McKean, Larry Young and John Shulock about a collision play involving Bradley and Jim Gantner Ultimately, Frank protested and Tom Treblehorn counter-protested...The Brewers won the game, 7-2.

Mon, Aug 21 (Bal)--The Brewers had won 9 of their last 10 games and came to Baltimore trailing the 1st place O's by one-half game...Jeff Ballard pitched a 5-0 shutout in the opener, neither walking or striking out a batter in the process (that had never happened before in an Orioles' cg shutout)...Cal hit his 200th homer and Stan Jefferson hit his 4th while playing in only his 10th game for the O's.

Tue, Aug 22 (Bal)--After a 2-hour rain delay at the start, Dave Johnson went the route for the 3rd time in 15 days, and retired 14 of the last 15 batters...O's jumped Chris Bosio for 4 runs in the 1st and went on to win 4-2.

Wed, Aug 23 (Bal)--The O's completed a 3-game sweep of the injury riddled Brewers who had 9 on the DL and 3 more came down with maladies while they were in Baltimore....Milwaukee left town 3 1/2 games back.

Mon, Sep 25 (Mil)--This was the start of the important final week for the O's who trailed the Blue Jays by one game. Pete Harnisch pitched the best game of his career in a high pressure atmosphere...The O's won 5-3 and Gregg Olson finished up with his 20th consecutive scoreless appearance.

Tue, Sep 26 (Mil)--Young Jaime Navarro went the route to beat the O's 7-3, but the Blue Jays lost, too (even though they led by 2 in the 9th at Detroit).

Wed, Sep 27 (Mil)--Bob Milacki, Kevin Hickey and Mark Williamson combined to blank the Brewers and Mickey Tettleton iced it with a 3-run homer off Jerry Reuss after Mickey had failed to execute a sacrifice bunt...The O's then went on to Toronto for the final showdown, only one game out.

VS MINNESOTA ('89: 4-8, Lifetime: 207-179, .536)...The Orioles maintained a 63-51 edge over the Twins during the decade of the '80s, but in recent years things have been going mostly the Twins' way...The O's have lost the last 3 season series to Minnesota while going 12-24 in games, and in the HHH MetroDome, they are 2-14 (.125) since capturing their first 2 games there in '87..They were 1-5 in the Dome last year.

TWINS BATTING: Kent Hrbek batted .343 (35-12) against Baltimore pitching in '89 with 4 homers and 14 rbi...Over the last 2 years, the Twins' 1st baseman has hit 9 homers and driven in 22 runs in 22 games.

Gary Gaetti batted .390 (41-16) last year but hit only one home run and had only 4 rbi...Randy Bush in the last 2 seasons has batted .404 against the O's (57-23)...Kirby Puckett has a .320 (266-85) lifetime average vs. the Birds...His career mark against everybody is .323 (3844-1243).

Tim Laudner's .182 career average (143-26) is the lowest against the Orioles among all actives with 100 or more at bats against them.

TWINS PITCHING: Three pitchers did most of the damage to the O's last season: Allan Anderson, Roy Smith and Jeff Reardon... Combined they were 7-0 with 2 saves against Baltimore in '89.

Anderson has gone 6-0 vs the O's the past 2 years (also his lifetime record) 3-0 each season record against them)...His era in that time is 1.87 (ip-43.1, er-9)...Smith was 3-0 as well (his first 3 lifetime decisions vs the O's) in 3 starts.

Reardon was 1-0 with the only 2 saves registered by the Twins against the Orioles over 4 appearances...In his 3 A.L. seasons Reardon has gone 2-1 with 7 saves in 13 appearances, and over the last 2 years has held Orioles batters to a .111 (36-4) average.

ORIOLES BATTING: Mike Devereaux led Baltimore hitters in average (.343, 35-12), homers (2) and rbi (9) against Minnesota...Craig Worthington batted .314 (35-11) in the season series.

Cal Ripken, who has been devastating against the Twins throughout most of his career, batted only .267 (45-12) last year with one homer and 5 rbi...It was only the 2nd time in 8 A.L. seasons that he's hit below .300 vs Minnesota...Cal still has a .337 career average (368-124), his highest vs one opponent.

Cal has never missed a game against the Twins (96 games) since he 1st joined the club in '81...He has had 3 five-hit games during his career, 2 of them vs the Twins at the Dome (Sep 3, '83 & May 5, '85)...It was in the 1st of those 2 games that he tied or broke 4 club records in a 13-0 Orioles rout, among them most total bases, game (13, tied)...He has driven in 38 runs in 48 games at "The Hump," and is batting .368 (190-70) there with 10 home runs (his career high in one park on the road is 11 at Detroitk)..

Bob Melvin hit .450 (20-9) vs the Twins in '89 and is batting .375 (32-12) against them lifetime...Mickey Tettleton batted .292 (24-7) in the season series with a home run and 3 rbi, but his career average is only .180 (100-18)...Phil Bradley, one of 6 Orioles to bat below .200 against Minny, hit only .150 (50-9)... His career average vs the Twins dipped from .325 a year ago to .292 (219-64)...However, his 33 career rbi against them still represents a career high.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Nobody won more than one game vs the Twins last year and nobody on the current staff has beaten them more than once lifetime...As a matter of fact, Jeff Ballard is the only current Oriole with a lifetime victory in the Dome (Apr 9)...For details on that game, Bob Milacki's masterpiece in Baltimore on Apr 23, and Dave Johnson's triumphant homecoming on Aug 8, see "Game Highlights" below.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Sun, Apr 9 (Min)--After losing the first 2 games at Minny, the O's jumped on "Cy" Viola for an 8-1 victory ...Randy Milligan's 3-run 1st inning homer was the big blow...Jeff Ballard, featuring a new sinker, became the only current Oriole ever to win a game in Minny (and still is).

Sat, Apr 22 (Bal)--The O's beat Minnesota, 4-1, and moved into 1st place all by themselves for the 1st time since May 11, '85...Mark Thurmond, making a spot start, held them to 1 run in 6 innings; Steve Finley recorded his 1st big league rbi, a game-winner in the 7th, and Gregg Olson pitched 3 scoreless innings to win it.

Sun, Apr 23 (Bal)--Bob Milacki went the route, threw a 3-hit shutout (winning 3-0), used only 100 pitches and became only the 3rd Oriole ever to face the minimum 27 batters (Jim Palmer '67 and Mike Flanagan '82)...The O's executed 4 double plays and Mickey Tettleton hit a solo homer off loser Shane Rawley.

Wed, Jul 26 (Min)--O's lost their 7th straight, blowing a 4-0 lead over Shane Rawley...Kent Hrbek homered twice and Doug Baker tripled home a run in the 8th before knocking in the game-winner with a "sudden death" single in the 9th.

Thu, Jul 27 (Min)--The Birds' losing streak reached its apex at 8, one shy of the A.L. record for most consecutive losses by a 1st place team...A national tv audience (ABC) saw the O's at their worst as they lost 10-6...The streak was snapped the following night in Kansas City.

Tue, Aug 8 (Bal)--Dave Johnson, pitching professionally in his home town for the 1st time, hurled the O's 1st complete game victory since June 27 as hundreds of family members and friends cheered the Overlea High School grad (it was the 1st of 3 complete game victories he would pitch over the next 2 weeks)...Mike Devereaux was credited with a double and 2-run triple on drives that Kirby Puckett tried to catch but couldn't reach...The final score was 6-1.

VS NEW YORK ('89: 8-5, Lifetime: 302-306, .497)...The O's had lost 6 consecutive season series to the Yankees starting '83 until last season...That explains the 56-74 (.431) record against the Bombers during the '80s.

However, the O's lifetime percentage vs New York (.497) remains the best in the American League....In 2nd place are the Milwaukee Brewers (not including Seattle '69) at 136-144, .486, followed by the Detroit Tigers (.478, 822-898) and the Oakland (only) Athletics who are 122-140 (.466) since moving to the West Coast in '68.

From Sep '70 to Sep '87, the O's bore the distinction of being the only team in the A.L. with a lifetime winning record against the Yankees. That dominance reached its climax on June 21, '83 when Baltimore's record against them was 26 games over .500 at 272-246...Since then, the O's have gone 30-60.

The Orioles generally dominated the rivalry over a 19-year period from '64 thru '82, particularly in the 4 seasons from '65 thru '68 when they went 54-18 (.750) vs. New York, including 30-8 in the Bronx.

In the early days, the Yankees built up a huge surplus in wins. For example, the O's were 8-36 (.182) after their 1st 2 years in the league ('54-'55) and were only slightly improved at 34-76 (.309) thru the 1st 5 seasons ('54 thru '58).

AT YANKEE STADIUM: The Birds, 5-2 in New York last year after going 8-24 there from '84 thru '88 (including 2-11 in '87-'88), are 135-152 (.470) lifetime at Yankee Stadium (not including '74-'75 when they were 9-9 at Shea Stadium) That is easily the best record for any visiting club...The runners-up are the Toronto Blue Jays (38-45, .458), and the Oakland (only) A's at 54-71 (.432).

The Birds were 91-100 in old Yankee Stadium and have since gone 44-52 in the renovated facility (starting '76).

LONGEST/LATEST GAME IN BALMER: On June 4, '88 in Baltimore the O's beat the Yankees, 7-6, in 14 innings...The game, which began at 7:36 pm and didn't end until 1:22 am, consumed 5:46, making it both the longest and latest game in Memorial Stadium history.

YANKEES BATTING: The Yankees scored only 39 runs (average 3/game) in the season series, fewest by any Orioles opponent...They allowed the Orioles 66 runs, 23 of them unearned (largely the result of 17 Yankees errors), and 12 of those in one game (see June 5 under "Game Highlights" below)...By contrast, the O's allowed only one unearned run.

Don Mattingly, for the first time since '83 hit below .300 against the O's (.280, 50-14) and Jeff Ballard struck him out 3 times in one game on Aug 25 (see below under "Game Highlights"), but he did lead the Yankees in rbi with 9...Don Slaught, hit .385 (26-10), and is now batting .338 lifetime (198-67) vs Baltimore...Roberto Kelly had a .345 (29-10) average, and Steve Sax, in his 1st A.L. season, batted .327 (55-18), but didn't register any of his 43 steals against the Birds...He was 0-for-1 in steal attempts.

Jesse Barfield hit .178 (45-8) and had no rbi in 12 games...Over the last 2 seasons, Jesse has been held to .191 (89-17) against the O's.

YANKEES PITCHING: Chuck Cary, 2-0 in 4 appearances including 3 starts, was tough...He had a 1.09 era (ip-24.2, er-3), fanned 20, and held the O's to a .136 average (88-12)...He struck out a career-high 10 batters while shutting the O's out on Sep 24 in Balmer...He did yield 3 homers, however, one of them the only slam by an Oriole in '89... That was to Steve Finley for whom it was his 1st major league hit of any kind off a lefthander (June 5).

Dave Righetti was 0-0 with 3 saves in 6 games and did not allow a walk or a run in 7 innings...Over the last 4 years, he has won (1) or saved (16) 17 of the Yankees' 33 wins against the Orioles. During the last 5 seasons he's 2-0 with 19 saves in 29 appearances.

Eric Plunk, who was 0-0-0 for Oakland in 3 relief assignments, went 0-2 in 2 starts for the Yankees and yielded 8 earned runs in 9 innings against the Orioles.

ORIOLES BATTING: Among the Orioles batting heroes against New York were: Craig Worthington (.355, 31-11), Joe Orsulak (.350, 40-14), Bob Melvin (.346, 26-9) and Randy Milligan (.333, 36-12).

Ironically, a player who appeared in only 8 games and batted only .207 (29-6) tied for the club rbi lead (8) with Orsulak. That was Tim Hulett...Phil Bradley struggled with the bat against the Bombers...He batted .152 (46-7) with 11 strikeouts.

The top lifetime hitters vs NY among current O's are Orsulak-.352 (71-25) and Rene Gonzales-.314 (70-22).

ORIOLES PITCHING: The Orioles' era was an impressive 2.95 (ip-116, er-38), their lowest against one team. Jeff Ballard, Bob Milacki and Dave Schmidt each won 2 games against New York in '89...Ballard and Schmidt each lost one as well...Gregg Olson relieved 5 times, and saved 3 wins while not allowing a single run.

Milacki has gone 3-0 lifetime against the Yankees in 4 starts with a 2.16 era (ip-33.1, er-8) while holding the Bombers to a .205 average (122-25).

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Mon, Jun 5 (NY)--This 16-3 win by the O's was a classic... The Yankees lost by 13 runs though they out-hit the O's 13 to 9... The Bombers put a total of 21 runners on and left 16...They made 6 errors (2 for the 1st time ever by Don Mattingly)...The 2 New York teams lost that night by a combined 31-6 (Mets were beaten by the Cubs, 15-3).

The Birds scored 3 in the 1st when 2 out-of-position players, Jesse Barfield in center and Tom Brookens in right, collided chasing down a bases-loaded fly ball by Jim Traber.

Steve Finley hit his 1st grand slam, in the 3rd off Lefty Chuck Cary... That was his 1st hit ever off a lefthander...He'd been 0-for-15 against southpaws to that point...The O's scored 8 runs in that inning alone.

Only 4 of the Orioles' 16 runs in that game were earned...Starter Andy Hawkins' line: ip-2.1, h-5, r-10, er-0...With the Orioles ahead 11-0 in the 3rd, Yankees fans were chanting under threatening skies, "We Want Rain." Mickey Tettleton hit his 14th homer to take the league lead...The O's were 8-0, 13-1, 16-3, and overall they were 31-22, in 1st place with a 5-game lead.

Wed, Jun 14 (Bal)--Chalk this one up to the fog...With the O's up 1-0 in the top of the 9th, Ken Phelps hit a routine fly to left.. Trouble was that the fog was so thick, Phil Bradley couldn't see it...The ball dropped and both the tying and ultimate winning runs scored.

Thu, Jun 15 (Bal)--Rene Gonzales, a late-inning sub at 3rd, singled off Lance McCullers with 1 out in the 10th to give the O's a "sudden death" victory...In the 1st inning, the Birds pulled off their 1st triple play in a decade...Steve Balboni lined to Cal who threw to Brother Bill at 2nd for out #2 (Steve Sax), then Bill relayed to Randy Milligan to triple up Don Mattingly.

Thu, Aug 24 (NY)--The 2 clubs split a doubleheader...In the opener won by the Yankees, 5-1, Tim Hulett hit his 1st big league homer since May '87 off O's nemesis Chuck Cary.

In the nightcap, Frank Robby went to his "Bullpen Committee" plan for the 2nd time in 10 days (Aug 14 at Detroit) and got away with it again...Dave Schmidt, Mark Thurmond and Brian Holton did the job on the mound with Schmidt getting the win (he was the winner at Detroit also). Larry Sheets' 2-run homer in the 2nd off Eric Plunk got the O's started...The final score was 9-2.

Fri, Aug 25 (NY)--Jeff Ballard (14-6) pitched brilliantly in the clutch and fanned Don Mattingly 3 times...He also set a career high with 5 strikeouts overall, and came within one out of his 2nd straight shutout...Gregg Olson came on to record his 20th save...Joe Orsulak put the O's on top for good with a 5th inning rbi single.

Sat, Aug 26 (NY)--Despite fielding and base-running lapses, the O's prevailed, 6-4, on NBC-TV mostly because of Orsulak. Batting in the cleanup spot, he hit 2 homers (both off Walt Terrell) for the 1st time in his career; scored 4 runs and drove in the game winner for the 3rd time in the O's last 5 wins...Dave Johnson struggled but won.

Sun, Aug 27 (NY)--The O's won their 4th straight in NYC, 8-5. Bob Milacki was the winner and Bob Melvin enjoyed what might have been his best day in the majors...He had 3 hits including a triple and hit his 1st homer since the one he hit off Orel Hershiser in August '88.

Sat, Sep 23 (Bal)--Milacki beat the Yankees again, and Hulett drove in 3 runs, 2 on a bases-loaded single...He was now 5-for-5 with bases loaded since joining the O's. Tim and the other 2 Orioles who hit in the bottom third of the order went 6-for-10 in the game.

Sun, Sep 24 (Bal)--Chuck Cary fanned 10 thru 7 innings then a trio of relievers preserved the 2-0 shutout, the 15th and last suffered by the O's in '89.

VS OAKLAND ('89: 5-7, Lifetime vs Oak only: 146-120, .549)...Though they've lost the last 2 season series to the A's (as well as 3 of the last 4), the O's held a 63-57 edge over Oakland during the recent decade.

At Oakland, despite their 3-9 record there the past 2 years, the O's still hold a 74-63 advantage in 22 seasons at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

A'S FIRST GAME IN OAKLAND: The Orioles were the visiting club for the A's 1st game in Oakland on Apr 17, '68...Dave McNally pitched a 2-hitter to beat Lew Krausse, 4-1...Boog Powell hit the 1st home run in the Coliseum while driving in the game-winning run in the 2nd inning...Mark Belanger, Brooks Robinson, and the A's Rick Monday also homered in that game before a crowd of 47,233.

ATHLETICS BATTING: Jose Canseco played in only 4 games against the O's last year, but made the most of his opportunities...He was 6-for-13 (.462) with 3 homers and 5 rbi...Walt Weiss, who also spent a lot of time on the DL, also batted .462 vs. Baltimore (13-6).

Relatively speaking, Dave Henderson had an off year against the O's...He batted "only" .286 (42-12)...However, he remains the 4th leading active hitter (100 or more at bats) in the league with a .342 (240-82) career average.

There has been a lot of talk recently about Rickey Henderson, perhaps, being the best lead-off man of all time...In the Orioles' experience, there is no argument...Take a look at these lifetime figures: g-112, avg-.334 (419-140), bb-86, sf-2, sb-75, cs-10 (success rate 88%), on-base pct-.446 (app-507, on base-226)...Case closed.

Mark McGwire batted only .205 (44-9) against the O's last year, but 4 of his 9 hits were home runs...Dave Parker also hit .205 (39-8), but had no rbi in 11 games...Terry Steinbach hit .355 (31-11) and now has a .328 (61-20) life-time average vs the Birds.

Mike Gallego batted only .097 (31-3), the lowest average in the league against the O's among hitters with 25 or more at bats.

ATHLETICS PITCHING: Dave Stewart (1-1 in '89) had lost 5 straight to the Orioles when he finally beat Dave Schmidt in Oakland, 5-1, on July 20... In each of the past 2 years, the O's have inflicted his 1st defeat upon him after he'd jumped out to fast starts...He was 8-0 at the time in '88 and 6-0 last year when they defeated him, both times in Baltimore.

Stewart's record in Baltimore lifetime is 1-4...His lone victory came on Aug 19, '86 (over Storm Davis)...Since then he's lost 3 in a row at Memorial Stadium.

Mike Moore (2-1) evened his lifetime record at 9-9...He's won 6 of his last 8 decisions against the O's and over the past 2 years has held them to a collective .214 (168-36) average...Curt Young (0-1) had beaten the Birds 5 straight times until losing to Dave Schmidt in Baltimore on June 18...That was also his 1st career loss at Memorial Stadium where he is now 5-1... Overall, he's 6-3 lifetime.

Bob Welch was 1-1 in 2 starts with a 1.93 era (ip-14, er-3) and held the O's to a .163 average (49-8) against him...Dennis Eckersley was the epitome of efficiency...He appeared in 3 games, worked 3 innings, retired all 9 hitters he faced, fanned 5 of them and picked up 3 saves.

ORIOLES BATTING: Former Athletic Mickey Tettleton was the only Oriole to perform consistently well at the plate in the season series...Against his old teammates, he batted .341 (41-14) with 2 homers and 7 rbi...Cal Jr also hit 2 homers, on a .244 average (45-11).Craig Worthington hit .195 (41-8) and Mike Devereaux .091 (22-2).

ORIOLES PITCHING: Jose Bautista didn't have a great year, but he can look with pride at beating the World Champions twice in 2 starts, his first 2 lifetime decisions against them (era 2.08, ip-13, er-3)...Dave Schmidt (1-1) leaves the A.L with a 5-1 lifetime record vs. Oakland. Jeff Ballard is high man on the current staff with 3 career victories at the A's expense.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Wed, Apr 26 (Oak)--One of the big ones. Bob Welch had the O's shut out on 2 hits thru 7 and led 1-0...But, the Birds tied on a bases-loaded walk in the 8th, then Steve Finley drilled an rbi single, and the O's were up by 2-1.

Gregg Olson came on in the bottom half of the inning to protect the slim lead, and protect it he did--retiring all 6 batters...In the 9th he fanned the side--Dave Parker, Dave Henderson and Mark McGwire, who looked at a Hall of Fame curve ball for strike 3 and the ballgame.

Thu, May 11 (Bal)--The O's dealt Dave Stewart his 1st loss of the season (for the 2nd straight year)...It was his 5th straight loss to the Birds...The game was a hastily scheduled afternoon makeup for a rainout the previous night which explains the crowd of 1,201, 3rd smallest in Orioles home history.

Fri, Jun 16 (Bal)--The 2 clubs split a twin bill, the O's losing the opener after bouncing into 5 double plays...Jay Tibbs (3-0) won the 2nd game after holding the A's to one run in 7 innings...The Birds jumped Mike Moore, leading the A.L. in era at the time, for 5 runs in 7 innings...Joe Orsulak drove in the lead run twice.

Sat, Jun 17 (Bal)--For the 1st time in 3 years, an Orioles game was on national television and the O's looked good...Phil Bradley's 2 doubles and 3 rbi helped them overcome an early Oakland lead and they were leading 4-2 in the 7th. Then rain interrupted the action for 38 minutes...When play resumed, NBC pulled the plug (they went to the backup game and stayed there), but Olson held the A's at bay to preserve the win.

Sun, Jun 18 (Bal)--The O's beat the A's again 4-2 as Mickey Weston, just up from Rochester, made an auspicious big league debut by retiring 8 of the 9 batters he faced, and saved a win for Dave Schmidt.

Thu, Jul 20 (Oak)--Tired of hearing about the Orioles jinx over him, Dave Stewart did something about it, beating the Birds, 5-2.

Fri, Jul 21 (Oak)--One of the toughest of the year...Bob Milacki, leading 2-1 after 8 1/2 innings, came out in favor of Olson. Gregg had control problems that day, walked 4 and threw a wild pitch, then Mark Williamson came on to give up a game-ending single to Rickey Henderson. Mike Moore went the route for the win.

VS SEATTLE ('89: 6-6, Lifetime: 89-57, .610)...The Orioles' record against the Mariners (.610) is 2nd only to the one they've logged against the Texas Rangers/Washington Senators (259-141, .648)...The Birds are 44-29, .603 lifetime at the Seattle Kingdome which is runner-up to their 66-37, .641 record at Arlington Stadium.

The O's who went 63-51 vs Seattle during the '80s have won 8 seasons series, lost one and tied 4 since the M's came into the league in '77.

In '89 the M's won 5 of the 1st 6 games, the the Birds won 5 of the last 6. Seattle out-hit the O's .293 (427-125) to .274 (402-110), and out-scored them 62-58...The Mariners doubleheader sweep of the Orioles in Baltimore on May 6 was their 1st against anybody since May '81.

MARINERS BATTING: Alvin Davis hit .409 (44-18) and also drew 10 walks which produced an on-base percentage of .519 (54-28), best in the league against the O's...Three others hit with gusto: the rookie Ken Griffey Jr-.366 (41-15) with 8 rbi and 9 runs scored, Harold Reynolds-.364 (44-16) and Jim Presley--.349 (43-15)...Greg Briley hit 3 homers, all in his last 8 at bats vs the O's and all in Baltimore...He hit 2 of them in one game at Baltimore on July 19. The Mariners' leading lifetime hitter is Dave Valle at .377 (69-26).

MARINERS PITCHING: Before leaving for Montreal, Mark Langston beat the O's twice in 2 starts to run his winning streak against them to 8...He's 9-4 overall...He hasn't lost to the O's since Mike Boddicker beat him in Seattle on May 18, '87. Jerry Reed, 1-1 against the Birds in '89, held them to a .108 average (37-4).

ORIOLES BATTING: The 2 Ripkens each batted over .300...Bill .314 (35-11) and Cal .308 (52-16) with a club leading 11 rbi in 12 games...The leading hitter was Craig Worthington-.372 (43-16), and Mickey Tettleton led in home runs with 3.

ORIOLES PITCHING: Jeff Ballard was 2-1 vs. the M's despite a 6.91 era (ip-14.1, er-11) and a .322 average against (59-19) in 4 starts...Bob Milacki, 1-0, had a 9.72 era (ip-8.1, er-9) in 2 outings...The M's batted .342 (38-13) against him.

Brian Holton and Dave Schmidt both went 0-2...Mark Williamson was 0-0-1 and allowed no runs in 4 appearances (ip-5.2, ab-18, h-2, avg-.111)...Lifetime he has a 1.95 era (ip-32.1, er-7) in 14 outings.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Sun, Apr 30 (Sea)--Jeff Ballard, the undefeated, became the 1st Oriole ever to win 5 games in April...His batterymate, Mickey Tettleton, tied the game at 1-1 with a sac fly in the 2nd and hit a 2-run homer righthanded to right- field in the 8th to put the O's ahead for good.

Mon, Jun 19 (Sea)--Jeffrey Leonard's 3-run homer gave the M's an early lead, but Cal countered with a 3-run blast of his own to ignite a 7-run 7th and the O's went on to win 9-5.

Tue, Jun 20 (Sea)--This time the O's spotted Seattle a 5-0 lead, but the result was the same...Ballard was ko'd with one out in the 1st, and Mickey Weston came on to earn his 1st big league victory.

Wed, Jun 21 (Sea)--The O's reversed rolls, jumped out to an 8-0 lead, then held on to win 8-6...With 2 out and the tying run at the plate in the 9th, Gregg Olson came on to post his 10th save, most ever by an O's rookie The O's swept the series, scoring 25 runs in the 3 games...They'd won 6 straight.

Tue, Jul 18 (Bal)--The O's won their 5th straight beating the M's, 4-3, to match their biggest lead of the season (7 1/2) and go 15 games over .500 for the 1st time.

The outcome revolved around a bouncing ball...Olson was pitching in the 8th, protecting a 1-run lead with Greg Briley on 1st and 2 out...Darnell Coles lined a shot to left center that scored Briley easily.

except that it bounced over the fence and he had to hold at 3rd...After an intentional walk that loaded the bases, Dave Valle hit a shot down the 3rd base line. Craig Worthington scrambled behind the bag, knocked the ball down, picked it up and threw Valle out by a hair...An average runner beats it out...Something Magic Happened.

Wed, Jul 19 (Bal)--A rare weekday afternoon game to be followed by a regular season Eastern League battle (Hagerstown vs. New Britain) drew an astonishing 35,691. Briley, the rookie from NC, enjoyed his 1st career 2-homer game, and Brian Holman pitched 7 scoreless innings as the M's went on to blank the Birds, 6-0.

This was the start of something bad for the O's...It was the beginning of a 14-game stretch during which the O's would go 1-13.

VS TEXAS ('89: 9-3, Lifetime Tex Only: 124-80, .608)...The Orioles record against the Texas Rangers-Washington Senators who began operating in '61 is 259-141, .648...That represents the O's best record against a single franchise...The O's are 35-11 (.761) at home against the Rangers starting '82.

However, for those of you more interested in contemporary history, let it be said that the O's record against the Rangers only (.599) is 2nd only to their 89-57, .610 log vs the Seattle Mariners....At Arlington Stadium, the Orioles are 66-37, .641, and that is their best record in a single ballpark on the road (2nd best is at the Kingdome--44-29, .602)...During the last 5 years, though, the Birds, who were 4-2 there in '89, are only 15-15 at Texas.

During the '80s, the Orioles were 72-39 (.649) against the Rangers. That was easily the Birds best record against one team. In '89 the O's outscored the Rangers, 63-42, out-hit them .275 to .252 and out-pitched them 3.42 to 4.96.

RANGERS BATTING: Harold Baines hit a combined .308 (52-16) between Chicago and Texas, but had no homers and only 2 rbi vs. the O's...Buddy Bell finished with a .246 average (625-154) average against Baltimore in 168 games...He hit 10 homers and drove in 63 runs.

Jim Sundberg in 135 games hit .302 (444-134) off Orioles pitching...Julio Franco has hit .300 or better against the O's in 5 of his 7 A.L. seasons... Lifetime he's batting .304 (336-102).

RANGERS PITCHING: Nolan Ryan was 0-3 in 3 starts against the O's and is now 5-16 lifetime...His career era (not including post-season) is 4.42 (ip-167, er-82)...Last year Ryan's 7.45 era vs the O's (ip-19.1, er-16) was the highest among pitchers with 15 or more innings...He also led opponents in walks (13) and home runs (5), and his 28 strikeouts were one shy of leader Chuck Finley (29).

Ryan hasn't beaten the Orioles since Apr 20, '76 at Anaheim, and has lost 9 in a row to them...At Memorial Stadium, where he has lost 7 straight (8 starts), he hasn't won since May 18, '75 (2 weeks before his no-hitter in Anaheim)...He is 3-10 lifetime in Baltimore with a 6.42 era (ip-47.2, er-34)...He has fanned 10 or more Orioles in a game 10 times with a high of 13 twice...His 5 wins are tied for fewest with the Toronto Blue Jays against whom he is 5-3 with a 2.26 era (ip-83.2, er-21).

It took Charlie Hough 9 years to win a game at Memorial Stadium though he has often pitched well in Baltimore...The breakthrough occurred last Aug 4 when he beat Dave Schmidt...Hough is 5-10 overall against the Birds, and he's 1-5 in Balmer in 8 starts.

Bobby Witt went 0-2 last year in 2 starts...He pitched only 6.2 innings and his era was 14.85 (er-11)...The Orioles average against him was .452 (31-14) and if you throw in his 5 walks, their on-base percentage was .528 (36-19).

The 3 Ranger pitchers to beat the O's in '89 were Hough, Kevin Brown and Jamie Moyer...Jeff Russell had 2 saves in 6 appearances, but also gave up 2 late-inning, game-winning homers to the Orioles (to Devereaux & Milligan).

ORIOLES BATTING: The 2 leading Orioles hitters in the season series were rookies Mike Devereaux (.333, 39-13) and Steve Finley (.346, 26-9) each...Another rookie, Craig Worthington, hit .302 (43-13) and drove in 6 runs...Mickey Tettleton batted .444 (18-8) and hit a club-leading 3 homers in only 7 games.

Lifetime the top O's batters against the Rangers are Phil Bradley (.310, 226-70), Cal Jr (.306, 382-117) and Joe Orsulak (.300, 30-9).

ORIOLES PITCHING: The Orioles' 2 principal bullpen aces, Mark Williamson and Gregg Olson, combined to make 13 appearances against the Rangers last year, and didn't allow a run in 20 innings while going 4-0 with 4 saves.

The Rangers hit .109 against them (64-7).

Williamson, 3-0 with a save in 6 outings, held the Rangers to a .156 average in 13.1 innings (45-7)...Olson was 1-0 with 3 saves, and not only didn't he give up a run, he didn't yield a single hit (Rangers were 0-for-19)in 6.2 innings.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Wed, May 17 (Tex)--After a day off and a day of rain, the O's played a one-game road trip, beating the Rangers, 8-2, as 8 different players drove in one run apiece...Nobody knew it at the time, but this was the day that the pennant race began in earnest for the Orioles...Dave Schmidt pitched 7 strong innings.

Mon, May 29 (Bal)--The O's jumped on Nolan Ryan for 3 home runs (by Mickey Tettleton, Cal Ripken and Larry Sheets), and won 6-2 despite 10 Ryan strikeouts...It was Tettleton's 7th homer in 14 games, and Cal's first in 41 games.

Wed, May 31 (Bal)--Jeff Ballard left with a 4-0 lead at the end of 5 after Pete Incaviglia hit him in the neck with a line drive...Mark Huismann was the victim of a 6-run Texas rally in the 6th, but the Birds bounced back with 4 in the bottom of the inning to retake the lead for good...Three of those runs scored on Tettleton's 8th homer in his last 16 games...Mark Williamson was the winner in relief for the 2nd straight night (1st time that had happened since Tippy Martinez in '83).

Fri, Aug 4 (Bal)--A large crowd went home disappointed as Charlie Hough broke a 9-year-old jinx and finally won a game in Baltimore, 6-4, with a lot of help from Julio Franco and his 3-run homer...President Bush was there, but sitting with son, George (part-owner of the Rangers), as the O's record with #1 on hand dipped to 3-1...O's starters were winless in the last 16 games. Jeff Russell earned a save for Texas despite a 47-pitch 9th inning.

Sat, Aug 5 (Bal)--The O's received bad news...Mickey Tettleton found out he had to undergo arthroscopic surgery on his left knee...A big win by Bob Milacki, who was only 4-8 since late April, helped relieve the anxiety...The O's defeated Ryan again before a crowd of 48,776.

Sun, Aug 6 (Bal)--Mike Devereaux' "sudden death" homer in the bottom of the 10th off Russell won it after Randy Milligan tied the game in the 9th with a one-out single...Pete Harnisch threw 152 pitches while working the 1st 8.1 innings...Mark Williamson blanked the Rangers over the last 1.2 to get the victory.

Thu, Sep 7 (Tex)--The Orioles swept a doubleheader for the 1st time in more than a year and for only the 2nd time since Sep '84...In the opener, they beat Ryan for the 3rd time this year (his 9th straight loss to them)...It didn't matter that the O's went down on strikes 16 times at the hands of Ryan (10) and 4 other pitchers...Devereaux registered a career-high 5 rbi in the 8-3 1st game victory.

In the nightcap (or would you prefer afterpiece?), Steve Finley concluded the evening with a 2-game total of 5 hits, 4 stolen bases, 2 rbi and a home run...Devereaux added another rbi bringing his total to 6 for the day as the O's won 9-5.

Sat, Sep 9 (Tex)--Milligan's 2-run homer in the 10th off Russell won it, 4-2.

VS TORONTO ('89: 7-6, Lifetime: 91-75, .548)...It is of small consolation, perhaps, that the Orioles won the season series--for only the 2nd time in 6 years...Sort of like winning the battle, but losing the war...Nonetheless, the O's reversed a downward trend during which they had gone 6-20 (.231) in '87 & '88 (1-12 in '87, 5-8 in'88), and 29-48 (.377) starting '84...During the 80s, however, the O's finished with a scant one-game margin over Toronto (62-61).

Over the last 8 1/2 weeks of the season, the Orioles and Blue Jays were never more than 2 1/2 games apart (i.e. after the O's led by 3 on July 31)...The final 3 games of the season marked the 2nd time in O's history (both in the eighties) that they had gone down to the wire with an opportunity to win the division by knocking off the 1st place club head to head...In '82, the O's won the 1st 3 games of a 4-game, season-ending series against Milwaukee in Baltimore, tying them with the Brewers for 1st place, then lost the finale.

The Orioles who wound up going 3-3 in the new SkyDome, made their debut there on July 4th and celebrated with an 8-0 win on a 2-hitter by Dave Schmidt-Mark Williamson at the expense of Dave Stieb...See details below under "Game Highlights." The 1st Oriole to hit a home run in the SkyDome was Cal Jr, who hit a 2-run shot that night off David Wells...The O's were 35-41 lifetime (.461) at Exhibition Stadium, including 1-12 in the last 2 years there ('87-'88).

BLUE JAYS BATTING: George Bell was the top hitter in the league against the O's among those with 25 or more at bats...He hit .479 (48-23), and led also in hits (23) and rbi (15)...He hit only 2 home runs...Lifetime he is batting .294 (309-91) in 80 games with 19 homers and 64 rbi...The Brothers Bell, George and Juan played in the same major league game for the 1st time, in Toronto on Sep 29.

Fred McGriff hit a club leading 4 home runs vs. the O's despite a .200 (50-10) average...Kelly Gruber hit .333 (33-11) and is now a .317 hitter (120-38) lifetime against the O's...Rance Mulliniks batted .417 (24-10) and Mookie Wilson .370 (27-10).

BLUE JAYS PITCHING: Dave Stieb went 0-2 (after going 2-0 in '88) and is now 5-9 lifetime...That's his lowest win total against a single opponent (next is the Yankees' against whom he's 8-10))...At Memorial Stadium he is 0-5 lifetime...It is the only current ballpark in which he has not ever won a game...His career record in 14 starts at Baltimore is 4.07 (ip-84, er-38)...Lifetime at Toronto, Stieb is 5-4 in 11 starts with a 2.97 era (ip-75.2, er-25).

John Cerutti, the Amherst College alumnus, was also 0-2....He'd been 4-1-1 lifetime at the start of the season. Nobody else won, lost or saved more than one...Mike Flanagan, who went to school cross town from Cerutti at the University of Massachusetts, is now 1-3 lifetime against his original team...He beat the Orioles' Jose Mesa in Toronto on Sep 15, '87... In Baltimore, he is 0-2 as a Blue Jay.

Tom Henke is 4-1 with 7 saves in 22 career outings...Last year he didn't allow a run in 8 innings over 6 appearances, held the O's to a .207 average (29-6) and struck out 14...The Orioles hit .312 (77-24) vs. Jimmy Key who was 1-1 in 3 starts...Lifetime Key is 6-7.

ORIOLES BATTING: The 3 top Orioles hitters against Toronto in '89 were: Joe Orsulak-.387 (31-12), Randy Milligan-.367 (30-11) and Phil Bradley-.349 (43-15)...Bradley and Cal Ripken (.288, 52-15) each hit 3 homers in the season series...Cal drove in 10 runs, tops on the club. Lifetime, Orsulak is batting .380 (50-19) and Bradley .329 (210-69).

ORIOLES PITCHING: Jeff Ballard (1-1 in '89) at 3-4 leads the O's in both career wins and losses against Toronto...The O's most effective pitcher was Gregg Olson who was 0-0 with 2 saves in 4 appearances (average against: .200, 25-5)...Mark Williamson who lost back-to-back games on Sep 29 & 30 is 0-2-2 lifetime.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Tue, Jun 27 (Bal)--Matching their best run output of the year (at NY, Jun 5), the O's are out-hit by the Jays (13 to 11), but drew a club-record tying 15 walks enroute to a 16-6 victory.

Randy Milligan enjoyed his biggest day in the majors with 4 hits, 4 rbi and 9 total bases while producing a homer, 2 doubles, a single and a walk...Mickey Tettleton had 3 walks, his 18th homer and a sac fly good for 4 rbi. Jay Tibbs earned the O's 1st complete game victory in 2 months...Third baseman Kelly Gruber committed 3 errors and 3 Toronto pitchers, including loser Mike Flanagan, expended 220 pitches....Tibbs threw 123.

Wed, Jun 28 (Bal)--Cal Jr drove in both O's runs, including the 8th inning game winner with a homer off Cerutti, in O's 2-1 triumph...Fred McGriff had tied the game with his 17th homer in the 7th...Gregg Olson earned

The O's 7 1/2 game lead was their 2nd biggest ever in the month of June, surpassed only by an 11-game advantage in June '69.

Thu, Jun 29 (Bal)--The Jays salvaged one game in the 3-game series with a 19-hit attack off Dave Schmidt and Jose Bautista.

Tue, Jul 4 (Tor)--The O's, playing their 1st game in the SkyDome, celebrated Independence Day with a big 8-0 win. Schmidt pitched 6 perfect innings, and was deprived of a no-hitter by a questionable official scorer's call after Tony Fernandez reached safely on a bunt. After another hit, Mark Williamson came on and blunted the Toronto threat over the last 2.2 innings.

Meanwhile, the O's who led only 3-0 at the time, scored 5 in the 9th...The crowd of 44,025 was the smallest yet at the SkyDome that had opened on June 5.

Wed, Jul 5 (Tor)--After jumping out to a 5-0 lead, the O's hung on to win 5-4...Olson was short of stuff this day, but left the bases loaded in the 8th and retired the side in order in the 9th...The Jays who had 4 catchers had used them all late in the game so infielder Tim Lawless made his debut behind the plate...What did he do right off? He nailed Bill Ripken trying to steal with a perfect throw...Bob Melvin's 2 rbi were big ones...The Orioles, 32-15 since May 14, were 47-34, their best halfway record since '79.

Thu, Jul 6 (Tor)--Fred McGriff's 3-run homer off Jeff Ballard (10-4) led to the Jays 4-1 win.

Thu, Aug 17 (Bal)--With the scored tied at 1, the Orioles jumped on Cerutti for 8 runs (4 earned) in the 4th inning...Stan Jefferson hit a 3-run homer and drove in a career-high 5 runs.

Fri, Aug 18 (Bal)--George Bell had 4 of the Jays' 15 hits, an outburst that included 3 home runs off Dave Johnson in a 9-2 Toronto win.

Sat, Aug 19 (Bal)--Phil Bradley doubled and Mike Devereaux singled leading off the 1st and that was the extent of the O's offense...The Jays won 5-1 as Jimmy Key, just off the DL, snapped a 7-game losing streak.

Sun, Aug 20 (Bal)--Dave Stieb remained winless lifetime in Baltimore (0-5) as the O's won 7-2...A loss would have allowed the Brewers to move into 1st place...Pete Harnisch worked (at least) into the 7th for the 7th time in his last 8 starts...O's rookies had now contributed a win and/or save to 34 of the O's 64 victories.

Fri, Sep 29 (Tor)--The 1st game of the dramatic final showdown for the Eastern Division title went to the Jays, 2-1, in 11 innings when Lloyd Moseby lined a 2-out rbi single off the leftfield wall against Mark Williamson who took the loss.

The O's had drawn 1st blood before a SkyDome record 49,636 when Bradley homered on the very 1st pitch of the game, a 420' shot off Todd Stottlemyre. Jeff Ballard, who pitched magnificently, was still leading 1-0 when he came out with 1 out in the 8th...The Jays tied when Lawless scored from 3rd on a wild pitch, an errant breaking ball from reliever Olson that bounced wide of the plate.

The game was played under roof as the Jays extended their undefeated record inside a closed dome to 10-0 (not including 2-0 when the dome was partially closed or closed in mid-game)...it was the Blue Jays' 7th straight extra inning win...They were 13-4 in overtime, the O's 9-3.

Sat, Sep 30 (Tor)--The pennant race ended despite a gallant effort by Johnson who replaced Harnisch as the Orioles' starter after the latter had severely cut his foot while walking back to the hotel following the game the night before...The Baltimore native gave up a 1st inning run, then retired 18 of the next 19 Blue Jays. He was leading 3-1 when he came out after walking Liriano to open the 8th, and had allowed only 2 hits and 3 walks.

Kevin Hickey walked the only man he faced, then Williamson came on...The next 4 batters would then bring the pennant race to a dramatic conclusion. Moseby sacrificed; Mookie Wilson singled, scoring Liriano; McGriff drove in the tying run with another single, and then George Bell put the Jays on top for good with a sac fly...The O's went down 1-2-3 in the 9th and it was over.

of 15, more than half of whom had spent much of the year at Rochester...The O's trailed 3-0 until the 7th when they rallied for 2, then an inning later jumped on the Jays for 5 more and won , 7-5...Francisco Melendez contributed 3 rbi including the game-winner...The 3 day attendance for this historic series came to 148,653.

ALL-STAR GAME NOTES

1989: Shortstop Cal Ripken and catcher Mickey Tettleton were the Orioles' representatives at the 60th all-star game at Anaheim. Ripken received 1,172,506 votes, nearly 500,000 more than the A.L.'s next shortstop candidate—Walt Weiss of Oakland. Ripken went 1-for-3 with a 5th inning single off Montreal's Tim Burke and Tettleton struck out in his only all-star at bat. The A.L. won, 5-3, scoring all 5 runs in the first 3 innings.

All-Star Starts: Ripken started his 6th straight All-Star game, most consecutive ever by an Oriole (in all but one—'88—he was elected by the fans). Only one other shortstop in major league history has made more consecutive starts: Ozzie Smith, who has started the last seven. Cal is the only A.L. player to start the last 6 All-Star games. Cal Smith and Joe Cronin are the only three shortstops to start in an all-star game six straight years.

Elected Starts: Brooks Robinson holds the club record with 10 elected starts, including five in a row ('64–'68) when the voting was done by major league players. Since 1970, when the balloting was returned to the fans, both Brooks ('71–'74) and Cal ('84–'87) have had runs of four consecutive starts, and Cal tops the club with five in that period.

Seventeen Orioles have been elected to start in the 20 years of fan voting. In addition to Cal and Brooks, Orioles who have been elected to starting berths are Boog Powell ('70-'71), Frank Robinson ('70-'71), Bobby Grich ('76), Ken Singleton ('81), Eddie Murray ('85) and Terry Kennedy ('87).

Selection of the starting team was returned to the fans in '70 under the sponsorship of the Gillette Company, in cooperation with Major League Baseball. Following the ballot box "stuffing" incident in Cincinnati in '57, responsibility was entrusted to major league players for 12 years ('58 thru '69). In '87, USA Today began sponsorship of the fan balloting.

MANAGERS: Paul Richards, '61*; Hank Bauer, '67; Earl Weaver, '70, '71, '72, '74‡, '80; Joe Altobelli, '84.

*—Selected but did not attend due to injury
†—Started but not elected
‡Honorary Manager
1—Selected for 1st game only
2—Selected for 2nd game only
Replaced Casey Stengel, who left Yankees after they won pennant in '60

All-Star Game Saves: The A.L. has won only 8 of the last 36 all-star games (beginning '58), but it's been Oriole relievers who have saved 4 of those victories: Billy O'Dell ('58-'59), Milt Pappas ('62) and Don Aase ('86).

Orioles All-Star MVPs: Three Orioles have won MVP honors in all-star competition: Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks Robinson ('66) and Frank Robinson ('71).

O'Dell, the former Orioles' left-hander who also pitched for the Giants, Braves and Pirates, hurled the last 3 innings of the only all-star game ever played in Baltimore and retired all 9 batters he faced to protect a one-run lead, thus giving the A.L. a 4-3 win.

Brooks won the '66 Arch Ward Memorial Trophy on the strength of a 3-for-4 effort at bat (including a triple) and an 8-for-8 performance afield. He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank's 4th inning home run at Detroit in '71 put the A.L. on top to stay and earned him MVP honors. It was the first all-star victory since '62 for the A.L., which did not win again until '83.

ORIOLES POST-SEASON NOTES

ALCS: The O's hold several ALCS/LCS records including: Most ALCS (7, in 21-year history of divisional play), Most ALCS won (5), Most ALCS games won (18). Their LCS W-L percentage (.692, 18-8), is also a record.

The O's won the first 10 ALCS games they played (including the first 9 ever played) . . . They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and A's ('71) in the first 3 ALCS, then won game #1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year . . . The Orioles are 9-4 at home and on the road.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in 6 WS, but has a .576 pct. in games (19-14) . . . The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 on the road.

POST-SEASON TOTAL: In 59 post-season games, the O's are 37-22 (.627). They are 19-11 at home and 18-11 away.

ATTENDANCE: In 26 ALCS games, the O's have played to 1,013,997, an average of 39,000. They've played 13 of those at home and have drawn 544,691 (average 41,899).

In 33 WS games attendance has totaled 1,769,179 (average 53,611). At home for 17 WS dates the Birds have pulled 877,518 (average 51,619).

The Orioles 59 total post-season games have attracted 2,783,176 (average 47,172). At Memorial Stadium there have been 30 post-season events which have drawn a total of 1,422,209 (average 47,407).

The 3 biggest crowds to watch the O's in a WS were games 5,4, & 3 (67,064; 66,947 and 65,792) of '83, all at Philadelphia. The largest attendance for a WS game in Baltimore was 54,458 for game #4 (final game) vs. Dodgers in '66.

The biggest house for an Orioles LCS game was 52,787 for game #1 at Baltimore vs. the Angels in '79 (the "Tonight, Let it be Lowenstein" game).

ORIOLES WORLD SERIES SHARES BY YEAR

Since 1960 (the first year they qualified for a share), the O's have finished in the first division 22 times in 30 seasons, thereby qualifying in all but 8 years ('62, '67, '78, '84, '85, '86, '87, '88) for a share of the WS pool (combined since '69 with the LCS).

WORLD SERIES SHARES

Here are the individual shares that Baltimore players received over the years:

1960	$ 1,154.68	(2nd place)	1973	$ 7,469.77	(1st place East)
1961	946.17	(3rd place)	1974	7,394.76	(1st place East)
1963	740.85	(4th place)	1975	1,245.15	(2nd place East)
1964	971.85	(3rd place)	1976	1,652.12	(2nd place East)
1965	1,187.07	(3rd place)	1977	1,173.30	(2nd place East tie)
1966	11,683.04	(World Champions)	1979	22,113.94	(A.L. Champions)
1968	1,904.04	(2nd place)	1980	2,668.71	(2nd place East)
1969	14,904.21	(A.L. Champions)	1981	757.87	(3rd place East*)
1970	18,215.78	(World Champions)	1982	2,926.54	(2nd place East)
1971	13,906.46	(A.L. Champions)	1983	65,487.50	(World Champions)
1972	330.88	(3rd place East)	1989	7,078.66	(2nd place East)
				$185,913.35—Total

*Though the O's had 2nd best full season record in A.L. East, they received only 3rd place money because New York and Milwaukee each won half-season championships.

The O's voted 29 full shares in '83 . . . The Phillies' (losers') share in '83 was $44,473.31. They, too, voted 29 full shares.

Note: In '89, The World Champion Athletics earned a record $114,252.11 (29 full shares) while the losing Giants each received $83,529.26 (33 full shares), not a record ('88 A's set losers' share standard of $86,220.89 (34 shares)).

THE ORIOLES—PAST AND PRESENT

Major League Baseball returned to the City of Baltimore in 1954 after an absence of more than half a century.

The transfer of the St. Louis Browns to Baltimore represented the first inter-city shift of an American League club in 52 seasons. Ironically, it was Baltimore that had been victimized in the last previous move. The Orioles, a charter franchise in the new league in '01, moved to New York under shadowy circumstances for $18,000 after the 1902 season. There, they were renamed, first the "Highlanders", then later—gasp! —the "Yankees".[1]

Thirty-six seasons have elapsed since the Orioles set up shop at 33rd & Ellerslie. During that time they have finished first 8 times, captured 6 American League pennants and won 3 World Series. They've also been runners-up 9 times, and have placed in the 1st division 22 times (all in the last 30 years). During those last 3 decades they have the best won-lost percentage in major league baseball (.555, see p. 16 for more details). The Orioles have enjoyed 26 winning seasons, including, at one stretch, 18 in a row from '68 thru '85.[2]

The O's maintained the winningest record in the majors from '57 thru '87, a stretch of 31 years, but it was really from '60, when they nearly won their 1st pennant, thru '83, when they captured their last, that they dominated major league baseball.

During that 24 year period, they were 612 games over .500 (2206-1594, .581) and held a 99½ game edge over the majors' 2nd best club of that era, the Yankees.

IN THE BEGINNING

A winning tradition is not peculiar to the modern Orioles, however. It took root in Baltimore a long time ago. There are no fewer than 21 former Orioles players in the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, and 15 of them played here before 1954 (see page 105).

The history of professional baseball in Baltimore dates back 118 years to 1872, when the city was represented in the National Association, an important forerunner of today's major leagues.

Baltimore's baseball heritage was richly embellished in the formative years by:

—A left-hander named Matt Kilroy, who won 46 games for the American Association O's in 1887;

—Three straight National League pennant winners ('94, '95, '96), a team that would ultimately produce 6 Hall of Famers[3];

—The manager of that championship team, an innovative man named Ned Hanlon, who with the help of his talented athletes did much to shape the future of baseball strategy[4];

—Legendary all-time greats Babe Ruth, Lefty Grove, and John McGraw to name a few;

—Jack Dunn, whose name has long been synonymous with baseball in Baltimore. An infielder and pitcher with the city's original A.L. franchise, Dunn subsequently owned and managed the International League Orioles for 22 eventful seasons from 1907 thru 1928.

Among his many achievements: signing Ruth to his first professional contract, and winning 7 straight pennants from 1919 thru 1925[5]. It was the Dunn family that kept professional baseball alive and well in Baltimore during most of those 51 years between big league franchises[6];

—And, by a crowd of 52,833 that attended a Little World Series game at Municipal Stadium (on the same site as Memorial Stadum) between the Orioles and Louisville Colonels on Oct. 9, 1944. That same afternoon in St. Louis, the Cardinals and Browns played the decisive 6th game of the World Series before a crowd that was 20,203 smaller at Sportsman's Park (att: 32,630).[7]

RETURN TO THE MAJORS

Officially the American League returned to Baltimore on Sep. 29, 1953. That was the day American League owners, meeting in New York, unanimously approved the purchase of a controlling interest in the St. Louis Browns from previous owner Bill Veeck by a group of Baltimore negotiators, led by Mayor Tommy D'Alesandro Jr. ("Old Tommy") and attorney Clarence Miles, who became the club's first president. The purchase price was $2,475,000.

Unfortunately, only the name on the uniforms had changed. In 1954, the Orioles were merely the Browns transplanted. They were essentially the same team that had finished in the 2nd division for so many years in St. Louis (see "St. Louis Browns" below).[8]

The Birds, under the likable veteran manager Jimmy Dykes[9], lost 100 games that season while winning only 54. But, as poor as that record was, it wasn't bad enough to finish last. Happily, that dubious honor belonged to the Philadelphia A's with a record of 51-103.

The Orioles' escape from the basement that year allowed them to maintain a notable distinction for 32 years. They had never finished last until the string finally ran out in 1986.

THE START OF SOMETHING BIG

The Orioles took the first big step in the right direction on Sep. 14, 1954 when they hired White Sox Manager Paul Richards to come aboard as both manager and general manager, succeeding Dykes and Arthur Ehlers[10]. Richards, a native of Waxahachie, Texas, and a catcher for the World Champion Detroit Tigers in '45, was a highly regarded strategist and a fine handler of pitchers. In Baltimore, he also became an aggressive administrator.

Not long after he arrived, Richards engineered a 17-player deal with the Yankees, probably the biggest in baseball history (see page 134 for details). The O's gave up Bob Turley, Don Larsen, shortstop Bill Hunter and 5 others. Among the 9 who came to Baltimore were two who proved to be very special: Gus Triandos, the Orioles' first legitimate long ball threat, and a slick fielding, crowd-pleasing shortstop named Willy Miranda. Those two helped keep the fans happy during those early years while the club struggled toward legitimacy.

In '55, Richards kept the revolving door well greased. A total of 54 players wore the black and orange that year, including 23 pitchers. While "Tall Paul" was wheeling and dealing at the major league player level, his farm department (Jim McLaughlin and Harry Dalton) was pursuing young amateur talent at a relentless pace all over the country.

Among those prospects was a kid from Little Rock, named Brooks Robinson, who would develop into the best fielding 3rd baseman of all-time, and would spend 23 seasons in an Orioles uniform before moving up to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

Gradually, the Orioles began to improve. In 1957, Richards' 3rd season in Baltimore, the Birds finished at .500 (76-76) for the first time. In 1960, with a club comprising 10 regulars in their 20's, 7 of them rookies, the Birds nearly won their first pennant.[11]

Richards was particulary adept at reconstructing the careers of fading veterans[12] and developing young pitchers. During his reign, the Orioles became famous for the "Kiddie Korps", a passel of hard-throwing youngsters who pitched in Baltimore from the mid-50s to the early 60s.[13]

THE NEXT STEP UP

In the fall of '58, the Orioles hired the Yankees' highly respected farm director Lee MacPhail as general manager, replacing Richards[14] who nevertheless remained as field manager (until Sep. '61). MacPhail improved the fiscal and administrative efficiency of the operation and increased the productivity of the club's minor league system . . . He also made some brilliant deals.[15]

After the near miss of '60, the Orioles set a club record with 95 wins in '61 while Diamond Jim Gentile, acquired the year before from the Dodgers, gave Orioles fans an unprecedented show of power and production (46 home runs, including a major league record-tying 5 grand slams, and 141 rbi).[16]

In '64, another near miss under the direction of "Manager of the Year" Hank Bauer who replaced Billy Hitchcock that season. The Birds finished 3rd, but only 2 games back of the pennant-winning Yankees and produced their first American League MVP—Brooks Robinson.

MacPhail left the Orioles after the '65 season to join Baseball Commissioner William D. "Spike" Eckert as his principal advisor; but not before negotiating what was arguably the most important trade in the ballclub's history. It was the deal that brought National League superstar Frank Robinson from Cincinnati in exchange for the best pitcher the Orioles had ever had to that point, Milt Pappas.[17]

THE LAND OF PLEASANT LIVING

Just before MacPhail departed, Jerry Hoffberger and his family[18] acquired a controlling interest in the franchise. The Hoffbergers owned the Baltimore-based National Brewing Company, and their highly successful advertising theme for many years was based on the concept that the Chesapeake Bay area was "The Land of Pleasant Living."

That was surely true for the Orioles who went on to enjoy a golden age of on-the-field prosperity. Over the next 6 seasons, the Orioles would win four pennants and in a period of 9 years would finish first six times.[19]

Hoffberger brought Frank Cashen from the brewery to serve as executive vice president, and promoted the club's talented farm director, Harry Dalton, to run the baseball program.

In '66, the Orioles not only won their first pennant, under Hank Bauer, they shocked the baseball world by sweeping the heavily favored Dodgers in four straight. Frank Robinson, in his first A.L. season, won the Triple Crown (.316, 49 hr, 122 rbi), and was MVP of both the American League and the World Series.

It had taken a player of Frank's stature to put the O's over the top, but the club was already blessed with considerable talent; players like Brooks Robinson and Luis Aparicio who would later join Frank in the Hall of Fame, long ball hitting 1st baseman Boog Powell, rookie 2nd baseman Dave Johnson, perennial gold glove centerfielder Paul Blair, and a couple of pitchers named Jim Palmer and Dave McNally, still the top 2 winners in Orioles history. All but Frank and Aparicio were products of the O's fertile farm system.

The O's slumped badly in '67[20] and were going nowhere in '68 at the All-Star break when Dalton replaced Bauer with his longtime associate, Earl Weaver. The feisty 5'8" St. Louisan had enjoyed a remarkable career as a manager in the O's farm system. Over the next 14½ years he would experience even greater success at the major league level.

Having added the ultimate leadoff man (Don Buford), and a talented left-handed pitcher (Mike Cuellar), and having replaced one gold glover for another at shortstop (Mark Belanger for Aparicio), the O's, with Dalton at the controls of the baseball operation, would reign over the American League for the next 3 years.

In '69, '70 & '71, they became only the 3rd club in history to win 100 or more games for three straight years.[21] They won the division title by 19, 15, and 12 games, and swept the first 3 American League Championship Series, 3 games to none[22], over the Twins twice and A's once.

Following a humiliating loss to the New York Mets in the '69 World Series, the O's bounced back in '70 and took the Cincinnati Reds in a 5 game series that that was thoroughly dominated by the brilliance of Brooks Robinson.

In '70, the O's had three 20-game winners (McNally, Palmer & Mike Cuellar); the next year they had 4 (add Pat Dobson), a feat that had occurred only once before in major league history[23].

THAT OLD GANG OF MINE

After the Orioles lost a heartbreaking 7-game World Series to the Pirates in '71, Dalton left the ballclub to run the California Angels, and Executive VP Cashen added player personnel decisions to his job description.

After their 4 pennants in 6 seasons, the O's began to perform some major surgery. Frank Robinson was traded and, a year later, so were Dave Johnson, Buford and others.

The '72 season was grim but with youngsters like Bobby Grich, Don Baylor, Al Bumbry and Richie Coggins joining forces with Boog, Blair, Brooks, and all those talented starters[24], the O's regained the division championship in '73, and defied the odds to win it again in '74.

On Aug. 28, '74, the O's were in 4th place, 8 games behind the first-place Red Sox. When the smoke had cleared 5 weeks later, the O's, who had gone 28-6 during that stretch, were on top of the heap, a shade ahead of the 2nd place Yankees, and a full 8 games up on the 3rd place Bosox.

THE PETERS PRINCIPLE

Cashen, who had acquired Ken Singleton, Mike Torrez and Lee May in a couple of glittering trades the previous winter, returned to the beer business after the '75 season.[25] He was replaced by the widely respected & highly capable career baseball executive, Hank Peters, who had most recently served as president of the National Association (the minor leagues).

Not long after his arrival, Peters shook up the Orioles, trading for the flamboyant long-ball hitting Reggie Jackson.[26] But of more long term significance was the 10-player deal he constructed with the Yankees in June '76. Three of the 5 players acquired in that transition contributed greatly to the Orioles many successes over the next decade: Rick Dempsey, Tippy Martinez and Scott McGregor.[27]

The Orioles remained competitive well into the 80s despite serious losses from the new free agent re-entry system adopted in '76.[28] Peters' Yankee deal, plus a fine farm system harvest in the early 70s which produced Eddie Murray, Mike Flanagan and Rich Dauer among others, helped the cause immeasurably (from '76 thru '83, the O's won 2 golds and 5 silvers in 8 years).

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONNECTION

In '79, right after the O's had lost a second 7-game World Series to the Pirates, the internationally renowned Washington attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, completed the purchase of the ballclub in its entirety.

Williams brought with him a new regional marketing concept designed to expand the Orioles appeal over a wider geographic area. The plan was to add metropolitan Washington and states to the south to a drawing area that had been basically limited to Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania and Delaware.

The program has met with popular acceptance by baseball fans all over "Birdland." Despite the Orioles' below-average performance on the field in 4 of the past 5 seasons, attendance at Memorial Stadium has averaged over 2 million per year in that periond.

In the first four years of the Williams-Peters administration, the O's nearly captured 3 pennants though they had to settle for one. They won 100 games in '80 and finished 2nd, 3 games back of the Yankees; played the Brewers for the division championship on the final day of the '82 season and lost; then won it all in '83.

There were some remarkable achievements during that period. In '80, for example, there was a 5-game series against the Yankees in Baltimore that drew 249,605, the largest turnout in history for a single series.

Then, there was '82 when the O's went 33-10 (starting Aug. 10) down the stretch to tie the Brewers on the next-to-last day of the season by beating them in 3 straight pressure-packed games at Memorial Stadium. On the climactic day, however, the Brewers won big, to clinch their first division championship.

Yet, despite that crushing defeat, most of the crowd of over 51,000 remained in their seats for a full 45 minutes afterward. They stayed to applaud the players for their down-to-the-wire effort and to say goodbye to the manager, Earl Weaver, whose retirement had officially begun at game's end.

The emotion expressed so warmly and spontaneously by those loyal Orioles fans made it difficult to tell, in the dusk of that autumn afternoon, who had won the game and who had lost.

It was in '82 also that the son of the Orioles 3rd base coach, Cal Ripken Jr., took his place in the Orioles starting lineup, a position he has not relinquished since—even for one game, and joined with Eddie Murray, the Orioles all-time home run champion, to form an awesome 1-2 punch.

THE LAST HURRAH—FOR AWHILE

Joe Altobelli, an old Orioles organization veteran who'd been on a 6-year sabbatical, replaced Earl Weaver in '83, and right off the bat led the club to that elusive 3rd world championship.

They won their division by 6 games, then defeated the White Sox at Comiskey Park in a decisive Game #4 of the ALCS, breaking a scoreless tie on a dramatic 10th inning home run by the newest Oriole, Tito Landrum.[29]

The Orioles, who had never lost the first game of a post-season event, dropped both of them in '83[30], and each time a gritty complete game effort by Mike Boddicker in game #2 restored the balance.

After splitting the first 2 World Series games in Baltimore, the action shifted 90 miles north to Veterans Stadium where the Phillies boasted the best home record in the National League . . . But, the Orioles swept the 3 Philadelphia games, then cruised happily home down I-95 with their 3rd world title in hand.

In the 5th and final game, Rick Dempsey homered and doubled to clinch the World Series "mvp" award, and Eddie Murray hit 2 electrifying home runs while Scott McGregor was blanking the Phillies on 5 hits.

The 1983 champions boasted 2 dominating players in Murray and Ripken, and excellent pitching. But, most observers credited the club's many "role" players with making the difference, for getting the most out of their abilities while submerging their own egos in the interest of winning.[31]

RECONSTRUCTION

After that world championship, the Orioles' success on the field went into decline . . . The '84 and '85 seasons were modest, though winning ones, but from '86 thru '88 their record was the worst in the American League (194-291, .400), and 2nd in the majors to the Atlanta Braves (186-295, .387) . . . This unaccustomed series of setbacks bottomed out in '88 when the Orioles went 0-21 at the start of the season, and ultimately lost a club record 107 games.

By then, however, the Orioles' reconstruction plan had already begun in earnest . . . Edward Bennett Williams had signaled the start of the massive rebuilding project with a series of personnel decisions during the fall of '87. He replaced Hank Peters and Farm Director Tom Giordano with Roland Hemond and Doug Melvin, and brought Frank Robinson into the policy making process. The following May he appointed as president Larry Lucchino, a long-time associate who had been a club vice president as well as the general counsel during most of Williams' tenure as club owner.

At the same time, Williams renewed his commitment to restore the club to its customary level of competitiveness by redeveloping the farm system, and returning to fundamentals. When he passed away in August '88, the pieces were in place for an orderly takeover by Eli Jacobs' new ownership group which is equally dedicated to a bright Orioles future.

The Orioles' success in '89, going down to the final weekend before conceding the division championship to Toronto, was as surprising as it was exciting. No one in the organization expected that kind of dramatic improvement so quickly, just as no one now thinks that the reconstruction project is nearing completion.

As Frank Robinson said in a letter to Orioles fans after the season, "I ask each of you now to stop thinking about last year. Regardless of our turnaround in '89, we're still in the process of rebuilding, attempting to create a solid foundation for the future. But, you can bet that with every step forward, the going will get a little tougher. We're going to have to work even harder than ever before."

EPILOGUE

Despite the club's problems through most of the late eighties, and because of last year's rebound, the Orioles enter the final decade of the 20th Century bearing two very proud distinctions:

They have been the winningest team in baseball since the start of divisional play in '69, and they have also compiled the game's best won-lost record over the last 30 years.*

FOOTNOTES

1—John McGraw, who had earlier starred for the N.L. Orioles in the 90s, was manager and part-owner of the A.L. O's until July of '02, when he departed abruptly for New York to manage the N.L. Giants. His right-hand man and business partner, Wilbert Robinson, took over the reigns for the balance of the season.

McGraw was an obvious villain in this piece. Not only did he sell his stock in the club to the owner of the Giants, but he took several Orioles with him to New York (in mid-season, yet).

2—The Yankees are the only club that has ever produced a longer string of consecutive winning seasons-39, from '26 thru '64.

3—John McGraw, Wilbert Robinson, Hughie Jennings, Willie Keeler, Dan Brouthers and Joe Kelley are all in the Hall of Fame . . . Those 3 straight pennant winners batted, as a team, .343, .327 and .328.

4—The Orioles of the 1890s are credited with inventing the "squeeze play", and the "Baltimore chop", and for developing the "hit and run" to a science. They, reportedly, were the first to slope the base lines so that bunted balls would not roll foul. It is also said that they helped establish the custom of taking spring training in a warm clime.

They were also known, as well, for their team play, place-hitting and aggressive base running. They had a reputation for playing despite injuries and their "never say die" attitude on the field . . . The expression "Old Oriole" is still widely used to describe a player with those qualities.

5—Hall of Famer Lefty Grove played for the O's during that period, as did many other future big leaguers . . . In the final year of that remarkable stretch, the Birds had a trio of pitchers—Tommy Thomas, George Earnshaw and Jack Ogden—who won, respectively, 32, 29 and 28 games.

6—His grandson, Jack Dunn III, carried on the family baseball tradition as a minor league player, manager, and club owner, and then for 34 years as an executive for the major league Orioles before his untimely death in June 1987 at the age of 65.

7—Old Oriole Park, at 29th St. and Greenmount Ave., had been the Orioles' home for many years, but it burned down on July 4th eve in '44. Municipal Stadium, heretofore a football-only facility, was rapidly converted for baseball, and it was there that the International League Orioles won what would be their last minor league pennant that very same year ('44). It remained the home of the Orioles until major league baseball returned to the city 10 years later, and the new ballpark was completed on the Municipal Stadium site

8—Third Baseman Vern Stephens was the Orioles home run leader that year. He hit 8 and the whole team together produced only 52 all season (19 of them in what was then a cavernous Memorial Stadium).

The brightest prospect was hard-throwing "Bullet Bob" Turley who went 14-15 under difficult circumstances and led the league in strikeouts. World Series hero-to-be Don Larsen was also on that team. He was 3-21.

9—Dykes and GM Arthur Ehlers both came from the Philadelphia A's, for whom Dykes had managed the previous 3 years after succeeding Connie Mack in that capacity ('51). Mr. Ehlers remained with the club as a scouting supervisor and was instrumental in signing Brooks Robinson.

10—Richards came to Baltimore immediately and replaced Ehlers, who remained with the club in a significant scouting capacity. Dykes, however, finished the season as field manager.

11—The O's were in a virtual tie for 1st with the Yankees on Sep. 15, '60, the day before a crucial 4-game series began in New York. The Yankees swept that series, thus ending the Orioles dream.

14—Richards left to become general manager of the newly created Houston franchise. His right-hand man and 3rd base coach, Luman Harris, finished out the season, then Billy Hitchcock was appointed to the job in '62. Two years later the old Yankee, Hank Bauer, took over.

15—Among the 17 former O's players in the Orioles Hall of Fame, 8 came from outside the organization, and 5 were acquired by MacPhail: Jim Gentile, Stu Miller, Luis Aparicio, Dick Hall and Frank Robinson.

16—Gentile shared the major league record with the Cubs' Ernie Banks until the Yankees' Don Mattingly hit 6 grand slams in '87.

17—The O's also sent the Reds outfielder Dick Simpson and reliever Jack Baldschun, both of whom had been acquired during the off-season and had never played a game for the Orioles.

18—Clarence Miles and Clyde Morris were the original authority figures of ownership when the club returned to Baltimore. Later, other local leaders—James Keelty, Joseph A.W. Iglehart and Zanvyl Krieger ran the boardroom at various times until Hoffberger took over late in '65.

19—They won pennants in '66, '69, '70 & '71 and division titles in '73 & '74 (before losing to the Oakland A's both times in the ALCS).

20—The O's tied for 6th with the pesky Nats from Washington in '67 (in a 10-team league).

21—The O's won 109-108-101 games in those 3 seasons, matching the Philadelphia A's ('29-'30-'31) and St. Louis Cardinals ('42-'43-'44).

22—The O's were 10-0 in ALCS clashes until losing game 2 in the '73 playoffs vs. Oakland.

23—The White Sox had four 20-game winners in '20, but didn't win the pennant: Red Faber, Dickie Kerr, Ed Cicotte and Claude Williams.

24—Among them, Palmer, McNally and Cuellar combined for 16 twenty-win seasons for the O's: Palmer-8, McNally & Cuellar-4 each.

25—But he didn't stay long. Bitten by the baseball bug during his tenure with the O's, Frank joined the commissioner's office as administrator to Bowie Kuhn in '79, then hooked up with the Mets as executive vice president/general manager in '80.

26—The O's sent Don Baylor and pitchers Mike Torrez and Paul Mitchell to the A's for Jackson and a pair of hurlers, Ken Holtzman and Bill Van Bommell.

27—Rudy May and Dave Pagan also came to the O's. The Birds gave up Ken Holtzman, Doyle Alexander, Grant Jackson and Ellie Hendricks.

28—The O's lost Wayne Garland, Bobby Grich, Reggie Jackson and Royle Stillman, all to re-entry after the '76 season alone; then Dick Drago, Ross Grimsley and Elliott Maddox left thru the same window the next year.

29—Landrum had joined the club on Aug. 31 as the player-to-be-named later in the deal that sent Floyd Rayford to the Cardinals June 13. The O's scored 2 more runs in that inning and won, 3-0. Tippy Martinez was the winner and Britt Burns took the loss.

30—In 11 previous post-season events (6 ALCS & 5 WS), the O's had won the opening game each time. In '83 they dropped both openers.

THE ST. LOUIS BROWNS

The St. Louis Browns, the franchise from which the current Orioles descend, originated in Milwaukee in '01, the American League's first season. Before the '02 season began, the franchise had moved to St. Louis. It was after that same campaign that the original A.L. Orioles went to New York.[1]

The Browns, who took the name that originated with St. Louis teams in the late 1800s,[2] played 52 seasons ('02-'53) in St. Louis and were probably the most consistently bad club in major league history. They were 3,416-4,465, .433[3] (that's more than 1,000 games under .500); wound up in the 2nd division (5th thru 8th) 40 times; won just one pennant ('44, a war year), and finished 2nd only twice ('02 & '22).

George Sisler, one of 12 Hall of Famers who played and/or managed for the Browns[4], was almost certainly the club's all-time best (and most significant) player. He would do credit to any franchise. In 13 seasons with the Brownies ('15 thru '27), he twice hit over .400 ('20-.407, '22-.420) and had a career average of .340.

Another outstanding contributor was outfielder Ken Williams. He is not in the Hall of Fame, but he hit over .300 nine times in 10 St. Louis seasons and in '22 batted .332 with 34 doubles, 39 homers and 155 rbi. He was the home run champion that year with 4 more than Babe Ruth, and was the first ever to join the so-called "30-30" club—30 or more steals and 30 or more homers in the same year.

As you can see, '22 was a big year for both Sisler and Williams and the Browns set a club record for wins-93 (it was the only time in the history of the franchise that they reached the 90 victory level). They finished 2nd, one game back of the Yankees.

Despite the heroics of Sisler and Williams, however, when fans recall the Browns, they probably think first of a couple of guys named Gray and Gaedel.

Pete Gray, who had only one arm (his left), appeared in 77 games for the Browns in '45 (the last wartime season) at the age of 28. He batted .213 (234-51) with no homers and 13 rbi, and never returned to the big time.[5]

The appearance of Eddie Gaedel, at 3'7" and 65 pounds, was a product of club owner Bill Veeck's creative genius . . . The 26-year old signed in '51 as a pinch hitter and, in his only plate appearance, he did what he was paid for, he drew a walk.

As a surprise pinch hitter for leadoff batter Frank Saucier in the home half of the 1st inning, little Eddie was walked on 4 pitches by Detroit pitcher Bob Cain, then was promptly replaced by pinch runner Jim Delsing[6]

The '44 A.L. pennant winners went 89-65 to finish one game ahead of the Tigers. They lost the World Series in 6 games to their hometown rivals, the Cardinals, in one of 3 World Series, played entirely in one stadium[7] (Sportsman's Park was the regular season home of both clubs). The Browns won games #1 and #3 behind Denny Galehouse and Jack Kramer respectively. The Browns' only home run in the series was hit by 1st baseman George McQuinn.

In June '51, Bill DeWitt, who had been with the Browns since '16 (when Branch Rickey was gm), and his brother, Charles, sold their controlling interest to Bill Veeck. He operated the club for the next 2½ seasons. Twice in '53, Veeck attempted to bring the franchise to Baltimore himself, but could not get the necessary approval from American League owners . . . Subsequently (Sep. 29, '53), he sold his holdings to a group of Baltimore businessmen and the transfer was approved unanimously.

The Browns are gone from St. Louis, but not forgotten. The St. Louis Browns Fan Club, organized by Maryville College Professor Bill Borst in 1984, is alive and well. The members have even established a club hall of fame on the campus at Maryville (in St. Louis).

1—They were the 1st and 2nd franchise moves in A.L. history . . . The next one occurred 52 years later when the Browns came east to Baltimore.

2—The name came from the color of the stockings they wore.

3—The Seattle Mariners' won-lost percentage (.420, 860-1190) is lower, but they've played only 13 years.

4—The other 11: Jim Bottomley (1b-mgr), Jesse Burkett (of), Rick Ferrell (c), Goose Goslin (of), Rogers Hornsby (2b-mgr), Heinie Manush (of), Satchel Paige (rhp), Eddie Plank (lhp), Branch Rickey (c-mgr), Rube Waddell (lhp) and Bobby Wallace (ss-mgr).

5—Gray, now 75, still lives in his native Nanticoke, Pa.

6—Gaedel died prematurely in 1961 at the age of 36.

7—The Yankees & Giants played all of the '21 & '22 World Series at the Polo Grounds. Yankee Stadium opened in '23.

MEMORIAL STADIUM—A BRIEF HISTORY

Construction of Baltimore Memorial Stadium began on the site of old Municipal Stadium in 1949. A single deck concrete grandstand with no roof was completed in '50 with 20,000 chair seats[1], and home plate was moved from its original location (in what is now left field) to its present position. The stadium's external trappings were left unchanged. It was not yet a major league ballpark.

However, it was that facility which was officially dedicated and re-named "Memorial Stadium" when Mayor Tommy D'Alesandro Jr. ("Old Tommy") threw out the first ball for the International League Orioles '50 opener (Apr. 20).[2]

Soon after that dedication, plans to improve the stadium further, to satisfy major league requirements, were suspended when a second bond issue was defeated.

Finally in '53, bond loans were approved, and work began anew. Despite the construction, the I.L. Orioles continued to play there thru '53, as did the Baltimore Colts when they emigrated from Dallas (Texans) that same year.

Essentially the new stadium, seating capacity approximately 47,700, was completed in October '53, but refinements continued thru the spring of '54, the modern American League Orioles' first season in Baltimore. The cost of the project, built on 28¾ acres of city-owned property (and financed by 2 bond issues), was $6 million.

Original Municipal Stadium

The original Municipal Stadium, completed in '24, was built expressly for football. However, when old Oriole Park (NW corner of Greenmount Ave. & 29th St. intersection), owned by the Dunn family, burned down on the night and early morning of July 3–4, '44, Municipal Stadium became, of neccesity, the new home of the Orioles.

During a hastily scheduled 2-week road trip, the stadium was made ready for baseball. Later that year, the Orioles went on to win the International League pennant, then captured the Little World Series. One of those games, against the Louisville Colonels (American Association), drew an astonishing 52,833 which remained a Baltimore baseball attendance record until the '66 World Series.[3]

Changing Dimensions

Thru the years, the playing field has undergone significant dimensional changes. Inside the cavernous ballpark that greeted Orioles fans on opening day '54, home plate to dead center field measured 450′.[4]

Since then the outfield boundaries have been altered 4 times ('56, '59, '62 & '76), gradually reducing the distance to straightaway center 45′ to 405′, and the power alleys accordingly.[5]

Stadium Improvements

Originally the Orioles' dugout was on the first base side, and there was an 8′ wall separating the front row of the boxes from the field. Baltimore led the world in foul territory.

That situation was rectified in '61 with the construction of field box seats (2,600 of them), which necessitated building new dugouts. It was then that the home team moved to the 3rd base side. The bullpens, originally in the left and right field corners (in plain view), were moved behind the fences.

In '64, 4 additional upper deck sections were added, increasing the capacity by another 2,600. In '70 (mid-season), a new scoreboard (now known as the old scoreboard) was installed and the original, squirrel-infested structure demolished.

Subsequently, the splintery wooden benches (without backs) that covered the entire second deck were replaced by chairs and metal benches with back rests, and a 35th row was added.

In '80, 6 new towers, housing a new ticket window and additional ticket office space, storage areas and rest rooms, were completed.

In '85, new, badly needed Orioles administrative offices were constructed, and a large new state-of-the-art video board (Diamond Vision by Mitsubishi) was added in right-center field as a dramatic and colorful complement to its 15-year-old cousin in left center.

1—The original structure had nothing but bench-type seats.
2—The present facade and marquis over the main entrance were not erected until '53. A 2nd official dedication of the stadium to the Baltimore dead from the Korean War and World Wars I and II was held on Memorial Day '55 during a doubleheader vs. Boston.

3—The 6th game of the '44 World Series (Browns vs. Cardinals) played that same day drew only 31,630 . . . See "St. Louis Browns" below.
4—Left and right-center were 447′ from home plate . . . There was no "temporary" fence during the first 2 years, just the permanent walls plus a hedge (protected by a wire fence) that filled in the open end of the horseshoe.

In '55, O's centerfielder Chuck Diering immortalized himself by hauling in a Mickey Mantle blast with his back to the plate just before crashing into the hedge in deepest center field.
5—In '54 only 42 home runs were hit in 77 games at the stadium (a mere 19 by the O's), roughly one every 2 games . . . During the O's 1st 7 seasons here (thru '60), the Baltimore ballpark ranked last in the majors in home runs each year.

By 1988, the contraction of the outfield distances and greater emphasis on the long ball had resulted in a 5-fold increase in home run production at Memorial Stadium (235 in 82 games in '88).

*—Renovated Yankee Stadium opened in '76

The new downtown ballpark scheduled to open in April 1992.

NEW BALLPARK TO OPEN IN '92

Excavation for the new baseball-only downtown Baltimore ballpark began January 1990 on an 85 acre site known as Camden Yards, a few blocks west of the Inner Harbor. The 46,000 seat facility is targeted for completion in time for opening day 1992.

Designed by Hellmuth, Obata & Kasselbaum (HOK) of Kansas City with considerable input from the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), the new ballpark will be state-of-the-art in its functions yet unique, old fashioned and intimate in its architectural design, blending into the urban context of downtown Baltimore.

It will take its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century, featuring steel (not concrete) trusses, arched brick facades, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, and an assymetrical playing field. The cost of the facility is projected at $105.4 million.

LOCATION/ACCESS

The ballpark will be bounded by Russell (west), Camden (north), and Howard (east) streets, and by Martin Luther King Boulevard (south).

It will be easily accessible to I-95, I-395 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway which in turn lead directly to all major roadways in the Baltimore area.

Virtually all city bus lines provide service to Camden Yards which will also be the terminus for the planned new light rail system... Commuter trains to sand from Washington and Frederick operate from the MARC Station located on the site, and the Baltimore subway is only a few blocks from Camden Yards.

PARKING

Access to nearby parking will be far greater than it is currently around Memorial Stadium. On the new site there will be approximately 5,000 non bumper-to-bumper parking spaces, to the south of the ballpark. An additional 20,000 spaces will also be available in downtown public parking lots within easy walking distance.

PLAYING FIELD

As indicated above, the outfield dimensions will not be symmetrical...From home plate to the rightfield foul pole will be 319', while in left the distance along the line will be 334'...The field will be 18' below street level.

A 25' high wall extending 100' from the rightfield corner into right center will accommodate a scoreboard featuring game in progress information and, a throwback to the good old days, out-of-town scores permanently posted. In leftfield there will be a 7' wall with seats above... For the sake of comparison, the permanent walls at Memorial Stadium in both right and left field are 14' high while the temporary fences measure 7' from top to bottom.

The deepest part of the playing field, in left-center, will be 406' from home plate. In addition to the rightfield scoreboard mentioned above, a video board will be positioned high behind the centerfield stands.

Both bullpens will be located beyond the fences in left-centerfield, but raised 3' above field level so that fans can identify the pitchers as they warm up.

A sophisticated new state-of-the-art drainage system will be installed beneath the natural grass playing field, a feature that should prevent some rain outs, reduce the frequency and shorten the length of rain delays., and substantially improve the footing,in both the infield and outfield...The turf, incidentally, is already being custom grown on the Eastern Shore of Maryland according to Orioles' Groundskeeper Pat Santarone's specifications.

SEATING

The 46,000 seats with no obstructions will include some 2,500 modestly priced bleacher seats. An estimated 72 private box suites, and approximately 5,000 "club" seats will be offered to subscribers on a long term basis.

There will be three levels of seating: (1) Lower Deck; (2) Mezzanine, where club seats and private boxes with patios will be located, and (3) Upper Deck....Nearly 500 seats, on all levels and in all price categories, will be set aside for use by the handicapped.

A major effort has been made to minimize foul territory so that the stands will be as close to the field as possible.

The height of the upper deck will be low, relative to other stadiums, and the slope will be more gradual than at Memorial Stadium (31 degrees compared to 33 degrees on 33rd Street).

Leg room will be considerably more generous at Camden Yards than at Memorial Stadium...Tread width will be 32 to 33 inches throughout the ballpark. In the Orioles present home, that width is as narrow as 24 inches in the mezzanine, and 26 inches in many other areas.

Seats will be generally wider as well, from 19 to 21 inches, compared with 16 to 19 inches at Memorial Stadium.

Fans will move up and down thru the ballpark via ramps, escalators and stairs...Elevators will also be distributed around the facility for use by disabled fans...Restrooms will be vastly expanded and improved.

THE WAREHOUSE

The landmark B & O Railroad warehouse, 1016' long and 51' wide, will be preserved as will the historic Camden Station (beyond centerfield at Howard & Camden Sts.). The warehouse will provide office space for the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority, and much more...Special rooms for pre-game group entertainmment and a public cafeteria who want to eat dinner before the game are in the plans as well as an extension of the Babe Ruth Birthplace/Orioles Museum, just a few blocks away on Emory Street, and a home for the Maryland Sports Hall of Fame.

The warehouse, behind right field, runs roughly parallel to the 3rd baseline. It will be separated from the baseball facility by a 60' concourse, and will be within home run range of the most powerful hitters...A 432' blast down the rightfield line would hit the warehouse.

CONCESSIONAIRE

ARA-Martins, the concessionaire at Memorial Stadium for the past 7 years (including '90), will also operate the concessions at the new ballpark. The ARA people have been part of the design process since the very beginning of the project, and are planning larger, more modern stands, spread evenly thru the ballpark. These state- of- the- art facilities will enable them to offer quicker, and more efficient service as well as a vastly expanded food and beverage menu.

PROJECT BACKGROUND

In April '87 the Maryland State Legislature authorized the Maryland Stadium Authority, under the direction of Chairman Herbert J. Belgrad, to proceed with planning a major professional sports complex, comprising 2 separate stadiums on the Camden Yards site.

Construction of the baseball park was contingent upon the Orioles signing a long term lease. The football stadium would be built, within the 85 acre perimeter, only if the National Football League awards Baltimore a franchise to replace the departed Colts.

On May 2, 1988, the Orioles committed to that long term lease (15 years). In a dramatic pre-game announcement at Memorial Stadium that evening on "Fantastic Fans" Night, Maryland Governor William Donald Schaefer told a crowd in excess of 50,000 that the Orioles and the MSA had reached agreement that day that would bind the Orioles to Baltimore, at the very least, until 2006.

Among the fans there that night was a man who had made that agreement and the new ballpark possible. It would be the last time he would see his Orioles play...His name was Edward Bennett Williams.

The MSA began acquiring the property in the Camden Yards area soon after that, and in June '89 initiated the asbestos removal and demolition processes to clear the site for excavation and construction.

CAMDEN YARDS--A BRIEF HISTORY

The B & O Railroad, intent on reclaiming the trade that had made Baltimore the 2nd largest city in the country during the early 1820s, began in 1828 to build a rail line that would eventually extend to the Ohio Valley. It was a project they hoped would nullify the economic losses suffered by this area, as the result of competition from the Erie Canal which opened in 1825.

Progress was slow but steady...Steam locomotives replaced horses in 1832 and passenger service from Baltimore to Washington, out of Mt Clare Station now the site of the B&O Railroad Museum just a few blocks from Camden Yards, commenced in 1835.

Twenty five years later, in 1852, when the construction of Camden Station began, the B & O's Ohio Valley line had reached Wheeling, WV...The Camden depot was completed in 5 years and by that time freight facilities on the site just below Camden Street had also been opened...At the time of its dedication Camden Station was the largest of its kind in the world.

Since the B & O owned the only rail line to Washington, every U.S. president from 1857 to 1873 passed through Camden Station enroute to the Capital. In that period , trains arriving at other stations in Baltimore and bound for Washington had to be drawn by horse through the city to Camden Station (steam engines weren't allowed on the streets).

During the Civil War, Camden Yards reportedly served as as an "underground railway" station transporting freed slaves to the north. In 1863, President Abraham Lincoln passed thru en route to Gettysburg to dedicate the battlefield cemetery. Two years later his funeral train stopped at Camden Yards where his casket was transferred to City Hall to lay in state for 4 hours before continuing the journey that that would ultimately wind its way to Springfield, IL.

After the Civil War, the Camden section developed into a busy manufacturing area as well as a railroad center, and by the last decade of the 1890s business was booming. The Howard Street Tunnel which joined Mt Royal and Camden stations was finished in 1895 and in 1898. The Warehouse was built as part of a major expansion of the freight facilities.. The 8-story structure could handle 60 freight cars on one side, and 100 wagons on the other, all at the same time.

Camden Yards continued to prosper well into the 20th century, and the depot never looked better than in 1912 when the B&O spent one million dollars to spruce it up prior to the Democratic National Convention held in Baltimore that summer...It was during that convention that Woodrow Wilson was nominated on the 46th ballot.

After World War II, however, railroads gradually lost their supremacy with the rapid development of the airline industry and the construction of the interstate highway system. The baggage building adjacent to the Station closed in '71, the warehouse in '74 and by '80 Camden Station handled only commuter trains between Baltimore and Washington...These commuter trains, operated by MARC, continue to operate, and will be part of the transportation system serving the new ballpark.

Thus, for 125 years, Camden Yards has played a highly significant role in Baltimore's history and its economic, development, serving first and foremost as a rail center, then for a time as a manufacturing and industrial park, and soon as the hub of major league baseball in the region.

Ruth's Cafe

During the early 1900s (from 1906 to 1912) Babe Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence, located at Conway Street & Little Paca. It was one of at least 5 saloons owned or managed by the elder Ruth (George Herman Sr) at one time or other in this working class Camden area neighborhood. Nickel beer and 10 cent soup prepared by the Babe's mother at lunchtime were specialities of the house.

The significance of the house/saloon at 406 Conway Street is simply that it was located in what will soon be centerfield at the new downtown ballpark. Over the winter, a Frederick, MD archeological firm, Christopher Goodwin & Associates, with help from the Babe's 90 year old sister, Mary "Mamie" Ruth Moberly, located the remains of the house beneath the asphalt at the loading docks of the former B. Green Warehouse

It must be said that The Babe didn't spend a lot of time at the house...He lived much of that time at St Mary's Industrial School in West Baltimore where he was dispatched at the age of 7...It was at St Mary's that he was ultimately signed to his first pro contract by Jack Dunn Sr in 1914..He made his professional debut with the International League Orioles soon after, but in July of that year his contract was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

ORIOLES ENSHRINED AT COOPERSTOWN

Jim Palmer, the 7th modern Oriole to be selected to the Baseball Hall of Fame and the 3rd chosen in his 1st year of eligibility (Frank and Brooks Robinson were the others), gained 92.6% (411 of 444 votes cast) of the vote. He will become the 6th Oriole to be inducted in the last 9 years.

Joe Morgan (81.8%), the great National League second baseman who will accompany Jim into the Hall on Sunday, Aug 5th, was also a 1st year winner.

Jim's was the highest percentage ever received by an Oriole, and the second highest ever accorded a pitcher...Only the legendary Cleveland Indians righthander Bob Feller (93.75% in '62) ever earned a higher rate of acceptance from the BBWAA electorate.

Jim, Brooks and Frank (the only members wearing modern Orioles uniforms in their official busts/portraits) are 3 of only 21 among 204 Hall of Famers who have made it on the 1st ballot (see list below).

MODERN ORIOLES in BASEBALL HALL of FAME

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)	George Kell ('83, VCS*)
Franks Robinson ('82, 89%)	Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%)	Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)
Jim Palmer ('90, 93%)

*-Veterans Committee Selection

Fifteen others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the Orioles' early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage are also enshrined in the Hall:

"OLD" ORIOLES in HALL of FAME

Frank "Home Run" Baker (3b)	Hughie Jennings (ss)
Charles "Chief" Bender (rhp)	"Wee Willie" Keeler (of)
Roger Bresnahan (c)	Joe Kelley (of-if)
Dan Brouthers (1b)	Rube Marquard (lhp)
Wm. "Candy" Cummings (rhp)	Joe "Iron Man" McGinnity (rhp)
Robert M. "Lefty" Grove (lhp)	John McGraw (mgr, 3b)
Rogers Hornsby (2b)	Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
George Herman "Babe" Ruth (of)

FIRST YEAR ELECTEES (alphabetical): Hank Aaron, of ('82); Ernie Banks, ss-1b ('77); Johnny Bench, c ('89); Lou Brock, of ('85); Bob Feller, rhp ('62); Bob Gibson, rhp ('81); Al Kaline, of ('80); Sandy Koufax, lhp ('72); Mickey Mantle, of ('74); Willie Mays, of ('79); Willie McCovey, 1b ('86); Joe Morgan, 2b ('90); Stan Musial, of-1b ('69); Jim Palmer, rhp ('90); Brooks Robinson, 3b ('83); Frank Robinson, of ('82); Jackie Robinson, 2b-1b ('62); Warren Spahn, lhp ('73); Willie Stargell, 1b-of ('88); Ted Williams, of ('66), and Carl Yastrzemski, of-1b ('89).

Note: This will be the 4th time that two 1st time eligibles have been elected in the same year: '62-Feller & J. Robinson; '82-Aaron & F. Robinson; '89-Bench & Yastrzemski.

THREE MORE: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers to have represented the Orioles though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles general manager; Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox, coached one year under Birds' Manager Billy Hitchcock, and the late Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, scouted for the Orioles from '60 thru '71.

Notes: John McGraw had a .334 lifetime batting average in 16 big league seasons, but was elected to the Hall of Fame primarily because of his achievements as a manager...The same is true of his buddy, Wilbert Robinson. Rube Marquard pitched only 30 innings for the Orioles, all in '27.

Baltimore-born Babe Ruth signed his first pro contract with Jack Dunn Sr in '14, and made his debut with the Orioles (I.L.) that year as a pitcher...Chief Bender was based in Baltimore twice...He pitched both for the '27 Orioles (g-18, w-6, l-3) and the '15 Baltimore Terrapins (w-4, l-16) in the ill-fated Federal League.

Other native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame include "Home Run" Baker (Trappe), Grove (Lonaconing), and 3 others who never played for the Orioles: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill) and Al Kaline (Balmer).

BASEBALL HALL of FAME INFORMATION

HISTORY: The Baseball Hall of Fame was established officially in '36 with the election by the BBWAA of 5 players: Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson, Babe Ruth and Honus Wagner.

It wasn't until 3 years later, however, that the Hall had a home. The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, NY was dedicated June 12, '39 thru the generosity of Stephen C. Clark, Cooperstown resident and philanthropist who had amassed considerable wealth from his association with the Singer Sewing Machine Company.

The Clark Family continues to play a paramount role in the administration and improvement of the Museum (as well as of the entire Village of Cooperstown). A $7 million expansion and renovation program was completed in June '89 in celebration of the Museum's 50th anniversary.

MEMBERSHIP: There are 206 men enshrined, 159 of them because of their exploits as major league players (including Morgan and Palmer but not any additional players that may be selected this year by the Veterans Committee).

Broken down by position: 1B-16, 2B-11, 3B-7, SS-16, LF-17, CF-14, RF-20, C-11, P-47 (rhp-36, lhp-11).

There are also 10 managers, 6 umpires and 20 pioneers/executives as well as 11 players from the old Negro Leagues on the membership rolls...Among the 206 Hall of Famers, 55 are still living.

SELECTION PROCESS : Players with at least 10 years major league experience become eligible 5 years after retirement for election by members of the BBWAA...Voters are asked to choose up to 10 players from the list of eligibles...To be elected, a player must receive mention on 75% of the ballots cast..."Voting shall be based upon the player's record, playing ability, integrity, sportsmanship, character and contribution to the team(s) on which he played, and not on what he may have done otherwise in baseball."

A special committee on baseball veterans, comprising 20 men with an ex-tensive background in major league baseball (players, managers, baseball officials, baseball writers and broadcasters), is empowered to elect deserving candidates from among the following groups...As in the regular election, 75% is required:

(1) Players with 10 or more years experience who have been retired as players for at least 23 years.

(2) Baseball executives, managers and umpires who have been retired from organized baseball in those capacities for at least 5 years (period reduced to 6 months if candidate is 65 or over).

(3) Players from the Negro Leagues whose service, prior to 1946, totaled at least 10 years, or whose combined pre-1946 Negro League and post-1946 major league service aggregates to 10 or more years.

For a complete list of the conditions in effect for Hall of Fame voting, see "Rules for Election" on page 21 of the Hall of Fame's 1989 Yearbook.

THE O'S & THE HALL OF FAME GAME: Upon Jim Palmer's retirement 5 years ago, then General Manager Hank Peters wrote to the Hall of Fame requesting the Orioles be chosen to represent the A.L. in the annual Doubleday Field exhibition game between A.L. & N.L. teams on "Hall of Fame" Weekend. It was a gesture of confidence that Palmer would be elected in his 1st year of eligiblity. Peters had done the same thing on behalf of Brooks Robinson in '78. Both requests were granted and both prophesies came true.

Overall, this will be the 4th time the O's have played in the game: '61-lost to Dodgers; '67-defeated the Reds; '83-lost to the Cardinals...'90-vs the Expos on Mon, Aug 6, the day after Palmer's induction.

MUSEUM PHONE/HOURS/OFFICIALS: Museum phone number 607-547-9988...Daily hours: 9-5, 7 days a week....Officials: Ed Stack, chairman & president (NYC 212-269-1833); Howard Talbot, museum director; Bill Guilfoile, associate director/public relations; Tom Heitz, librarian, and Bill Spencer, curator.

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

Former manager Hank Bauer, a 2-time "Manager of the Year" while with the Orioles in the sixties, and lefthander Scott McGregor, the club's 5th biggest winner who retired in '88, are the newest additions to the Orioles Hall of Fame...Total membership is now at 21.

Bauer, 67, managed the Orioles for 4 1/2 years ('64 to mid-'68) and led them to their 1st pennant and world championship in '66 after nearly winning the American League championship 2 years earlier, in '64, ...He was a Manager of the Year selection in each of those seasons, and won 97-94-97 games in his 1st 3 seasons as the O's skipper.

Now retired and living in Overland Park, KS, he becomes the 3rd manager to be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame, joining Earl Weaver and the late Paul Richards in that distinction.

The former U.S. Marine sergeant and World War II combat veteran, whose "tough" outward appearance belies his warmth and good nature, appeared in 9 World Series as a Yankees outfielder. He still holds the WS record for hitting safely in 17 consecutive games.

In 14 A.L. seasons he batted .277...In addition to the Orioles, he managed both the Kansas City A's in '61 & '62, and the Oakland A's ('69).

McGregor won 138 games for the O's, just one less than #4 Mike Flanagan in nearly 12 full seasons. He won 20 games in '80; pitched a shutout in the decisive 4th game of the '79 ALCS against California to clinch the pennant, and pitched another shutout, against the Phillies in game #5 of the '83 World Series, that brought a world championship to Baltimore.

A native Californian who, like Bauer, started his career in the Yankees organization, McGregor came to Baltimore in June '76 in a major trade that also brought Tippy Martinez and Rick Dempsey to the Orioles. Despite his Yankee connection, he pitched only for the Orioles at the big league level, and he's never left Baltimore. He and his family live in Towson where he serves as pastor to youth groups at the Rock Church.

He started 6 post-season games for the Orioles, and his combined era in those 6 outings was 1.63 (ip-49.2, er-9)...His 23 shutouts are 5th on the O's list, as are his 83 complete games...He also ranks in strikeouts (904, 7th), games (356, 5th), and innings (2,141.1, 4th)...See list of O's lifetime leaders on page 20.

Scott, one of the best control pitchers in the game, walked an average of just over 2 batters per nine innings during his career, and once put together a string of 46 consecutive innings without issuing a base on balls.

The new Orioles Hall of Famers were chosen in separate elections... McGregor by a constituency that includes some 80 men and women from the Oriole Advocates, the local sports media and the Orioles front office, and Bauer by a special veterans committee of 16 senior representatives from those 3 groups.

The election procedures in both instances are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. Candidates, to be eligible for either selection process, must have served a minimum of 3 full years with the Orioles.

To be eligible for the regular election a player, manager or coach must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least one year. The Veterans Committee examines the credentials of candidates who have been removed from that assignment for a minimum of 20 years...It was formed last year in an effort to offset any injustices inflicted on those who might have been passed over unfairly by voters not familiar with their achievements. In the 1st veterans election ('88), Stu Miller and Jim Gentile were elected.

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in '77 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former past presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have passed away recently...The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections, this year under the direction of Hall of Fame Committee chairman Ray Weinstein.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July, 1960, the Advocates will celebrate their 30th anniversary this summer.

Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and, in 1977, established the Orioles Hall of Fame. (See page 107).

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles' Public Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular "Junior Orioles" program (low cost tickets for kids) back in 1963, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in 1977.

The "Junior Orioles" Program in recent years has evolved into the "Baltimore Sun Fantastic Fans Club" (see page 13), but the Advocates continue to play a dominant role in its operation.

The Advocates also serve as distributors of Orioles souvenirs on "give-away" days at the ballpark, assuring that all eligible fans get the items to which they are entitled.

The Orioles Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are all volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to do.

ORIOLES "DESIGNATED HITTERS"

The Orioles "Designated Hitters" are a group of volunteers, businessmen and women from the Baltimore-Washington areas, who sell Orioles season tickets on the club's behalf. This year marks the 11th year for the highly successful DHs.

The organization was created in 1980, and in its first five years of operation, the Orioles season ticket sale ballooned by over 700%, from 1,623 to a record 11,738 in 1984. That mark was already broken this season in January (the season ticket-selling campaign continues thru opening day).

To qualify for membership in the "Designated Hitters," candidates must meet demanding sales minimums according to a formula based on a blend of new sales and renewals, and everyone must requalify each year.

In '89, the leading sales person was Mike Pintzuk.

There are no salaries or commissions given to "DHs," but there are plenty of perks. This year those whose early sales were particularly brisk were treated to a winter getaway to Cancun, Mexico.

All qualifiers are eligible for the annual spring junket to South Florida while the Orioles are training in Miami. Then, during the season, leading "DHs" will qualify for baseball trips to Cooperstown, Boston, Chicago and Toronto.

Patterned after the Kansas City Royals' highly successful "Royal Lancers," the "Designated Hitters" organization was actually founded in September 1979 by then Baltimore City Mayor William Donald Schaefer and a select group of Baltimoreans working closely with the Orioles front office.

The concept was to attract talented people from the business community to serve as the ballclub's principal season ticket sales representatives. The results have been dramatic.

Along with former Mayor (now Governor) Schaefer, the "founding fathers" of the "Designated Hitters" included: Owen Daly, Bill Beasman and Chris Hartman; the Orioles' Vice President for Business Affairs Bob Aylward; Executive Director of Sales and Tickets Lou Michaelson, and former club Vice President Al Harazin, now senior vice president for the New York Mets.

The "DHs" have their own officers and board of directors, as well as an active social program. The "DH" Board: Mike Duvall, President; Jake Jacobson, Leslie Bowyer, Natalia Leimkuhler, Lou Hurwitz, Bill Michael, Dev Slingluff, Sally McGraw, and Jennifer Sclafini.

The Orioles season ticket sales figures for the past 9 years: '79—1,623 . . . '80—4,018 . . . '81—5,215 . . . '82—5,430 . . . '83—6,061 . . . '84—11,738 . . . '85—11,707 . . . '86—11,145 . . . '87—10,512 . . . '88—10,082 . . . '89—10,849.

COMING FROM BEHIND

The biggest deficit the O's have ever overcome to win a ballgame is 8 runs . . . They trailed the Carmines at Boston on Sep. 2, '56 by 0-8 after 2½ innings, but came back to win 11-10 with a 3-run rally in the top of the 9th. The winner was Billy Loes and the gwrbi was produced by the late Bob Nieman.

The biggest lead they've blown (and lost the game) is also 8, the same year. They led the Indians 9-1 after 3½ at Cleveland on June 27, '56, but lost 12-11 in 11 innings. Hal Brown took the loss.

The major league record for coming from behind is 12, on June 11, '11 by the Tigers who spotted the White Sox a 13-1 lead before storming back to win 16-15.

In '89, the Red Sox and Pirates blew 10-0 leads. Boston lost 13-11 in 12 innings, June 4 vs. Toronto and Pittsburgh fell 15-11 at Philadelphia, June 8. In that game, the Pirates scored 10 runs in the top of the 1st inning.

The Cubs spotted Houston a 9-0 lead, Aug 29 at Chicago, then roared back to win 10-9.

Full Season Sponsors: Budweiser, C & P Yellow Pages, Baltimore Area Ford Dealers, Middle Atlantic Milk Marketing Association, McDonalds, Giant Foods.

WBAL RADIO: Although this is the 3rd consecutive year under the station's current contract with the Orioles, for WBAL Radio this will be the 25th time it has carried the Birds' games in the club's 37 American League seasons . . . WBAL was also the O's flagship from '57 thru '78.

Baseball fans throughout much of Birdland and beyond will again be able to pick up Orioles games on two powerful 50,000 watt AM stations—WBAL Baltimore and WTOP (1500) in Washington. . . The rest of the approximately 33-station Orioles network will fill in the gaps that those 2 giants don't reach.

Full Season Sponsors: Amoco Oil Company, Santoni's Markets, Charley Rudo Sports, Middle Atlantic Milk Marketing Association, Sears Brand Central, Loyola Federal Savings, Baltimore Area Honda Dealers, Miller Beer and Baltimore Jeep Eagle Dealers.

HOME TEAM SPORTS is available to cable systems in the six-state "Capital Region" (All of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and D.C.; and parts of North Carolina, West Virginia and Pennsylvania).

HTS, owned and operated by Group W Satellite Communications (GWSC), will televise 90 Orioles' games this year including five spring training games (Mar. 12, 15, 19, 29, 30), 66 home games and 19 on the road.

Home Team Sports also televises Caps Hockey and Bullets Basketball, plus many more major professional, collegiate and high school events of both national and regional interest.

Full Season Sponsors: Subaru, Giant Food, Maryland State Lottery, All-Star Automotive, Hardee's, Miller Beer, Rosecroft Raceway, Safeway, Texaco, The Washington Post.

ANNOUNCERS

JOE ANGEL

A native of Colombia, South America, Joe Angel begins his 11th year of broadcasting major league baseball, his 3nd with the Orioles. The 42-year-old Angel has over 21 years of broadcasting experience, eight years of calling major league baseball on radio including three seasons ('76–'78) for the San Francisco Giants on station KSFO and three years ('84–'86) for the Minnesota Twins on WCOO radio. He also handled television play-by-play for the Oakland A's for two seasons ('80–'81) on KPIX-TV.

Joe worked 14 years in both radio and television in the San Francisco area, including five years of Stanford University football, and four years of University of San Francisco basketball in addition to his work with the Giants and A's. He has also served as a television sports anchor, a radio talk show host and has filled in occasionally on San Francisco 49ers radio broadcasts.

Joe, who quarterbacked on the same high school football team with O.J. Simpson (a team which at one point lost 21 straight games), was born in Bogota, Colombia in '47. His family immigrated to Chicago ten years later and after five years, moved to the Bay Area. It was there at Galileo High School in San Francisco that he played football with Simpson. Joe later attended City College of San Francisco.

Joe and his wife, Antoinette, reside in Rancho Murieta, CA (near Sacramento, CA) with their three children: Tony (22), Natalie (14) and Jonathan (12).

REX BARNEY

Rex returns for his 7th season with Home Team Sports. Known as the "Voice of Memorial Stadium" since '70, he will continue to handle the stadium's public address announcing.

Rex, who also served as the press box announcer for the Baltimore Colts from '69 to '83, has hosted a variety of radio sports shows in Baltimore. He presently has a daily report on WBAL-AM, and will host that station's sports talk show through the baseball season.

A former major league pitcher, Rex played with the Brooklyn Dodgers for six seasons ('43, '46–'50) and last June was inducted into the Brooklyn Dodgers' Hall of Fame. He appeared briefly with the Dodgers in '43 before being called into the service for three years of military duty. He returned to the Dodgers in '46 and compiled a career record of 35-31. His best season came in '48, when he won 15 games, including a 2-0 no-hit victory over the New York Giants.

Rex began his broadcasting career in '52 in New York City, doing Mutual Radio's Game of the Day from '55 to '57 and games in the New York area for WOR-TV.

In '82 and '83, he served as color commentator for 16 Orioles' telecasts on subscription television. A native of Omaha, Nebraska, Rex resides just a half-mile from Memorial Stadium.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis hosts the Orioles pre- and post-game shows, provides in-game updates of scores and The Orioles Report on HTS. He has handled these duties since '84, HTS' first season on the air.

The 42-year-old Davis is in his 19th season as a sportscaster in Baltimore and is a 4-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award ('78, '84, '85 and '89).

Tom's assignments for HTS have included play-by-play for the O's and college basketball, doing pre-game coverage for hockey, covering boxing and Redskins football and hosting cable talk shows.

Tom gained national exposure doing NFL radio play-by-play and sideline reporting for NBC radio and television, ABC-TV and the Mutual Broadcasting System.

Currently, Tom can be heard in the mornings with his sportcasts on WQSR-FM. A veteran of the Baltimore sports scene, Tom began his professional career with WBAL radio in '71. He has also worked for WJZ-TV, WBAL-TV and WCBM radio.

Tom is a Calvert Hall and University of Baltimore graduate. He lives with his wife, Linda, and children Malinda and Tad in Baltimore County.

JOHN LOWENSTEIN

Former Oriole John Lowenstein returns for his 6th season as color commentator for Home Team Sports. He played his last game for the Orioles on May 4, '85 and later that month began his sportscasting career calling the Orioles games on HTS. His insight and humor are key elements of the telecasts.

John's major league career began in '70 with the Cleveland Indians. He remained with Cleveland until '78 when he was traded to the Texas Rangers. After one year at Texas, John's contract was sold to Baltimore where he spent seven seasons with the Orioles.

John compiled a .253 (3476-881) lifetime batting average in 1,368 big league games. His best season came in '82, when he batted .320 (322-103) with 24 home runs and 66 rbi in 122 games for the O's while platooning with Gary Roenicke. The duo combined to produce a .292 average (612-179) with 35 home runs and 131 rbi.

John (born 1/27/47 at Wolf Point, MT) and his wife, Barbara, reside in Las Vegas, NV.

JON MILLER

One of baseball's best announcers, Jon will lend his talents to ESPN on a weekly basis in '90. His current arrangement will force him to miss approximately 25 Orioles games.

However, O's fans have been sharing Jon with the country for 5 years now, the past 4 when he called the action for NBC-TV's Saturday afternoon coverage of major league baseball.

Jon is now in his 8th season on the Orioles' radio network. His major league baseball experience includes three years as radio play-by-play announcer for the Boston Red Sox ('80–'82) and radio and television with the Texas Rangers in '78 and '79 and with the Oakland A's in '74. He broadcast his first major league game at age 22 with the A's.

Jon has an extensive background in basketball, soccer and hockey during his 18 years in broadcasting. He did 10–15 games a season for the NBA's Golden State Warriors from 1979–82 and prior to that, was the voice of University of San Francisco basketball for 5 years. He has also announced MISL games for the San Jose Earthquakes and did both television and radio for the Washington Diplomats of the North American Soccer League in '77. He's broadcast soccer for the CBS, TVS and Satelcast networks.

A renowned mimic, Jon can be heard to imitate such outstanding baseball announcers as Al Michaels, Vin Scully and Chuck Thompson during breaks in the action (rain delays, etc.). Popular on the banquet circuit in the off-season, Jon attended numerous such functions across the country last winter and was a part of the Orioles Winter caravan.

In '86, he was named "Baltimore's Best Radio Sportscaster" by Baltimore Magazine and "Best Play-by-Play Broadcaster" by Washingtonian Magazine.

A native of the San Francisco Bay area, Jon now lives in Cockeysville, MD with his wife, Janine, and their children Michelle, Holly, Emilie and Alexander.

JIM PALMER

Broadcasting: Beginning his 2nd season calling play-by-play over the Orioles Television Network, Jim reached the pinnacle of his playing career when he was named to Baseball's Hall of Fame on the 1st ballot in January . . . see page 104.

Jim spent 13 seasons doing baseball color for ABC-TV and occasionally did play-by-play for Home Team Sports Orioles broadcasts.

He's not a stranger to his broadcast partner, Brooks Robinson, either . . . They played together for the better part of 13 years ('65–'77); both their numbers have been retired by the Orioles; both played their entire careers with the same club and both were, of course, elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in their 1st year of eligibility.

The Orioles and Detroit Tigers (George Kell and Al Kaline) have baseball's only Hall of Fame announcing crews.

Pitching Distinctions: Unquestionably, the finest pitcher in the Orioles' 36-year history, Jim holds many club records including: most wins (268), losses (152), games (558), innings (3947.2), shutouts (53), complete games (211), strikeouts (2212) and walks (1311).

He won 20 games 8 times, earned 3 Cy Young Awards, started and won the pennant-clinching game 4 times ('66, '69, '70, '71), and was 8-3 in post-season play while pitching for the O's over a span of 20 years ('65 thru '84).

During his entire career, he never gave up a grand slam home run in regular or postseason play. (little known fact: Johnny Bench hit one off him in the International League during Jim's brief stint with Rochester in '68).

Last Hurrah: Made his final start, at Chicago, Apr 23, '84, but did not get a decision. Pitched in his last game as an Oriole, in relief, at Memorial Stadium on May 12, '84 against Oakland, but again was not a pitcher of record . . . His final career victory was in game #3 of the '83 World Series at Philadelphia (see post-season below). Earned his 268th and last regular season win on Sep 30, '83, a 3-2 win over the Yankees at Baltimore in the 2nd game of a doubleheader.

Lifetime Victories/20-Win Seasons: Jim ranks 27th on the all-time list in victories . . . he is one of only 3 pitchers in the 88-year history of the A.L. to have won 20 or more games in 8 or more seasons along with Lefty Grove (8, last time in '35) and Walter Johnson (12, last time in '25). The last major leaguer to do it was Warren Spahn (13 times, the last in '63).

Only 6 who have worked exclusively in the 20th century have won 20 or more 8 times, and in the entire history of the major leagues, Jim is one of only 16. He put that string together over a 9-year period from '70 thru '78 (was 7-12 in '74). He was 176-97 with a 2.54 era during that 9-season stretch.

Earned Run Average: His 2.8568 era is 4th on the all-time list (since era became an official statistic, '12 in NL and '13 in AL) among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings, behind: (1) Walter Johnson—2.37; (2) Grover C. Alexander—2.56; and (3) Whitey Ford—2.74. He ranks just ahead of #5 Tom Seaver (2.8626) . . . He twice led the league ('73 & '75), and was in the loop's "top 5" 10 times.

Pennant Clinchers: He went the route to win the games that clinched the O's 1st 4 pennants ('66, '69, '70, '71) . . . Since then, Scott McGregor ('79) and Tippy Martinez ('83) have added their names to the list.

Postseason: His overall record in 17 post-season appearances, including 15 starts, was 8-3 with a 2.61 era (ip-124.1, er-36).

In '66, he became the youngest ever to pitch a World Series shutout when, at the age of 20 years-11 months-21 days, he blanked the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax, 6-0, on 4 hits (LA made 6 errors) in game #2 at Dodger Stadium . . . That was Koufax' final major league appearance.

In '83 Jim became the 1st (he remains the only) pitcher in history to have won a World Series game in each of 3 decades . . . In that game (#3 at Philadelphia), he bested Steve Carlton after hurling 2 scoreless innings in relief of Mike Flanagan.

He shares with 5 others the major league record for most league championship series victories (4), and holds the record for most LCS complete games (5) by himself . . . He and Nolan Ryan are tied for most career LCS strikeouts (46), while he and former teammate Mike Cuellar have walked the most in ALCS competition (19).

Cy Youngs: Jim is one of only 4 to have won as many as 3 Cy Youngs ('73, '75, '76) . . . Steve Carlton won 4 and both Seaver and Koufax earned 3 . . . The award has been presented since '56, with individual league awards beginning in '67 . . . Jim, Koufax, Denny McLain and Roger Clemens are the only ones to have earned the award in consecutive seasons.

Personal: Jim has been an activist on behalf of the Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation for nearly 2 decades, serving much of that time as its national sports chairman . . . He has been the sports representative for Jockey Underwear since the spring of '80 . . . In '83, he was the sports recipient of the American Image Award, sponsored by the Male Apparel Industry and the Men's Fashion Association of America.

MEL PROCTOR

Mel is in his 18th year as a broadcaster, 7th as the Orioles' play-by-play announcer for Home Team Sports. Mel, who handles a variety of on-air assignments for HTS including play-by-play for Washington Bullets basketball telecasts and boxing, is one of the busiest broadcasters in the business.

In addition to his work with HTS, during his career, Mel could be heard calling NFL games for NBC television and radio, college football and pro and college basketball for Turner Broadcasting. He also does selected Bullets games for Channel 20 in Washington, D.C. (those not televised by HTS).

In '86, Mel took a short break from Orioles baseball to handle play-by-play of TBS's coverage of the United States men's basketball team in the Goodwill Games in Spain. He will again be part of the broadcast crew doing the Goodwill Games from Seattle in '90.

He began his career as sports director at the CBS-TV affiliate in Hawaii (KGMB) from '73 until '78. While there, he worked the microphone for Hawaii Islanders (AAA) baseball, University of Hawaii football and basketball, and did one season for the Hawaiians of the World Football League.

He came to work in the Nation's Capital for the first time in '78 when he began a five-year stint as play-by-play announcer for Washington Bullets basketball on flagship station, WTOP-AM. During the Bullets' off-seasons, Mel worked in Arlington, Texas as the TV and radio voice of the Texas Rangers. In '82 and '83, he supplemented his work with the Bullets by doing college basketball games for NBC-TV for two seasons.

For two seasons ('83–'84 and '84–'85), Mel served as the play-by-play man for the NBA's New Jersey Nets. At that time, he also began providing the commentary for the NFL "Game of the Week" for the Mutual Broadcasting System.

A native of Denver, CO, Mel resides in Columbia, MD with his wife, Julie, and their children, Bill and Maile.

BROOKS CALBERT ROBINSON JR.

HALL OF FAME: See page 104–106.

PERSONAL: Brooks is doing color commentary on the Orioles' television for the 13th straight year. He is also active as vice-president of Shapiro, Robinson and Associates and as a special assistant with Crown Central Petroleum Company.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks was born 5/18/37.

Brooks and his wife, Connie, a former United Airlines flight attendant whom Brooks met on a Orioles' charter flight (K.C. to Boston) in '59, have been married for 29 years. They live in Lutherville, MD (north of Baltimore). The Robinsons have four children: Brooks David (7/24/61), Chris (2/22/63), Michael (3/11/64) and Dianna (2/22/68).

Brooks' uniform #5 was officially retired on opening day, '78, the year after he retired. Frank Robinson's #20, Earl Weaver's #4, Jim Palmer's #22 and Eddie Murray's #33 are the only other numbers that have been retired by the Orioles.

BIG LEAGUE CAREER: Brooks officially spent 20 years and 72 days as a player in the American League, spanning 23 seasons.

He played in 2,896 major league games, all of them with the Orioles, 8th on the all-time list (Pete Rose leads at 3,562).

Only Carl Yastrzemski (3,308) and Ty Cobb (3,033) have played more American League games, and only 3 others in history have played more with one franchise: Yastrzemski (3,308), Hank Aaron (3,076) and Stan Musial (3,026).

Durability: Played in 97% of all Orioles games from July 9, '59 (when he returned from the minors for the last time) thru May 16, '76, a period of more than 16½ years . . . Played at least 153 games in 14 of 15 years from '60 thru '75).

In the Orioles' 36-year history, only three other third basemen have played as many as 200 games at third base (Doug DeCinces-792, Rich Dauer-242, Floyd Rayford-203).

Opening Days: Started 20 consecutive opening day games for the Orioles from '57 thru '76 and batted .316 (79-25) with 6 home runs and 17 rbi.

Home Runs/RBI: Led AL in rbi (118) in '64 and also achieved career high of 28 home runs that year . . . Hit 17 or more homers nine times, 11 or more 11 times . . . His last year in double figures was '71 when he hit 20 . . . Holds the record for most lifetime homers in Memorial Stadium (139) . . . Had 6 career grand slams, 4 of them in Baltimore.

Hitting: Hit most home runs (37) and drove in most runs (167) against the Red Sox . . . Twice put together strings of 8 straight hits: July 10 thru 15, '60 and Aug. 21 thru 23, '63 . . . Holds AL record for most sacrifice flies, career (114).

Holds club records for games, at bats, runs, hits, doubles, triples, total bases, rbi and extra base hits . . . Has one-season mark for games (163, '61 & '64) and at bats (668, '61).

Fielding: Committed only 263 errors in 9,165 chances at 3rd base for a lifetime fielding percentage of .971 . . . Appeared in a total of 29 games at 2nd base (24) and shortstop (5) and committed only one boot in 31 tries . . . Did not play anywhere defensively but at 3rd base after '63.

All Star Games: Played in 18 consecutive all-star games from '60 thru '74 (including two per year in '60, '61, '62) . . . Had lifetime average of .289 (13-for-45).

Selected "MVP" in 1966 at St. Louis when he had three hits, including a home run, while handling eight chances in the field . . . Also homered in '67 game at Anaheim . . . Was also a serious contender for the award in '64 (at Shea Stadium) and '70 (at Cincinnati), when he went 2-for-3, hit a triple, scored a run, and drove in two others.

Hit three triples in all-star play and didn't make an error in 43 fielding chances.

Was elected to starting lineup in Gillette-sponsored fan vote four times ('71, '72, '73, '74) after selection was returned to fans in '70 . . . Led AL players in votes in '71 (1,110,469) . . . Started a total of 11 games . . . Had last hit in '71 game at Detroit.

Postseason: Played first 39 postseason games in which the Orioles were involved, and batted a composite .303 (44-for-145)—.348 in 18 ALCS games and .263 in 21 WS games.

WS: Homered in first WS at bat in first inning against Dodgers (at Dodger Stadium) in '66 immediately following Frank Robinson's two-run homer (both off Don Drysdale).

Was landslide "MVP" in '70 vs. Reds . . . Hit .429 (9-for-21) and was brilliant on defense . . . His nine hits tied record for most hits in five-game series . . . He also contributed six rbi, two doubles, and two homers . . . Erred on first fielding chance then handled 23 more flawlessly, many of them brilliantly . . . Stole at least two hits each from Johnny Bench and Lee May . . . It was during the series that Lee gave him the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) . . . Made three errors in '76 WS chances.

ALCS: Had .486 average (18-for-37) after first three championship series (O's swept all in three straight games) . . . His lone hit in last CS in '74 was a first game homer off Oakland's "Catfish" Hunter.

Major League Lifetime Records, 3B: Highest fielding percentage, 100 or more games (.971) . . . Most seasons (23) . . . Most games (2,687) . . . Most chances accepted, excluding errors (8,902) . . . Most putouts (2,697) . . . Most assists (6,205) . . . Most double plays (618) . . . Most seasons leading league in games (8) . . . Most seasons leading league in assists (8).

American League Lifetime Records: Most seasons leading league in fielding (11) . . . Most seasons leading league in chances accepted, excluding errors (8 tie) . . . Most games season (163, '61 & '64).

Nothing is Forever: His 268th and last home run provided one of the most emotional experiences in Orioles' history. It was Apr 19, '77 at Memorial Stadium, the O's trailed the Indians, 5-2, in the 10th. With one out and runners on 1st and 2nd, Lee May singled in a run. The O's now trailed by 2 as Brooks came to the plate as a pinch-hitter for Larry Harlow. He ran the count to "3 & 2", fouled off a number of pitches, then hit a home run into the left field stands off reliever Dave LaRoche to win the game, 6-5. There were only 4,826 fans at the ballpark that night, but none of them will ever forget the moment.

Signed for '77 as player-coach, but became coach exclusively on Sunday, Aug 21, when he went on the voluntarily retired list (in Minnesota) to make room on the roster for catcher Rick Dempsey who was returning to duty after 6 weeks on the disabled list.

An Orioles' record regular season crowd of 51,798 attended "Thanks Brooks" Day on Sunday, Sep 18, '77, against the Red Sox to pay tribute to the most important and beloved Oriole of modern times.

ORIOLES TRAINERS

Richie Bancells (34, Nov 11, '55) is starting his 3rd season as the O's head trainer, his 7th year with the big club and his 14th with the Orioles' organization. Immediately before coming to Baltimore, Richie spent 4 years ('80–'83) in Rochester as the Red Wings' head trainer and traveling secretary. . . . During that time he also assisted his predecessor, the late Ralph Salvon, every spring at the Orioles' Miami training camp.

A Key West native, Richie is a graduate of Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University), and earned an M.S. in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University (Richmond, KY) . . . He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

He initially joined the Baltimore organization as assistant trainer with the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League) in '77, then served as head trainer for the Bluefield, WV Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) the next 2 years ('78–'79) before moving on to Rochester in '80.

He and his wife, Carol, have 2 children: Christopher (7/8/80) and Andrea (8/18/85). Carol is also a graduate of Biscayne College, where she received a degree in theology and education.

Jamie Reed (30, June 15, '59), is beginning his 2nd full year as the Orioles' assistant trainer, but this will be his 9th season in the organization. He joined up, as head trainer for the Bluefield, WV Orioles (Rookie Appalachian League) in '82, right after taking a degree in sports medicine at East Carolina University (Greenville, NC).

Jamie moved up the ladder quickly, first to Hagerstown (Carolina League) in '83, then to Charlotte (Southern League) in '84 . . . The following year ('85) he became head trainer/traveling secretary for the Red Wings in Rochester and remained there thru 1988. He came up to the Orioles to assist Richie Bancells in Sep, '88 following the Little World Series (Triple Alliance Classic), which the Red Wings lost in 6 games to the Indianapolis Indians (American Association).

Jamie, who is certified by NATA, has been trainer to the Navy basketball team in past off-seasons . . . He's also worked as a trainer in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Though born in Baltimore, Jamie grew up in Annapolis. He was a '77 graduate of St. Mary's High School where he played varsity football and lacrosse.

He and his wife Jean, an Annapolis native who is also a graduate of St. Mary's High and East Carolina University, have 3 children: Zachary (11/10/83), Rebecca (4/16/86) and Rachel (11/29/88) . . . The Reeds now live in Baltimore.

ORIOLES' STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Allan (Al) Johnson (34, Dec 16, '55) joined the Orioles from West Virginia University where he administered the strength and conditioning programs for all 19 sports in which the Mountaineers compete. He is one of only 7 full-time strength & conditioning coaches in major league baseball (along with the White Sox, A's, Phillies, Pirates, Yankees and Mets).

Born the youngest of 11 children (8 brothers, 2 sisters) in Parkersburg, WV, Al was all-state in the discus and as a football offensive guard and center at Parkersburg High School . . . He was all-conference in both sports during 3 years at West Virginia Tech (Charleston) before transferring to Glenville State College, where he graduated in '79.

After 2 years as head football and assistant track and baseball coach at Federal Hocking High School in Stewart, OH (just over the WV border), he went to West Virginia University as a graduate assistant, and a year later was named head strength/conditioning coach.

During his 7 years in Morgantown, the 19 sports in which he was involved won 78% of all their contests . . . At West Virginia, Al was instrumental in completing the computerization of athletic fitness assessments on all 343 intercollegiate athletes on the campus, and in the construction of a new 7,000-square foot conditioning center. As his last official act at WVU, he accompanied the football team to the Fiesta Bowl where the Mountaineers lost to Notre Dame for the national championship.

Al has implemented a year-round strength and conditioning program for all players in the O's organization. In addition, he conducts clinics, seminars and conventions across the country. In '87, he was named the National Strength Coaches Association's Eastern Regional National Strength Coach of the Year. He and his wife, Jan, have one son: Adam (4/16/87).

FRANK ROBINSON 20

Born: Aug. 31, 1935
Batted, R; Threw, R
Position: Outfield

Birthplace/Residence: Born in Beaumont, TX, but grew up in Oakland, CA . . . Now lives in Bel Air, CA (near Los Angeles) and Baltimore.

Tenure: Beginning his 38th year in professional baseball including 21 years as a player and the equivalent of 8 full seasons as a major league manager . . . This will be his 15th season with the Orioles, for whom he has been player, coach, manager and front office official.

Signed Originally with: Cincinnati.

HALL OF FAME: He was elected to the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in '82 along with Hank Aaron after being named on 89% of the ballots cast (370 of 415). . . That was the 1st of 4 straight years in which at least one Oriole was elected.

He is one of only 21 to have been named to the Hall in his 1st year of eligibility (that list includes Brooks Robinson and Jim Palmer).

Frank was the 2nd of 7 former modern Orioles players to be so honored (date of election in paren): Robin Roberts ('76), Brooks Robinson ('83), George Kell ('83), Luis Aparicio ('84), Hoyt Wilhelm ('85) and Jim Palmer ('90). . .See page 105 for more details. . .Among them, he and Brooks are the only 2 wearing Orioles uniforms in their official Hall of Fame portraits, but Palmer will join them when he is inducted in August.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS

No.	Player	Year	No.	Player	Year
20	Frank Robinson (of)	1972	4	Earl Weaver (mgr)	1982
5	Brooks Robinson (3b)	1977	22	Jim Palmer (rhp)	1985
33	Eddie Murray (1b)	1989

MANAGING/COACHING

Frank has managed the Cleveland Indians ('75–'77), Rochester Red Wings ('78), San Francisco Giants ('81–'84) and Orioles ('88–), as well as the Santurce Crabbers in the Puerto Rican League for 7 winters and the Culiacan Club in the Mexican Pacific Winter League ('77–'78).

MANAGER OF THE YEAR: After directing his team to a 32½-game improvement over '88 and matching the '36 Boston Braves for the 3rd biggest one year improvement in modern history, Frank enjoyed a rare distinction. He won all 4 of the major American League "Manager of the Year" awards—BBWAA, The Sporting News, Associated Press and United Press International. . .He was the 5th Orioles skipper to have won at least one of the above, but the 1st to capture the BBWAA trophy which was initiated only in 1985.

Other Orioles managers to be honored: Joe Altobelli, Hank Bauer, Paul Richards and Earl Weaver. . .See "Orioles Award Winners" on page 39.

ORIOLES: Frank replaced Cal Ripken on Apr 12, '88, becoming the Orioles 8th manager (excluding interim manager Luman Harris, who in Sep '61 filled out Paul Richards' final year).

He took over with the club at 0-6, and lost his first 15 games until the O's snapped its record start-of-the-season losing streak at 21 (Apr 29) . . . His overall record was 54-101. . . .

Twice during the year he handed the reins to Ellie Hendricks because of a bad back . . . Frank missed 4 games from May 18 thru 20 (O's were 1-3) after being hospitalized, then missed 2 weeks from July 15 thru 28 during which he underwent successful surgery for the removal of a ruptured disc by club orthopedist, Dr. Charles Silberstein . . . The cumluative record during Frank's absence was 4-11.

Orioles Managers Won-Lost Records

Joe Altobelli (212-167, .559)
Hank Bauer (407-318, .561)
Jimmy Dykes (54-100, .351)
Luman Harris (17-10, .630)
Billy Hitchcock (163-161, .503)
Paul Richards (517-539, .490)
Cal Ripken Sr. (68-101 .402)
Frank Robinson (141-176, .448)
Earl Weaver (1480-1060, .583)

After the '88 season, Frank reassembled his coaching staff, retaining only one of the coaches he inherited. That was Ellie Hendricks, whose relationship with Frank dates back to '68 when both played for the Orioles.

He asked Cal Ripken Sr., the man he replaced as manager in April, to return as 3rd base coach; hired Tom McCraw with whom he had played and/or worked in Anaheim, Cleveland, and San Francisco, as his batting coach; brought up Johnny Oates, another former Orioles' teammate, from Rochester where he had just managed the Red Wings to the Governor's Cup, and appointed, as pitching coach, Al Jackson, the highly regarded former minor league pitching instructor in the acclaimed New York Mets' system (McCraw was also in the Mets' system before joining the O's).

At the time he took over the ballclub in Apr '88, he was working for the 1st time in his career as a front office official with the title, special assistant to the president (Edward Bennett Williams).

This is Frank's 2nd tour of duty with the O's since he played here ('66 thru '71).

He returned as a coach in '78, but spent most of that season managing in Rochester before moving back to Baltimore as a coach in '79 and '80. In the pennant-winning year '79, he was credited with helping to improve substantially the quality of the club's defense. In '80 he replaced Jim Frey (who left to manage the K.C. Royals) as the O's batting and 1st base coach . . . Frank, himself, departed in '80 to manage the San Francisco Giants.

Frank came back to Balmer 5 years later in '85, after nearly 4 seasons in San Francisco and a short stint ('84) as a coach with the Milwaukee Brewers (Harry Dalton hired him for Milwaukee the day after he was let go by the Giants . . . Frank had also worked with Dalton in Baltimore and Anaheim).

For the next 3 seasons, he served as bench/outfield coach under 3 managers: Joe Altobelli ('85), Earl Weaver ('85–'86) and Cal Ripken ('87), before his appointment as special assistant to the president in October '87.

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS: Named manager Jan 14., '81, replacing Dave Bristol (who in turn had replaced Joe Altobelli), and led the club to its 1st winning seasons since Altobelli did it in '78. The years '81 & '82 were the Giants' 1st winning seasons back-to-back in a decade. In '83 and '84, however, the club dipped below .500, and on Aug 4, '84, Frank was dismissed in favor of interim skipper Danny Ozark.

During his tenure in San Francisco 2 former O's players served on his staff: Don Buford (now the O's director of field operations/instruction) and Herm Starrette (O's '88 pitching coach), as well as McCraw (the O's current batting coach).

ROCHESTER RED WINGS ('78): He started the season as an O's coach, but after Ken Boyer left the Wings to manage the St. Louis Cardinals (Apr 28), Frank replaced him at Rochester (May 9) and went 58-64 the rest of the way, before returning to Baltimore the following season . . .

CLEVELAND INDIANS ('74–'77): Frank joined the Indians as a player on Sep 12, '74, from California in a trade. Then, 3 weeks later, on Oct 4, the day after the season ended, he was named the first black major league manager in baseball history, replacing Ken Aspromonte.

Frank made a dramatic debut as playing manager on Apr 8, '75, before some 55,000 opening day fans at Cleveland Stadium. In his 1st at bat of that 1st game (he was dh, batting 2nd), Frank homered off Doc Medich (later that inning, ex-Oriole teammate Boog Powell also homered).

The Indians won the game, 5-3, and Frank's effort was voted "most memorable moment" in Tribe history by Cleveland fans during baseball's observance of the U.S. bicentennial celebration.

In that 1st year, the Indians fell to 15 games below .500 by late June, but rallied and wound up 4th, just one game under . . . The next season, '76, they finished 3 games over . . . However, after a slow '77 start, Frank was released on June 19 and succeeded by Jeff Torborg.

For the rest of that year he coached with the Angels under Manager Dave Garcia, who had been his 3rd base coach in Cleveland in '75–'76.

PLAYING CAREER

MAJOR LEAGUE LEADER: He played for 21 seasons in the majors and is among the top ranking players of all time in 10 categories.

His 586 home runs represent the 4th highest figure in major league history behind Hank Aaron (755), Babe Ruth (714) and Willie Mays (660) . . . See "500 Home Run Hitters on page 122.

In addition, Frank ranks high in the following: games-2,808 (12th) . . . at bats-10,006 (14th) . . . runs-1,829 (10th) . . . hits-2,943 (20th) . . . doubles-528 (18th) . . . rbi-1,812 (12th) . . . total bases-5,373 (8th) . . . walks-1,420 (18th) and hit by pitches-198 (3rd) behind Don Baylor-267 and Ron Hunt-243.

"MVP", BOTH LEAGUES: He is the only player ever to win the BBWAA "MVP" award in both leagues . . . He won the N.L. award in '61 and the A.L. in '66 . . . In addition, he was "MVP" in the '66 World Series and '71 All-Star game.

TRIPLE CROWN: Is one of only 11 players to have won the "Triple Crown" (accomplished 13 times, 2 each by Ted Williams and Rogers Hornsby) . . . Frank did it in '66 with the O's. He, Mantle ('56) and Carl Yastrzemski ('67) are the only Triple Crown winners in the past 42 years (since Williams' second in '47).

HOME RUNS

He hit 343 in the N.L. and 243 in the A.L. . . . 388 were hit off righthanders and 198 off lefthanders.

VS. N.L. OPPONENTS: Astros (Colts)-11 . . . Braves-54 . . . Cardinals-46 . . . Cubs-54 . . . Dodgers-42 . . . Expos-0 . . . Giants-49 . . . Mets-12 . . . Padres-1 . . . Phillies-38 . . . Pirates-34 . . . Reds-2.

VS. A.L. OPPONENTS: Angels-14 . . . A's-20 . . . Brewers (Pilots)-14 . . . Indians-25 . . . Orioles-6 . . . Rangers (Senators)-31 . . . Red Sox-37 . . . Royals-15 . . . Tigers-28 . . . Twins-22 . . . White Sox-17 . . . Yankees-14.

33 PARKS: Frank holds the major league record for hitting home runs in most ballparks (33), including both regular season and World Series play . . . Hank Aaron is second at 32.

Among those, Crosley Field in Cincinnati (176) and Memorial Stadium (103) rank one-two in frequency . . . There were four stadia in which he played but did not hit a home run: Houston's Astrodome, Montreal's Expos Stadium, Sicks' Stadium in Seattle ('69 only) and Busch Stadium in St. Louis.

In regular season play Frank homered in 32 parks. His 33rd was Pittsburgh's Three Rivers in the '71 World Series . . .

GRAND SLAMS: Hit a total of seven slams, five of them in the N.L. . . . His only two bases loaded homers in the A.L. were hit in successive innings on Aug 20, '70 at R.F.K. Stadium in Washington off Senators' Joe Coleman and Joe Grzenda . . . Frank, Jim Gentile and Jim Northrup are the only ones ever to hit slams in successive plate appearances, though a total of seven have hit 2 in one game.

2 OR MORE/GAME: Hit two or more homers in a game 54 times (ranks 5th in major league history) . . . Hit three in a game for Reds at Crosley Field vs. St. Louis on Aug 22, '59 . . . Had 16 two-homer games for O's.

HR ODDS AND ENDS: Hit his first at Wrigley Field off the Cubs' Paul Minner on Apr 28, '56 and his last at Anaheim Stadium on July 6, '76 off the Angels' Sid Monge . . . Hit most off N.L. righthander Larry Jackson (10) . . . Scored the 1st run in ALCS history, in game #1 in '69 at Baltimore, and also hit the 1st homer, off the Twins' Jim Perry.

HRS-ORIOLES: Hit his 500th major league homer in Baltimore in the 2nd game of a twi-night doubleheader against the Tigers' lefthander Fred Scherman Sep 13, '71. At the time, he ranked 11th on the all-time list just behind Harmon Killebrew who had reached that milestone earlier that year . . . After leaving Baltimore, Frank jumped past Killebrew, Mel Ott, Ernie Banks, Eddie Mathews, Ted Williams, Jimmie Foxx and Mickey Mantle.

Frank became the first (and only) player ever to hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium on May 8, '66 (second game) when he blasted a Luis Tiant (Cleveland) offering over the left field stands.

He set a major league record by hitting ten home runs in the month of April '69, but that mark has since been pushed to 11 by Willie Stargell, Mike Schmidt and Graig Nettles.

Set a club record with 49 homers in '66 . . . Also set marks that year for most homers by an Oriole against one opponent (11 vs. Det.) and most home runs, Memorial Stadium (27).

LONG HOME RUNS/MEMORIAL STADIUM

The longest "measured" home run ever hit in Memorial Stadium was a 471′ drive by Harmon Killebrew on May 24, 1964 off Milt Pappas over the hedge in left-center field. . . . This exceeded by two feet the only other blast that has ever cleared the hedge. . . . That was one by Boog Powell 469′ to the same area off Boston's Don Schwall on June 22, 1962. Aside from these there have been three balls hit into the hedge (approximately 450′), by Mickey Mantle in 1954, by Powell in 1965 and by Frank Robinson in 1967.

Frank Robinson is the only player to have hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium. In the second game of a doubleheader with Cleveland on May 8, 1966, Frank hit a Luis Tiant offering over the left field stands and into the parking lot beyond, a drive that measured 451′ on the fly and rolled to a stop 540′ away from home plate.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

LAST GAME AS A PLAYER: Frank played in his last game as a player on Sep 18, '76 at Cleveland vs. Baltimore. He put himself in as a pinch-hitter for Frank Duffy in the 8th inning and singled in a run off Rudy May.

ALL-STAR GAMES: Appeared in 11 all-star games as a player (six with Cincinnati, four with Baltimore and one with California) and served as a coach in '76 while managing for Cleveland . . . Was "MVP" in '71 game at Detroit . . . Hit a 2-run homer off Dock Ellis to put A.L. ahead to stay in 3rd inning (Reggie Jackson hit another with one on off Ellis in same inning).

Hit .250 (24-6) in all-star play with two home runs . . . Went 3-for-3 for the N.L. in '59 (at L.A. Coliseum) and homered off Early Wynn.

WORLD SERIES: Hit two key homers in '66 vs. Dodgers, both off Don Drysdale, to win Sport Magazine sports car . . . Hit his first in the opening inning of game #1 at Dodger Stadium with Russ Snyder aboard (Brooks followed immediately with another and the O's led 3-0 before the Dodgers batted) . . . O's won the game 5-2 . . . In game #4 his 4th inning inning solo provided the only run as the O's completed their sweep behind Dave McNally.

In '71, game #6 vs. Pittsburgh in Baltimore, Frank's base running in the 10th inning allowed the O's to tie the series at three games apiece . . . He drew a one out walk, and despite ailing legs and sore Achilles Tendon, went from first to third on Merv Rettenmund's single up the middle just evading Richie Hebner's tag with a head first slide . . . Then, he scored on Brooks' short sac fly to Vic Davalillio in center.

CINCINNATI: Spent ten full years with the Reds after three seasons in their farm system. Was N.L. "Rookie of the Year" in '56 . . . Tied league record for homers by a rookie (38, set by Wally Berger of the Braves), and set a rookie mark by being hit by pitched balls 20 times.

Won a Gold Glove in '58 . . . Led the N.L. three straight years in slugging percentage ('60–'61–'62) . . . Won N.L. "MVP" in '61 . . . Set personal career highs in '62 in average (.342), hits (208), doubles (51) and rbi (136) . . . Set N.L. record by leading in hit by pitcher for six straight years ('60 thru '65).

BALTIMORE: O's won four A.L. pennants and two world championships during his six years in Baltimore.

Won Triple Crown and MVP awards in A.L. and World Series in '66 . . . In addition to leading the league in average (.316), home runs (49) and rbi (122), he also paced the loop in total bases (367), runs (122) and slugging (.637).

Was batting .337 in late June '67 when he sustained serious injury in a second base collision with the White Sox' Al Weis . . . Missed a month and suffered from double vision for a year and a half afterward . . . Though he wound up with a .311 average that year, he slipped to .268 (with 15 homers and 52 rbi) in '68 while still recovering from that injury, compounded by an attack of mumps and a muscle tear in his right shoulder.

He returned to form the following spring and helped lead the O's to three straight pennants in '69, '70 and '71.

Following his trade to the Dodgers in Dec. '71, Frank's uniform #20 was retired. He was the first Oriole player to be so honored . . . In '77, he and Brooks became the first players to be inducted into the new Orioles Hall of Fame, originated by the Oriole Advocates in cooperation with the ballclub.

DODGERS-ANGELS: After one year ('72) in Los Angeles where he played for Walter Alston, Frank was traded to the Angels. At Anaheim he played nearly 2 years under Bobby Winkles and Dick Williams.

PERSONAL: One of 11 children . . . Graduated from McClymonds High School (Oakland) . . . Was basketball teammate of Bill Russell and played baseball there with Vada Pinson, Willie Tasby and Charlie Beamon . . . Hobbies: movies, music and Lakers basketball games . . . Attended Xavier University in Cincinnati.

Frank and his wife, the former Barbara Anne Cole, were married Oct 28, '61 . . . They have 2 children: Frank Kevin (9/8/62) and Nichelle (8/24/65) . . . Barbara is a real estate agent in the Bel Air/Beverly Hills area. She recently sold a house to "Magic" Johnson, then sold his old house . . . Nichelle, worked in the Orioles PR Department for a number of years.

44 ELROD (ELLIE) JEROME HENDRICKS

Born: Dec. 22, 1940
Batted, L; Threw, R
Position: Catcher

Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in St. Thomas, V.I. . . . Has lived in Baltimore area (Randallstown) since '70.

Tenure: Has spent 31 years in professional baseball (thru '89) . . . Had 10 years, 89 days service as a major league player.

Signed Originally with: Milwaukee (Atlanta) Braves.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

BALTIMORE ORGANIZATION: This year will be the 22nd season opener for Elrod in an Orioles uniform, most in club history (Brooks Robinson enjoyed 21) . . . Since '68, Elrod has spent 20½ of the last 22 seasons in an O's uniform.

He played for the Cubs during the last 6 weeks of '72 (Tommy Davis deal) before returning the the O's over the winter . . . Then he logged 1½ years in the Yankees' organization from June '76 thru the '77 season, before rejoining the Orioles again.

MANAGERIAL DEBUT '88: Ellie twice substituted for Frank Robinson as manager in '88 when the latter was hospitalized with a bad back . . . Ellie managed 4 games from May 18–20 (1-3), then took over again for 2 weeks from July 15 thru 28 (3-8) . . . His cumulative record during Frank's 2 absences was 4-11.

COACHING: Ellie is entering his 14th year as the O's bullpen coach since his appointment to that position in '77 during Earl Weaver's 1st tour of duty.

Player-Coach: Twice during this span he's served as player-coach . . . In '78 he was activated on May 18, replacing Gary Roenicke who had been sent down, and remained on the roster for the balance of the year in the dual capacity.

In 13 games that year he hit .333 (18-6), and, in his one career pitching stint, compiled an 0.00 era, thus leading the club, in a sense, in both categories (to be fair, he was tied in era with Dave Ford, who pitched 15 scoreless innings).

His pitching career took place on June 26 in Toronto, where the O's were absorbing a 24-10 pasting . . . He worked 2.1 innings, allowed no runs, one hit and one walk while putting an end to the carnage inflicted upon 4 predecessors (Mike Flanagan, Joe Kerrigan, Tippy Martinez, and outfielder Larry Harlow). Don Stanhouse then pitched the 9th and also held the Jays scoreless.

In '79 he coached exclusively all year until Sep 1 when the roster expanded to 40 players . . . He made only one appearance, his last in the major leagues, at Detroit on Sep 19 and went 0-for-1 . . . He was not eligible for postseason play.

All-Star: He was the A.L.'s batting practice catcher and bullpen coach for the '82 All-Star game in Montreal.

YANKEES '76–'77: In '76, he played in 26 games for the Yankees after the June 15 trade from Baltimore and batted .210 (57-12).

Spent '77 shuttling between New York and Syracuse. He played in only 10 games for the Yankees and was not eligible for post-season play.

ORIOLES '68–'76: Ellie had been with the O's for nearly 9 full years when he was traded to the Cubs for Tommy Davis in Aug. '72 . . . However, when the season ended, he was reacquired by Baltimore.

100 Games/Year: Played in more than 100 games in each of the O's 3 pennant-winning seasons of '69–'70–'71 . . . He and Andy Etchebarren more or less split the regular catching job from '68 thru '71.

Weaver/Lane: Earl Weaver and Frank Lane were instrumental in convincing the O's to draft him from the Angels' AAA Seattle affiliate in Nov. '67 . . . Played for Weaver in Puerto Rico previously and Lane had scouted him in Mexico.

ALCS/WS: He compiled a .273 (66-18) average in 23 post-season games for the O's and Yankees (comprising five league championship series and four World Series).

'70 WS: Hit .364 (11-4) against the Reds with a home run and double and contributed significantly to the O's wins at Cincinnati in games #1 and #2.

In the opener, the Reds jumped out 3-0, but Ellie tied it in the 5th with a home run off Gary Nolan and the O's went on to win on Brooks' homer in the 7th . . . There was a play in the Cincinnati 6th in which Ellie was involved and that was as important as the home run.

"Carbo-Burkhart" Incident: One inning after Ellie had tied the game with his home run, the Reds had Bernie Carbo on 3rd representing the lead run, and only one out (Brooks had retired Lee May leading off the inning on a sensational play).

Pinch-hitter Ty Cline then chopped a high bouncer in front of the plate . . . As Ellie went out and grabbed it, Carbo headed home, Ellie dove and tagged Carbo a few feet up the line and umpire Ken Burkhart, who had been spun around by the players as they converged so that his back was to the play, called Carbo out.

Films later revealed that Ellie had tagged Carbo with one hand while holding the ball in the other, and that Carbo had missed the plate.

EARLY CAREER

PUERTO RICO: Ellie played for Santurce in the Puerto Rican Winter League each year from '60–'77, except in '71 when the O's went to Japan . . . His 112 homers in that loop rank him 2nd on the all-time list to former St. Louis Browns outfielder Willard Brown (120).

MINORS: He enjoyed his best minor league seasons in Jalisco in the Mexican League (AAA) where he hit 109 homers in 4 years and was known as the "Babe Ruth of Mexico" . . . In last season there ('67), he led the league in homers (41) and was 2nd in rbi (112).

He started his career in the Milwaukee Braves' organization ('59–'60), then spent 2 years at Winnipeg in the Cardinals' system ('62–'63) before going to Mexico.

PERSONAL: One of the most popular personalities ever to wear an Orioles uniform . . . He is very active in community projects in the Baltimore area . . . Speaks fluent Spanish . . . Plays the flute.

Chosen "Man of the Year" by the Oriole Advocates in '89. Received the first "Jack Dunn Memorial Service Award," named after the late Orioles executive and presented by the Maryland Professional Baseball Players Association in Jan. '88 at the 35th Annual Tops in Sports Banquet . . . Ellie received the award for his "many selfless years of service to the community."

He was also selected the first "Man of the Year" by the Baltimore chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in Feb. '83 and the Special Olympics "Man of the Year" in '87.

He has operated a 2-week baseball camp for youngsters the past 8 summers at McDonogh School in Owings Mills.

He and his wife, Merle, were married Jan. 14, '70 and are the parents of two sons: Ryan (8/3/72) and Ian Christopher (11/28/76). They have lived in the Randallstown area, near Baltimore, since the early 70s.

Has 4 children by a previous marriage: Abegail (7/13/62), Elrod Jr. (4/7/64), Elroy (10/17/65) and Berecia (8/25/67).

JOHNNY OATES 46

Born: Jan. 21, 1946
Height: 6'0"; Weight: 185
Batted, L; Threw, R
Position: Catcher

Birthplace/Residence: Born in Sylva, VA . . . Grew up in Prince George, VA (near Richmond) . . . Has a home in Wilmette, IL and in Colonial Heights, VA.

Tenure: Has spent the last 22 years in professional baseball, including the last 8 as a major league coach or minor league manager . . . His playing career spanned 15 seasons, 6 in the Orioles' organization.

Signed Originally with: Orioles.

'88, I.L. MANAGER OF THE YEAR: Returned to the Orioles' organization last year after a 16-year absence and was named International League Manager of the Year as he guided Rochester to a 77-64 record, the I.L.'s Western Division crown and the league championship, its 1st since '74.

MORE ON MINOR LEAGUE MANAGING: Has held 3 minor league managing posts, and despite spending only one year at each has led all 3 clubs to postseason and 2 to league titles . . . In the Yankees' system in '82, he guided Nashville (AA) to the Southern League championship and a 77-67 record . . . A year later at Columbus, the Yankees' team in the International League, Oates' club was 83-57 and won the regular season championship before bowing out in the playoffs . . . Has a 237-188 (.558) managing record.

COACHING: In his only other tour as a major league coach he served 4 years ('84–'87) with the Chicago Cubs . . . While with the Cubs, he served at various times as dugout, bullpen and bench coach . . . Credited with improving catcher Jody Davis.

PLAYING CAREER: Played with 5 major league clubs during his 10-year major league career . . . Singled in his 1st major league at bat, Sep. 17, '70 at RFK Stadium off Washington's Dick Bosman, now pitching coach at Rochester . . . In his rookie season with the Orioles in '72, he led all A.L. catchers in fielding percentage.

Had his best season in '75, when he was traded from Atlanta to Philadelphia early in the season and wound up as the Phillies starter, batting .286 in 90 games . . . Was the Phillies' opening day catcher in '76, but broke his collarbone in a home plate collision with Cincinnati's Dave Parker and was sidelined until mid-June, long enough for Bob Boone to prove himself as the new starter . . . Went over to the Dodgers for 3 seasons ('77–'79) and played on 2 N.L. pennant winners ('77–'78) as the 3rd catcher behind Steve Yeager and Joe Ferguson . . . Dodgers' Manager Tommy LaSorda called him "one of the most intelligent catchers in the game."

MINOR LEAGUES: Played most of his minor league career in the Orioles' organization under Joe Atobelli and Cal Ripken Sr., except for one season under Harry Malmberg. Credits Ripken as the most influential, teaching him everything he knows about catching.

PERSONAL: He and his wife, Gloria, have 3 children: Lori (6/25/71), Andy (3/5/76) and Jenny (11/14/78) . . . In the offseason, John is an exceutive with the Halo Corporation, the 9th largest manufacturer of advertising specialties in the country . . . Earned a degree in health and physical education from Virginia Tech in '68 . . . Elected to Tech's Sports Hall of Fame in '83.

7 CALVIN (CAL) EDWIN RIPKEN

Born: Dec. 17, 1935
Height: 5'11"; Weight: 170
Batted, R; Threw, R
Position: Catcher

Birthplace/Residence: Born, grew up, and still lives in Aberdeen, MD.

Tenure: This is his 34th season in professional baseball. He has spent his entire career in the Orioles organization.

Signed Originally with: Orioles.

THE RIPKENS AND OTHER FAMILIES

FIRSTS: In '87, Cal Senior became the 1st father ever to manage 2 sons simultaneously in major league baseball history-regular season. Among those who have managed one son are Connie Mack (son Earle, '10, '11, '14), and Yogi Berra (son Dale '84 & '85).

The 1st time the Ripken trio hooked up professionally was in spring training '86. Cal Junior and Bill were teamed at the keystone for an exhibition split squad game at Ft. Myers on Mar 15 and the manager of that team was Cal Senior.

THREE FROM SAME CLAN: Three members of the same family in the same uniform at the same time is a rarity, matched only 3 times before in baseball history. 1973—Jose, Hector & Tommy Cruz for St. Louis; 1963—Felipe, Matty and Jesus Alou for San Francisco; 1876—George, Sam & Harry Wright for Boston in the National League (Harry, a Hall of Famer, was the manager and pitched briefly; George was an outfielder-70 games in '76-and Sam, a shortstop, appeared in only 2 games that year. We're assuming they were all in uniform together).

OTHER FAMILIES WITH 3 OR MORE IN MAJORS*

Allen—Dick, Hank & Ron
Boyer—Clete, Cloyd & Ken
Clarkson—Arthur, John & Walter
Cross—Amos, Frank & Lave
Delahanty—Ed, Frank, Jim, Joe & Tom
DiMaggio—Dom, Joe & Vince
Edwards—Dave, Marshall & Mike
Mansell—John, Mike & Tom
O'Neill—Jim, Mike & Steve Sadowski—Bob, Eddie & Ted
Sewell—Joe, Luke & Tommy Sisler—Dave, Dick, & George
Walker—Ernie, Ewart (Dixie), Fred (Dixie), & Harry

*—We count a total of 17 families with 3 or more representatives in majors.
—Ewart was father of Fred & Harry and brother to Ernie.

FOURTH BROTHER KEYSTONE ACT: Our research indicates that the Ripken boys are the 4th brother keystone act in modern big league history . . . Their predecessors: Granny & Garvin (Wes) Hamner for the Phillies (briefly in '45), the O'Brien twins, Eddie & Johnny for the Pirates (sporadically in '53, plus '55–'56), and Milt and Frank Bolling for the Tigers (briefly in '58).

TOGETHERNESS: Cal Junior was a 2nd round pick in the June '78 draft while younger son, Bill, was chosen on the 11th round in June '82. Cal Sr. & Jr. have been teammates in spring training as well as in regular season for the last 9 years (starting '81).

VI & THE REST OF THE RIPKENS: The lady who has made the Ripken story possible is Vi (short for Violet), who was honored in Jan '88 at the annual Tops in Sports baseball dinner as Maryland's "First Lady of Baseball." The award was presented by Governor William Donald Schaefer.

Vi and Senior have been married 32 years (Nov 20, '57). Their 4 children, in order of appearance: Ellen Leigh (3/22/59), Cal Jr. (8/24/60), Fred (11/25/61), and Bill (12/16/64). Ellen is a payroll clerk in the treasury department of the Harford County government (Aberdeen is in Harford Cty.), and Fred, a motorcycle mechanic by trade, operates his own business in Joppa, MD called "Rip's Performance Center, Inc."

Cal Senior has 2 older brothers, Oliver and Bill. The latter was once a Brooklyn Dodger farmhand.

PRO CAREER

COACHING: Cal has spent 12 years on the O's coaching staff, 10½ as 3rd base coach . . . He joined the staff in '76, replacing George Staller who had retired at the end of the previous season. Cal served as bullpen coach until June 27, '77 when he took over at 3rd base after Billy Hunter left to manage the Texas Rangers.

MANAGING: Has managed for 14 and a fraction seasons in professional baseball, all in the Orioles' organization. His 13-plus years as a manager in the Birds' farm system ('61–'74) represent the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles history . . . Earl Weaver and Joe Altobelli are tied for 2nd in that category, each having managed 11 years for the Birds in the minors . . . During that span, Cal managed at all levels except "rookie" league.

Following the '86 season he replaced Earl Weaver to become only the 7th "non-interim" manager in the club's 34-year history (excluded are Luman Harris who finished out the '61 season after Paul Richards resigned in late August, and Cal, himself, who bridged the gap for one game between Joe Altobelli and Earl Weaver in '85).

Cal was replaced by Frank Robinson on Apr 12, '88 after the O's lost the first 6 games of the season (a streak that went to 21 before it ended) . . . His overall record as manager was 68-101, .402.

He began his managing career at Leesburg, FL on June 7, '61 as a replacement for Billy DeMars, who had just been promoted to a Class B league. After 10 weeks on the job, he was rushed to Rochester (Aug 17) for emergency duty as a catcher, and was replaced at the Leesburg helm by Ray Scarborough, then a scout for the O's.

Cal had only 2 losing records in the minors: in '62, his 1st full season as a manager and his last as a player, and in '67 at Miami.

He won the 1st of 2 pennants at Aberdeen, SD by 12 games in '64 with a club that included 7 players who would ultimately play in the majors: Jim Palmer, Lou Piniella, Mark Belanger, Andy Etchebarren, Eddie Watt, Dave Leonhard and Mike Fiore.

That '64 club went 81-34 and Cal was the Northern League's Manager of the Year . . . Former Orioles' 3rd base coach, Jimmy Williams, managed at Grand Forks, ND in the same league for the Dodgers that year.

He finished 1st again in '72 at Asheville in the AA Southern League . . . Preceded Joe Altobelli at Rochester in in '69 & '70.

EJECTIONS: Senior has been ejected 26 times in the big leagues, 18 as 3rd base coach including twice last year (once each by Mark Johnson and Rocky Roe) and 8 as a manager (all in '87) . . . Dale Ford, Mark Johnson and the late Bill Kunkel have been his most frequent ejectors, 3 times each . . . Tied for 2nd at 2 apiece are Roe, Durwood Merrill and Greg Kosc.

During Cal's full year as manager in '87, the umpiring team of Larry Barnett-Kosc-Roe and Tim Tschida accounted for 5 of his 8 dismissals.

Cal Jr. has been tossed twice: (1) Sep 25, '87 by Tim Welke at Baltimore, and (2) Aug 7, '89 by Drew Coble at Baltimore in the 1st inning . . . Bill has not been expelled from a major league game at this writing.

SCOUTING: In '75, he turned to scouting, primarily at the professional level, but he also did some free agent scouting and served as a "trouble shooter" in the farm system.

PLAYING CAREER: Rip was a catcher in the O's organization although he also played some 3rd base and outfield and even pitched. He enjoyed his best year under Earl Weaver at Fox Cities (Appleton, WI) in '60. He became a player manager the following year.

BIRDS' BIGGEST DEAL

In November-December 1954 the Orioles and Yankees engineered a 17 player deal, one of the biggest in baseball history. General Manager Paul Richards sent the following players to New York: pitchers Mike Blyzka, Don Larsen and Bob Turley; catcher Darrell Johnson, first baseman Dick Kryhoski, shortstop Billy Hunter, and outfielders Ted del Guercio and Jim Fridley . . . The Birds in turn acquired the contracts of: pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller; catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos; second baseman Don Leppert, third baseman Kal Segrist, shortstop Willie Miranda and outfielder Gene Woodling.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Began the season as the O's leadoff hitter, but struggled after mid-May and, after starting 45 of the first 49 games, cracked the lineup only 20 times the remainder of the year...All 65 starts came in centerfield.

Set club record for most stolen bases in April (8)...Thru May 2 he had reached base 43 times in his first 24 starts and was leading the A.L. in doubles (10), 5th in runs (20) and extra base hits (13)...However, from that point thru the rest of the season he reached only 58 times and had only 2 doubles in 69 games...Had 25 hits in April, but only 30 the rest of the season.

Had a .264 (140-37) average on May 17, .143 (126-18) thereafter...Optioned to Rochester on Aug 9, returned as a September call-up.

Opening Days: Was 3-for-4 opening day against Boston, including 2-for-3 off Roger Clemens...In his only other opening day game, in his big league debut in '88 while with the Red Sox, he went 3-for-5 against Detroit's Jack Morris...Combined, he's gone 6-for-9 on opening day.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1988-RED SOX, ORIOLES: Started the season with Boston after batting .326 (86-28) in spring training...Was the starting centerfielder in April while Ellis Burks was recovering from an early spring ankle injury...Was the regular rightfielder for most of May...Played in 41 of the Sox' first 49 games (all starts), 17 in center and 24 in right...Was batting .277 (112-31) on May 22 after 31 games, then went 3-for-36 (including 0-for-his-last-20) and was assigned to Pawtucket on June 4.

Went 0-for-13 after reporting to Pawtucket (extending his hitless string to 0-for-33), then batted .312 (154-48) the rest of the way before trade to Orioles on July 30.

Started 43 of 58 games after joining O's, all in centerfield...Hit safely in 4 of 1st 5 games with O's, but batted .195 (154-30) the remainder of season...Hit 1st major league homer in Baltimore off Milwaukee's Tom Filer...Finished the season the way he started it, with a 3-hit game Oct 2 at Toronto.

Had 11 sacrifice bunts; only 5 others in the A.L. had more...Also had 6 bunt singles...Was 5-for-13 (.385) combined against 20-game winners Frank Viola and Dave Stewart...Chosen in the spring as the A.L. East's top prospect by Baseball America.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER

Has twice led his league in walks and collected 117 more bases on balls than strikeouts in his minor league career.

1987: Limited to 75 games because of a severely sprained right ankle sustained in a clubhouse accident on June 5...Was batting .304 for New Britain (AA) at the time...Missed 49 games...Promoted to Pawtucket on Aug 8...Hit safely in 18 of 23 games with Pawsox...Batted .350 in the Mexican League for Tijuana, but didn't have enough plate appearances to qualify for the batting title.

EARLY CAREER: With Winter Haven in 1986, was named to post-season Florida State League all-star team...Led FSL in walks (107) and on-base pct. (.459)...Was tied for 3rd in homers (12) and 7th in batting (.319)...In 1985, at Elmira, led the New York-Penn League in walks (67 in 71 games) and in triples (tied, 6)...Played for the Red Sox in Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown, July 29, '85...Stole 57 bases in first 2 pro seasons.

AMATEUR CAREER: Graduated from Carlsbad (CA) High School in '82... Named team mvp in '79 and '80 and all-league and all-North County in '81 and '82...Also lettered 3 times as a guard on the basketball team...Attended University of California at Irvine, '82-'85...As a sophomore in '84, he slugged 8 triples, tied for 3rd in the nation with Oddibe McDowell, then of Arizona State...Played outfield and 1st base in college.

PERSONAL: Born in Silver Spring, MD, but family moved to California when he was an infant...His father, Jerry, ran track at University of California-Santa Barbara..Studied economics at UC-Irvine...Single.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Spent 1st full season in the majors and won more games (18) than any other lefthander in the A.L...Led the A.L. East in wins...Fifth overall in A.L. and 7th in win pct. (.692).

Entered '89 with a 10-20 career record in the majors...Finished with the most wins by an Oriole since '84 when Mike Boddicker won 20...Most by an Orioles LHP since Scott McGregor was 18-7 in '83.

Was the only pitcher to beat both A.L. 20-game winners-Dave Stewart and Bret Saberhagen...Became the 1st and one of only 2 A.L. pitchers to defeat all 13 opposing teams in '89 (Saberhagen was the other)...First Oriole to do it since Steve Stone in '80.

O's were 24-11 in his 35 starts...Gave up 2 runs or less in 22 of 35 starts and 3 runs or less 28 times...Was 9th in the A.L. in fewest walks per 9 innings (2.4).

PITCHER OF THE MONTH IN APRIL: Set an O's record for most wins in April when he won all 5 of his starts and was named A.L. "Pitcher of the Month" (5-0, 1.46)...In 1st start, beat Frank Viola at Minnesota on Apr 9 in a 7-hit, 8-1 win, becoming the 1st lefthander to throw a complete game win over the Twins at home in 2 years...Win #3 came over K.C.'s Saberhagen on Apr 20...Combined with Mark Williamson on 7-hit, 2-0 win.

FIRST 11: Continued hot thru his 1st 11 starts and on June 5 was 9-1 (2.12, IP-72.1, H-70, R-18, ER-17, BB-18, SO-18)...Only loss came at home to Seattle's Scott Bankhead, 6-5...Handed Oakland's Stewart his 1st loss (after a 6-0 start) at home on May 11, 6-2, to tie Stewart for A.L. victory lead...Win #8 at Cleveland, 5-2 on May 26, pushed the Orioles into 1st place, beginning a stretch of 98 straight days in the top spot...Reached 8 wins quicker than any pitcher in Orioles' history.

2 MONTHS, 2 WINS: In a 2-month span, between June 10 and Aug 12, he won only 2 games in 13 starts (2-5, 6.10, IP-62, H-91, ER-42).

LAST 11: In his last 11 starts beginning Aug 17, he was 7-2 (2.64, IP-78.1, H-79, ER-23)...Won 4 straight starts, Aug 17-30...Shut out Milwaukee, 5-0 on Aug 21 to keep Brewers from catching 1st-place O's...In his next start at New York on Aug 25, he lost a shutout with 2 out in the 9th but earned 3-1 win with relief help from Gregg Olson. Beat Nolan Ryan at Texas on Sep 7 for win #16...Entering the game, Ryan had struck out 254 in 200.2 innings, Ballard 45 in 174.

A SHOT AT 20: Earned his 18th win on Sep 20, a 9-2 decision at home over Detroit...Had 2 more starts and in those 2 allowed only 3 runs and 13 hits in 16.1 innings, but the O's scored only one run in the 2 starts combined...Lost a complete game to New York's Chuck Cary, 2-0, at home on Sep 24 and didn't get the decision vs. Toronto in the O's 2-1 loss in the 1st game of "The Series" at the Skydome.

STRIKEOUTS: The last pitcher to win 18 or more games and have fewer strikeouts than Ballard (62) was Dick Newsome with the '41 Red Sox who won 19 games as a rookie and fanned 58...Averaged 2.59 strikeouts per 9, 2nd lowest among A.L. starters (Toronto's Mike Flanagan averaged 2.46 per 9)...However, on Aug 25 at Yankee Stadium, he became the only pitcher to strike out Don Mattingly 3 times in one game.

On Aug 21 vs. Milwaukee, he became the 1st pitcher in Orioles' history to throw a shutout without a walk or strikeout...Jeff has struck out 3 or less 68 times in 74 career starts.

RUN SUPPORT: The O's scored 198 runs in his 35 starts, 5.7 runs per start, best on the staff...O's had 11 games when they hit 3 or more homers--8 came with Ballard on the mound.

THREE DAYS REST: Pitched with 3 days rest in 7 of his last 10 starts, the 1st time in his career he'd ever done so...In those 7 starts (beginning Aug 21) he was 5-2 (2.24, IP-52.1/ER-13).

FIELDING: Led all major league pitchers with 55 assists...Was 2nd in the A.L. in successful total chances (68) and double plays (6)...Picked off club-high 10 base runners.

MISCELLANEOUS: Tied with Dennis Eckersley and teammate Gregg Olson for 6th place in the BBWAA's Cy Young voting (3 points apiece)...Averaged 2.38 walks per 9, 9th among the league's starters...His 240 hits allowed were 5th highest in the A.L...Was 9-4 at home and on road

PREVIOUS M.L. CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1988: Although he wasn't recalled from Rochester until May 19, tied for the O's lead in wins (8) with Dave Schmidt, and topped all O's pitchers in complete games (6)...He was the only lefthanded starter to win a game for the Birds. Was the only Oriole to pitch 2 consecutive complete game wins when he blanked the Brewers on a 3-hitter, 5-0, at Milwaukee on Aug 13, then downed the A's on a 4-hitter, 10-1, on Aug 18...His best month was August when he was 3-2 (era-2.20, ip-45, er-11).

1987: M.L. DEBUT/1ST WINS: Spent total of 2 months with Orioles and the rest of the season at Rochester, where he was 2nd in the International League in wins (13) and 3rd in era (3.09)...Served 2 tours with the O's, May 8 thru June 9 (2-3), and Sep 1 thru end of season (0-5).

Made big league debut May 9 at Chicago in a no-decision effort...Pitched only 2 innings and left with 5-5 tie. His 1st big league win came 2 starts later at Seattle on May 19 (over Mike Trujillo)...Won again in his next outing, at Oakland May 25, but didn't win another game for the O's the rest of the year while losing his last 8 decisions...Allowed 17.44 walks/hits per 9 innings, highest ratio in majors (min. 50 innings).

At Rochester he was named to Topps' Class AAA all-star team...Allowed the fewest walks per 9 innings (1.65) and fewest baserunners per 9 innings (10.72).

MINOR LEAGUE SUMMARY

Compiled a 41-18 record in the minors over 74 appearances (73 starts), with a 2.54 era (ip-495.1, er-140). Struck out 394, better than 3 times more than he walked (121), and walked only 2.2 batters per 9 innings...Finished among the top 3 in era 3 times: '85-NY-Penn League (3rd)...'86-Carolina League (1st)...'87-International League (3rd). Has relieved only once in his pro career, for Rochester vs. Toledo on May 3, '88 (relieved Mike Griffin).

THREE LEVELS IN '86: Set club record at Hagerstown with his league-leading 1.85 era (the era for league as a whole that year was 4.37)...Also led league's starters in strikeout average (9.24) per 9 innings and was 2nd in fewest walks per game (2.49). Was leading Carolina league in wins when promoted to Charlotte in early July...Won his first 4 decisions in the Southern League...Promoted again, to Rochester in late August...Lost his only 2 regular season decisions, but beat Richmond during the International League playoffs.

NEWARK '85: Led Newark in wins (10), era (1.41), complete games (6) and strikeouts (91)...Tied for league lead in shutouts (3)...Held opponents to .217 average (359-78) while giving up 2 or fewer earned runs in 12 of 13 starts.

AMATEUR BACKGROUND: At Stanford he set school records for career wins (37), innings (428) and strikeouts (316), was all-Pac 10 twice ('83 & '85) and also set a Pac-10 record for career innings. As a senior he was 14-4, tying another school mark for wins in a season...That year ('85) Stanford was 5th in the nation. On July 20, '88, the 2 biggest winners in Stanford history, Ballard & the White Sox' Jack McDowell, were to have squared off in Baltimore, but the game was rained out...McDowell won 35 games at Stanford and holds the career strikeout record (337)...They were teammates in '85 (Pete Stanicek was also on that club). Played basketball at Billings West High School... There is no high school baseball in Billings, but he played American Legion ball.

PERSONAL: Serves as Orioles player representative. Earned degree in geophysics from Stanford...Has worked as a geophysicist at Balcrom Oil Company (in Billings) in the offseason...Jeff McNally, son of Orioles' Hall of Famer Dave, is one of his best friends...They went to Stanford together to play baseball, but McNally had to give up the game because of injury...McNally is now a doctor, serving his internship at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1988: Sore left elbow limited his appearances to 7 games at Rochester...Missed 52 days, May 6-June 27, and lasted only one inning on June 28 at Richmond...He did not pitch again the rest of the season...Had "Tommy John" surgery on Aug 23...The operation was performed in Los Angeles by Dr. Frank Jobe.

1987: Tied Mike Boddicker for team lead with 10 victories...Those were the only 2 pitchers who played for the O's the entire season...Was 2nd to Boddicker in starts (29), innings (165) and strikeouts (111).

His 29 starts were tops among major league rookies and at the time, tied Wally Bunker ('64) for 2nd most by O's rookie (Tom Phoebus had 33 in '67, but Bob Milacki had 36 last season).

Had roller-coaster season...Was 5-1 with 3.94 era in 9 games, 8 starts, thru May 25 (ip-45.2, er-20, hr-3), but lost 6 of 7 decisions leading to the All-Star break...After the break, had 3-game win streak, July 17-29, matching his personal high in the majors...Pitched his only 2 ML complete games in succession, beating Kansas City, July 23 and Cleveland, July 29...Lost 6 straight, Aug 5-Sep 29, before finally winning in season finale, Oct 4 at New York...In all, was 5-12 with 6.04 era (ip-119.1, er-80, hr-29) in last 24 games, 21 starts.

NEAR NO-HITTER: On May 5 at Minnesota, became the 9th Oriole pitcher since '54 to lose a no-hit bid in the 9th inning...Minnesota's Greg Gagne was safe on an error leading off the 9th, then Tom Nieto singled...Thru 8 innings, only one Twins batter reached base: Steve Lombardozzi with a 4th-inning walk...Minnesota went on to score 4 runs off 4 other O's pitchers, but Ken Dixon wrapped up the 5-4 victory...Bell's line: ip-8.1, h-2, r-3, er-3, bb-1, so-7.

The other 9th-inning victims: Bob Turley in '54; Don Ferrarese in '56; Dave McNally and Mike Cuellar, both in '69; Jim Palmer in '73; Wayne Garland in '74; Mike Flanagan in '78 and Storm Davis in '83.

MISCELLANEOUS: Was 3-0 vs Cleveland and 2-0 against Kansas City...Led O's with 7 road victories...Surrendered 1st grand slam in his ML career, June 10, to Boston's Ellis Burks at Fenway Park.

MINORS/MAJORS, '86: Led entire O's organization with combined 17 victories at Charlotte, Rochester and Baltimore...Made total of 33 starts, holding opponents to 3 runs or less in 24 games, including 3 of his 4 with O's...Was 16-9 in minors despite 7 losses by scores of 3-2 (3 times), 2-1 (3 times) and 1-0 (once).

Called up from Rochester, Sep 15...Made 1st ML start Sep 17 at New York, winning 8-3 with relief help from Don Aase...Led Southern League with 3.05 era at Charlotte despite his promotion to AAA in early July...Fanned season-high 13 batters in 2-1 loss to Memphis, May 5...His .700 winning percentage (7-3) at Rochester was good for a 3-way tie for the International League lead...Had 6-game win streak with Red Wings.

MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT, '85: Was 1st Oriole since Bunker in '63 to be promoted directly from A ball to majors...Joined O's Sep 23 after spending season at Hagerstown...Was pitching in Instructional League when Boddicker and Davis sustained season-ending injuries...Made his debut Sep 24 at Milwaukee, retiring the 3 hitters he faced in order, 2 on strikeouts...Was scored on in only one of his 4 relief outings with the O's.

HAGERSTOWN, '85: Led Carolina League with 162 strikeouts and tied for lead with 26 starts...Led Suns with 11 wins, 2 shutouts, 5 complete games and 158.1 innings pitched...Threw a trio of 2-hitters and one 4-hitter...Allowed 2 or fewer runs in 16 of 26 starts.

1984: Named to Baseball America's NY-Penn League All-Star team while helping lead Newark to league championship series...Whiffed career-high 15 during a 7-3 victory in the final series against eventual champion Little Falls...Was 2nd in the league with 114 strikeouts and 3rd in innings pitched with 102.1.

EARLY CAREER: Used mostly in relief in '83 at Newark and was 2nd on club with 6 saves...Fell 3 innings shy in '82 of qualifying for era leaders in Appalachian League.

Became the 1st Oriole ever to finish with at least 10 doubles, triples, home runs and stolen bases (for more details see below under "Quadruple Double")...His 10 triples, were the 4th highest in O's history to Paul Blair (12 in '67), Luis Aparicio (11 in '65) and Al Bumbry (11 in '73). Combined with Mike Devereaux to give the Orioles two 20 base stealers for the 1st time since '76.

Led the Orioles in runs (83) and hit by pitches (7) in addition to triples...Made 139 starts (138 in LF and one as a designated hitter)...Had the highest fielding percentage among A.L. leftfielders (for more details see below under "Fielding").

Played on a major league team that finished over .500 for the 1st time in his 7-year career...His teams had been a combined 135 games under .500 during the 1st 6 years of his career.

In one month stretch, June 13-July 14, he batted .422 (102-43), raising average from .260 to season-high .319...Batted .224 (241-54) the rest of the season...Included in that torrid month-long surge was a 16-game hitting streak (.500, 66-33), the O's longest of '89.

Entered '89 with a .316 lifetime average after the All-Star break and a .270 mark before, but reversed that in '89...Batted .312 the 1st half (295-92) and .236 (250-59) in the 2nd, precipitated by a 9-for-76 slump (.118), July 15-Aug 8.

BATTING: Tied a team record, and personal best, of 5 hits in a game, July 9, at Milwaukee...Had 15 hits in a 5-game span, July 7-14, tied for the 2nd best effort in club history (Jerry Adair had 16 hits over 5 games in '62)...At one point, he had 7 consecutive hits, 6th longest in club history. Batted #1 and #2 all season...Was a .289 (173-50) hitter in the leadoff spot and .272 (372-101) batting #2.

MAJOR LEAGUE RECORDS: Tied 3 major league records, 2 against Texas...Equaled a major league mark and set an A.L. standard when he reached base by way of errors 3 times in a game, Aug 4...Has been accomplished 3 other times in major league history (only one once in the last 53 years-Jerry Grote, Mets, Sep 5, '75)...Tied another major league mark on Sep 7 at Texas when he struck out 5 times, all swinging...On Aug 30 at Cleveland he delivered 2 doubles in the same inning, matching another M.L. record.

MISCELLANEOUS: Named AL "Player of the Week" for July 3-9 (29-17, .586)...Was only 2-for-12 with the bases loaded, but had club high 4 bases-loaded walks.

1989 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

QUADRUPLE DOUBLE: Was one of only 3 in the majors last season to get a "Quadruple Double" (at least 10 doubles, triples, home runs and stolen bases in a season), something he 1st did with Seattle in '87...In the majors, only Devon White (California) and Robby Thompson (San Francisco) also accomplished that feat in '89. In last 5 years has averaged 52 extra-base hits per season.

FAVORITE A.L. BALLPARKS: Batted .520 (25-13) at Milwaukee in '89 and now has a lifetime mark of .374 (99-37) at County Stadium, his best...Has a .328 (119-39) lifetime mark at Minnesota's Metrodome and a .327 (107-35) career average at Cleveland...Was 8-for-22 (.364) at the Toronto Skydome.

FIELDING: His .990 fielding average led A.L. leftfielders and was 4th overall among outfielders trailing only Cleveland's Cory Snyder, .997; Chicago's Dave Gallagher, .993 and Minnesota's Kirby Puckett, .991...Although he had only two assists, has had 52 over the last 5 years. Only 8 other major league outfielders have more during that span: Jesse Barfield-91; Glenn Wilson-70; Tony Gwynn-67; George Bell-66; Vince Coleman-63; Puckett-60; Kevin McReynolds-57; Tom Brunansky-53...In '86, finished 2nd in the A.L. in fielding with a career-high .996 mark, a Seattle club record.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Produced 93 runs (rbi + runs - hrs), 4th among A.L. rookies...Was 2nd among major league rookies with 22 stolen bases (Jerome Walton of the Cubs had 24)...Only 2 O's rookies have ever had more: Don Baylor (24 in '72) and Al Bumbry (23 in '73)...Only twice in the '80s did an Oriole have more stolen bases: Bumbry (44 in '80 and Alan Wiggins 30 in '85)

Played all 3 outfield positions (Games: LF-4, CF-79, RF-36)...Made 5 errors, 4 of them in rightfield, one in center. From May 22 thru June 22, when the O's went 23-7 to go from 18-21 to 41-28 he batted .338 (74-25)...Had 3 game-winning rbi, all coming in the O's last at bat, including 2 "sudden death" homers (see below).

Was one of two O's with 5 rbi games (Stan Jefferson was the other)...Mike's came at Texas on Sep 7 (1) when he went 3-for-5 and hit 3-run homer off Nolan Ryan...Had career-high 4-hit game vs. Milwaukee on June 8 and added 2 steals...Had 6 straight hits, June 6-8.

HOME RUNS: Homered off 3 of the toughest pitchers to hit in the A.L.--Ryan (Sep 7); Dave Stieb (Aug 20) and Jeff Russell (Aug 6), who were among the top 5 in the league with the lowest batting average against...Hit 1st major league homer off Minnesota's 17-game winner Alan Anderson at Baltimore on Apr 21.

SUDDEN DEATH BLASTS: Became the 1st rookie since Cal Ripken in '82 to hit a sudden death game-winning home run...Mike hit 2: July 15 off California's Bob McClure to give O's 11-9 win, and Aug 6 off Texas' Jeff Russell for a 3-2 win...The controversial 2-run blast off McClure capped a 4-run 9th inning which saw the O's wipe out a 9-7 deficit...The ball traveled down the leftfield line and was seemingly impossible to determine whether it was fair or foul. Umpire Jim Joyce called it fair...Combined, McClure and Russell gave up only 4 other homers all season-125 innings.

BATTING: Was batting .239 (46-11) thru May 7, but went on a tear 24-for-55 (.436) roll over next 16 games raising average to season-high .347 (101-35) on June 11...Batted only .211 (185-39) in his next 55 games dropping him to .259 on Aug 25, but he batted .286 the last 27 games...Batted .333 (39-13) from the 9th inning on...Hit .429 (7-3, BB-1, SF-1) with the bases loaded.

BY MONTH: APR (.270, 37-10, HR-1, RBI-8)...MAY (.316, 38-12, HR-1, RBI-4)...JUNE (.282, 71-20, HR-1 RBI-5)...JULY (.228, 57-13, HR-2, RBI-8)...AUG (.242, 95-23, HR-2, RBI-9)...SEP-OCT (.280, 93-26, HR-1, RBI-12).

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Made the club out of spring training as a non-roster player...Exactly one year earlier he opened the season at Class A Hagerstown...Made his major league debut on opening day and was batting #3 in the lineup...However, on his 1st fielding chance he suffered a sprained right shoulder when he crashed into the right-centerfield fence making a superb catch of a Nick Esasky drive in the 3rd inning...Placed on the 15-day disabled list, Apr 4

Reactivated from DL on April 22 and got his 1st major league hit that night, a single off Minnesota's Fred Toliver...In the 7th he singled again off Toliver to drive in go-ahead run in O's 4-1 win which put them alone in 1st place for the 1st time since May 11, '85...Three days later hit 1st major league homer off California's Willie Fraser, a 3-run blast Apr 25 in O's 8-1 win.

Batted only .196 in May and was at .186 on June 15, but hit .290 the rest of the season, including .301 (93-28) after the All-Star break.

Missed August with sprained right wrist, but went 10-for-22 in 1st 6 games after return, Sep 3-9.

Started at all 3 outfield positions (rf-32, cf-19, lf-3)...Stole 17 bases in only 81 games, 3rd highest among A.L. rookies.

SPEED: Thanks to him, and other newcomers Phil Bradley and Mike Devereaux, Orioles outfielders combined to steal 89 bases, 45 more than in '88 and 2nd most among A.L. outfields (K.C. had 97)...Had an 85%

stolen base success rate (17 of 20), 4th best in the A.L. (min. 15 sb) behind Gary Thurmond, KC, (16-16, 100%); Julio Franco, Cle, (21 of 24, 87%) and Robin Yount, Mil., (19 of 22, 86%)

Was successful in his 1st 10 stolen base attempts, through July 16...Stole 4 bases in doubleheader at Texas, Sep 7, including 3 in the 1st game, tying a club record accomplished 12 other times.

GRAND SLAM: Belted O's only grand slam, June 5 against N.Y.'s Chuck Cary in his Yankee Stadium debut...Had been 0-for-15 against lefthanded pitchers when he hit it.

MISCELLANEOUS: Batted in every spot in the lineup, except cleanup...Hit both of his triples at Texas, where he was 8-for-19 (.421)...Batted .131 (61-8) vs. the A.L. East and .295 (156-46) vs. the West...Had 13 multi-hit games, all against West teams.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1988 I.L. BATTING CHAMPION: Started the season at Class A Hagerstown, but 2 quick promotions saw him move up to Class AA Charlotte on April 16 and Class AAA Rochester 12 days later...Went on to become the 1st Rochester player to win the International League batting championship since Rich Dauer in '76...Despite missing 20 games, he also led the league in hits (143)...Started in the Triple A Alliance all-star game at Buffalo.

1987: Named to NY-Penn League all-star team... His 26 stolen bases were 4th in the league..Went 5-for-5 July 19 vs. Erie.

AMATEUR: Drafted in the 11th round by the Atlanta Braves in '86 following his junior season, but did not sign. Signed with the O's the following year after being selected in the 14th round...Twice named to the All-Missouri Valley Conference team in helping lead Southern Illinois University at Carbondale to conference titles in '84 and '86...A 3rd team all-America in '86... Played on the '86 Team USA which won bronze medal in international competition in the Netherlands...Played baseball and was team MVP at Paducah Tilghman (KY) High School, where he graduated in '83.

PERSONAL: Earned a degree in physiology from SIU-Carbondale...Was accepted to chiropractic school (Logan College in St. Louis), but chose baseball instead... Spent off-season hunting quail and geese, and refereeing basketball games... Single.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

His 51 appearances were the most by an Orioles lefthander since '84 (Tippy Martinez had 55 in '84)...When he made his debut with the O's on Apr 3, it was his 1st big league appearance since July 31, '83...Had gone 5 years, 8 months, and 3 days between major league games...His win June 3 at Detroit, was his 1st since June 17, '83

All but 13 of his 51 appearances were scoreless, including 22 of his 1st 26 thru June 28 (2.13 era, ip-25.1, er-6), but was scored on in 9 of his last 25...Allowed more than one run only twice.

In his 1st appearance against his former team, the White Sox on May 12, he picked up his 1st save since May 7, '83...Allowed only 3 of first 22 inherited runners to score, but 12 of 48 on the season.

Had a save and a win in consecutive games at Detroit: June 2 he saved a 4-1 win for Bob Milacki and the next night he was a 4-2 winner over Doyle Alexander.

Didn't allow a hit in his last 7 appearances of '89, but walked 4 of the 12 batters he faced during that span.

TOUGH ON LEFTIES: Held lefthanded batters to a .206 (68-14) average, including a combined 1-for-17 by Wade Boggs (0-5), Don Mattingly (1-4), George Brett (0-5), and Harold Baines (0-3)...That group hit a collective .310 against the rest of the A.L.

SHORT MAN: Faced an average of only 3.9 men per appearance, 2nd lowest in the A.L. behind Seattle's Keith Comstock, 3.58...His longest outing was 2.2 innings and he did it only twice: July 7 at Milwaukee and Aug 12 vs. Boston...Has pitched more than 3 innings only 4 times in 175 big league appearances.

MINORS, '84-'88: Spent time in the White Sox, Yankees, Phillies and Giants organizations...Released by all 4 teams...Played with 9 different teams in 5 years...Had his best season in '84, when he finished 3rd in the Eastern League with 11 saves...Invited to spring training with Yankees in '85 and again by Orioles in '88...At Rochester in '88, was 3rd on staff in appearances (27) and games finished (11).

WHITE SOX, '81-'83: Made his major league debut on Apr 14, '81 at home against Milwaukee...Gave up 1st major league hit 4 games later on Apr 23 to Baltimore's Ken Singleton...Finished 3rd on the club in appearances (41)...Was unscored upon in 10 of his 1st 11 major league appearances in '82, he finished 9th in the A.L. in appearances (60) and led the Sox in the Chisox in era (3.00)...Gave up 4 homers that season, 3 of them to the Orioles (Cal Ripken, Gary Roenicke, and Eddie Murray)...In '83, developed sore elbow and didn't pitch the last 2 months...Wasn't eligible for '83 league championship series vs. Orioles.

EARLY MINOR LEAGUE CAREER: In '80, his 3rd year in pro ball, he was named the White Sox "Minor League Player of the Year" by the Pitch and Hit Club of Chicago...Winner of the Silver Glove award as the best fielding pitcher in all of the minor leagues in '80...Handled 61 chances without an error and started 8 double plays.

UNIQUE DISCOVERY: Graduated from Kelly High School after also attending St. Rita H.S. (alma mater of Orioles' advance scout Ed Farmer), but did not play baseball at either place...He worked at a steel company following graduation...It was while playing softball and leading the team (the Bobcats) to the 16-inch softball world championship in '76, that he began to be noticed...After switching to a semi-pro team, the Markham Cardinals, he was given a summer tryout in '78 and offered a contract by the White Sox and General Manager Roland Hemond.

PERSONAL: He and his wife, Terri, have 2 daughters: Kristen (2/9/84) and Jessica (3/4/87)...During the off-season he took karate lessons and helped coach a youth ice hockey team in the Baltimore area.

ONLY ORIOLE TO HOMER 1ST TIME UP

Righthanded pitcher Leslie "Buster" Narum is the only Oriole ever to hit a home run in his first major league plate appearance. He entered a game in Detroit on May 3, '63 in relief of Chuck Estrada, and homered in the 4th inning off lefthander Don Mossi with John Orsino aboard. It was to be for Buster, a long time Orioles farmhand, his only at bat in a Baltimore uniform.

The Orioles won the game, but Narum, who worked 2.2 scoreless innings, was not a pitcher of record. The win went to Wes Stock.That was the first of 7 appearances, all in relief, Narum made for the O's...He was 0-0 with 0 saves before being dealt to the Washington Senators (those pesky Nats) the following year.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

In his 1st-ever A.L. game, was the winner on Opening Day, Apr 3 vs. Boston, pitching 4.1 innings of scoreless relief in O's 5-4 thriller...Split time between starting and relief...Came out of the bullpen in 11 games through May 14...Started 11 of his next 12 appearances through July 19..

Finished the season pitching in relief, except Aug 14 vs the Tigers in a "shared" start with Mark Thurmond and Dave Schmidt (see below)...Closed out season strong, going 1-1 with 2.00 era and only one walk in 5 games (ip-9) in September.

IN RELIEF: He was 2-4 with a 4.37 era in 27 games (ip-59.2, h-72, r-35, er-29, hr-6, bb-21, so-25)...O's were 6-21 in games he pitched...Pitched as much as 4 complete innings 5 times...His longest stint was 4.2 innings, Apr 28 at Seattle (absorbed the 11-5 loss)...Wins came vs Boston, Apr 3 and at Chicago, Sep 2...Lost at Minnesota, Apr 8; Boston, Apr 17; Seattle, Apr 28 and home vs New York, Sep 22.

STARTING: Was 3-3 with 3.65 era in 12 starts (ip-56.2, h-68, r-28, er-23, hr-5, bb-18, so-26)...Beat Texas, May 29, for his 1st ML win as a starter...Won back-to-back starts, July 8 at Milwaukee and July 14 vs. California...Beat the Brewers, 5-2, giving up 2 unearned runs in personal-high 6.1 innings, while striking out 4...Defeated the Angels, 6-4, striking out 5.

Also fanned 4 in 6 innings, May 21 vs. Cleveland, losing 2-0...Lost June 16[1] vs Oakland and July 19 vs. Seattle...Pitched 6-plus innings of a no-decision vs. Toronto, June 28, game won by O's, 2-1...O's were 9-3 in his starts, including 4-0 in starts vs Nolan Ryan (Texas), Ted Higuera (Milwaukee), Kirk McCaskill (California) and Jack Morris (Detroit).

EXPERIMENTAL START: With O's short on fresh pitchers, Manager Frank Robinson split the chores for the Aug 14 game at Detroit...Holton started (ip-3, h-2, er-1, bb-0, so-1)...He was followed on the mound by Thurmond (3 innings), Schmidt (win; 3 innings) and Gregg Olson (save #18) in the 10-inning, 4-1 victory.

CAREER STARTER: He was 1-2 with a 4.86 era in 4 N.L. starts, 3 in '86 and the other in '87 (ip-16.2, h-19, r-9, er-9, hr-1, bb-5, so-14)...His career line as a starter is 4-5 in 16 games with a 3.93 era (ip-73.1, er-32).

BEST MONTHS/TEAMS: Was 1-1 with 1.77 era in May last year...All-time, he is 3-1 with 1.70 era in that month...Ironically, his career highs in wins (6) and era (4.60) come in the same month, July...Excelled against Brewers, 1-0, 0.84 (ip-10.2, er-1) in 2 games and Texas, 1-0, 1.23 (ip7.1, er-1) in 2 games.

1988: Served as the set-up man in the world champion Dodgers' bullpen, which led the N.L. in wins (27) saves (49) and era (2.35)...Had the lowest ERA on the staff and the 2nd best winning percentage (behind Orel Hershiser).

Was scored against on Aug 14 vs S.F., but his next inning was scoreless, starting a string over his final 9 regular season appearances (16.2 additional innings) without allowing a run (streak was extended to 22 between including Opening Day, '89).

His 1.70 era was the 2nd lowest in the majors among pitchers with 75 or more innings (following Cincinnati's John Franco-1.57)...Worked a career-high 84.2 innings and allowed only one homer all season (to Terry Pendleton, at St. Louis, July 20)...Only Mets' Roger McDowell had a better ratio (one homer in 89 innings).

Earned one save in regular season, June 26 at Cincinnati), but also added another during postseason (see below).

POST SEASON: In 4 appearances, over 6 innings, allowed only 2 hits and one run...Saved Dodgers' 7-4 win in game #5 of the NLCS at New York, working 1 2/3 innings of scoreless relief...Pitched in game #1 of World Series and combined with Tim Leary and Alejandro Pena to shut out Oakland over the last 7 innings...Dodgers won, 5-4, in dramatic fashion in the 9th on Kirk Gibson's 2-out, 2-run homer.

VS. NATIONAL LEAGUE: Was 3-0 vs the Cubs in '88, giving him a 4-0 lifetime mark...Career against the Mets he allowed only one earned run in 15 innings (0.60) and was 1-0.

1987-1988 DODGERS WORKHORSE: Over those 2 years, his 1st full seasons in the majors, he appeared in 98 games, more than any other Dodger...Compiled 10-5 mark, with a 2.77 era (ip-168.2, er-52).

1986: Recalled on Aug 19 from Albuquerque, but season ended abruptly Oct 1 when he was hit by a line drive off the bat of Marvell Wynne and suffered a fractured right wrist...Overall, that season with L.A. and Albuquerque, he walked only 26 batters in 207 innngs.

1985, LONG AWAITED DEBUT: After 8 full seasons in the minors and 181 minor league appearances, his major league debut came Sep 9 at Atlanta, winning in relief over Bruce Sutter.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER

Pitched a total of 9 seasons in the minors and compiled an 85-58 record and a 4.01 era (ip-1253.1, er-559) in 208 games, 180 starts...Spent parts of 6 seasons ('81-'86) at Albuquerque (AAA, Pacific Coast League) and was 54-39 there with a 4.26 era (ip-844.1 er-400) in 144 games, 123 starts.

Had "Tommy John" surgery on his right elbow Sep 21, '83, when Dr. Frank Jobe (who did a similar operation on John) took a ligament from Holton's right wrist and placed it in his ailing right shoulder...While recuperating, saw only limited duty in '84..

His best season was '80 at San Antonio (AA) when he led the Texas League with 15 wins and 16 complete games. Only one other pitcher in all of pro baseball had more cg (Oakland's Rick Langford-28).

AMATEUR CAREER: Played at Louisburg (NC) Junior College in '78 and was 9-1 with a 0.75 era...Pitched a no-hitter in last college game against Lenior College and struck out 15...Named JUCO All-America...Attended Elizabeth Forward High School in Elizabeth, PA, where he was named all-league in baseball, football and basketball... Led his team to the Pennsylvania State baseball championships in '75.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

ORIOLES: Came up from Rochester Aug 23 when Bill Ripken went on the disabled list, but served as an immediate replacement for 3rd base-man Craig Worthington who was also injured but not on the DL... Started 8 games at 3rd (Rene Gonzales was playing 2nd)..When Worthington returned on Aug 31, Hulett moved to 2nd, and started 22 of the O's last 29 games there.

Went 5-for-5 with the bases loaded, and drove in 9 of the 15 runners aboard in those situations...Batted .440 (25-11) with runners in scoring position...Batted .419 (31-13) at Memorial Stadium, and now has a .382 (76-29) career average in Baltimore...

He drove in 9 runs in his 1st 13 games, capping that stretch on Sep 4 with a game-winning, "sudden death," 2-out, 9th inning homer off Cleveland's Rod Nichols who had just retired 15 straight Orioles batters. Hit .351 (37-13) with 9 rbi over his last 11 games...Went 4-for-6 Sep 20 at home against the Tigers.

Tim's home run off Chuck Cary at Yankee Stadium on Aug 24 (1st game) was his 1st in the big leagues since May 25, '87 when he connected against KC in Comiskey Park...He hit 3 home runs in 33 games for the O's, and 3 for Rochester in 122 games.

Went 6-for-8 vs. the Tigers (.750) and batted .389 (18-7) against the Indians...Has a career high .304 (102-31) average and 20 rbi vs the Cleveland...Has hit 5 home runs against both the Indians and Tigers.

Fielded .976 (tc-123, e-3) in 23 games at 2nd base and .957 (tc-22, e-1) in 11 games at 3rd.

ROCHESTER: Led the Red Wings with 32 doubles and 12 triples, was 2nd in the league in both categories (tied in 2bh)...His 47 extra base hits were 2nd on the club only to Butch Davis' 48...Started the season in a deep slump, and after 17 games (thru May 5) was batting .127 (55-7)...From then on, in 105 games, he batted .300 (406-122) for the Red Wings.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1988: Tim had spent all 8 pro seasons in the White Sox system when he was dealt to the Montreal Expos (4/13/88) who in turn assigned him to Indianapolis...He was bothered much of the year by "jammed toe" which required post-season surgery, and he batted only .234 in 126 games, but he was 3rd on the club in doubles (29) and rbi (59).

He was chosen "MVP" in the 1st Alliance championship (American Association vs International League, like the old "Little World Series") in which Indianapolis defeated Rochester in a best of season final series (4 games to 2)..Tim batted .286 in the 6 games, with 5 rbi and 4 runs scored... He was released by Montreal shortly thereafter.

WHITE SOX: Was the White Sox' starting 3rd baseman opening day '87, and led the club with 3 homers, 14 rbi and a .297 (74-22) average through May 1...However, he hit only .181 (166-30) over the next 43 games, and was as-signed to Hawaii July 26...He returned to Chicago July 30 for a 2-week stay (as a roster replacement for the injured Donnie Hill, then spent the balance of the season in Hawaii.

In '86, Tim hit a career-high 17 homers, tying Ron Kittle for 2nd on the club behind Harold Baines(21)...He hit only one in his first 39 games, and only 4 thru July 5 (70 games)...Then he blasted 11 in his next 35 games thru Aug 16 including 5 in one stretch of 9 games (8/8 thru 16)...His 29 multiple hit games were 3rd on the club...Experienced an 0-for-23 downspell in Sep...Started 56 games at 2nd and 81 at 3rd.

His 1st full season in the majors was 1985...He started 96 games at 3rd and 20 at 2nd...Was batting .375 (72-27) after 34 games thru May 31, and remained over .300 until June 28...Hit his 1st home run off the Orioles' Dennis Martinez on May 15 in Chicago...Finished the year with an 8-game hitting streak.

A strong showing in the White Sox 1984 spring camp earned Tim a spot in the opening day lineup...However, after appearing in only 8 games (7 at bats) he was assigned to Denver where he spent the rest of the year, and where he amassed 54 extra base hits (2b-32, 3b-6, hr-16)...Led the Bears in homers.

Made his big league debut vs Seattle Sep 15, 1983...Started for the 1st time on Sep 21 vs Minnesota...In his 1st 8 major league games, the White Sox were victims of 2 no-hitters (by Oakland's Mike Warren Sep 29 and by Detroit's Jack Morris Apr 7, '84).

EARLIER MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS: Had career high .273 average and 88 rbi with Denver in '83, his 1st year at the AAA level...Helped Denver to a sweep of Louisville in the American Association championship with a title-clinching rbi (sac fly).

Was named in '82 by Baseball America as the top 2nd baseman at the "AA" level...Led the Eastern League with 114 runs scored that year.

PERSONAL/AMATEUR CAREER: Played basketball, football and baseball at Lanphier H.S. in his native Springfield, IL...Led city conference in average, home runs and stolen bases in each of his 4 years there...Attended the University of South Florida (Tampa) where he played one year for former Orioles pitcher and Hall of Famer Robin Roberts. Set a school record in '79 with 19 doubles...Also attended Miami Dade-North Community College and established a school home run standard with 14 in '80.

Married to the former Linda Ferguson...They have 4 sons: Tug(2/28/83), Joe(4/9/84), Sam (4/8/86) and Jeff (11/16/87).

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

The 29-year-old rookie from Baltimore captured the hearts of Orioles fans... After being acquired from the Houston organization just before start of season and assigned to Rochester, Johnson's contract was purchased by the O's on Aug 1 and he wound up tying for club lead with 4 complete games...Had 3 complete game wins, all in a 15-day period.

Before joining the Orioles, he had made 318 appearances, all but 5 in the minor leagues.

Lost his A.L. debut, 6-2, at Boston the day he joined the club (Aug 1), but went 4-1 in his next 5 starts (2.92, ip-37, er-12) with 3 complete games... Named A.L. "Player of the Week" his 2nd week with the Orioles, Aug 7-13, when he won his 2nd and 3rd career starts via complete games at home over the majors' 2 top hitting teams: Boston and Minnesota.

In his Memorial Stadium debut, before 20-30 relatives and hundreds of friends, he beat the Twins, 6-1, on Aug 8 for his 1st M.L. win...Five days later, he beat Boston by the same score.

GIDP: Bounced into 22 double plays in '89 to boost his career total to 162, still a long way from the club record of 297 held by Brooks Robinson...Cal does, however, hold the club mark for one season, 32 in '85.

FIELDING

Cal has led the league in putouts 3 times, assists 5 times (in the last 7 years), total chances 3 times and double plays 4 times...He has also led league shortstops in games on 4 occasions (Tony Fernandez led in '85-162 and '86-163).

CAL AND BILL: He and brother Bill teamed up on 54 double plays in '89 plus one triple play, the 1st in the majors for both and the 1st for the O's since June 10, '79...It was at Baltimore on June 15 against the Yankees...Steve Balboni lined to Cal who threw to Bill to get Steve Sax for the 2nd out, then Bill relayed to Randy Milligan to erase Don Mattingly.

*-Led American League +-American League Record

ASSISTS RECORD: In '84 he established an A.L. record with 583 assists, breaking Roy Smalley's '79 mark of 572. That year, he also led major league shortstops in assists as well as total chances (906).

NET CHANCES: His 880 successful total chances (net chances, excluding errors) in '84 were the most by an A.L. shortstop since the Twins' Leo Cardenas handled the same number in '69...The only major league shortstop to have handled more net chances in one season since World War II was the Cardinals' Ozzie Smith (909 in '80).

He has led league in net chances 3 times ('83-806, '84-880, '89-807); finished 2nd twice ('85 when Fernandez beat him out for league leadership by one chance, 761 to 760, & '88), and 3rd once ('86).

3RD BASE: Played both 3rd and short after 1st coming up in August '81, but started '82 as O's regular 3rd baseman...In 77 games at 3rd ('81-6, '82-71), he has a .971 percentage (tc-232, e-7).

Played there the last time July 8, '82 at Seattle, after starting game at shortstop...Started for the last time at 3rd on June 30, '82 in Baltimore vs Cleveland.

ERRORLESS GAMES: His string of 47 straight errorless games last year (239 chances) from Aug 5 thru Sep 23 was the longest of his career...He had a 37-game streak at short in '87 (June 28 thru Aug 9), and a 44-game skein at 3rd base in '82 (Apr 24 thru June 14).

MAJOR HONORS AND AWARDS

BART GIAMATTI "CARING AWARD": Cal was chosen last December as the 1st winner of the "Bart Giamatti Caring Award," initiated by the Baseball Alumni Team (B.A.T.) in honor of the late Baseball Commissioner who died Sep 1, '89.

At the time of the announcement, B.A.T. Chairman Ralph Branca said, "Cal is the ideal person to receive this first award. He and his wife contributed $250,000 to fight illiteracy in Baltimore. Just as Bart Giamatti was a caring person, so is Cal Ripken Jr. Giamatti's devotion to baseball and education is mirrored in the things that Cal has done."

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

ORIOLES' TOP 10: He ranks among the top Orioles of all time in some 12 offensive categories: Games (1,315-8th), At Bats (5,055-7th), Runs (793-4th), Hits (1,402-7th), Doubles (266-4th), Triples (24-8th), Homers (204-4th), Total Bases (2,328-4th), RBI (744-5th), Extra-Base Hits (494-4th), Walks (554-6th) and Game Winning Rbi (98-4th)...See O's Batting Leaders on page 20.

ARTIFICIAL TURF: Though he batted only .234 (107-25) on ersatz grass in '89 (in KC, Min, Sea, Tor), Cal's career average is .302 (792-239) in artificial turf environments.

CYCLE: Opponents have hit for the cycle 5 times against the Orioles (see page 22), but only 2 O's have performed that trick in 36 seasons, Brooks Robinson and Cal...Rip did it in Texas May 6, '84...He homered off Dave Tobik in his final at bat to complete the job...He went 4-for-5 that day with 2 rbi...Brooks cycled at Chicago July 15, '60.

IN THE CLUTCH: Led the Orioles in tying/go ahead runs produced by a wide margin with 37 (Mickey Tettleton was 2nd with 22)...Drove in 8 tying runs and 29 lead runs...His 14 gwrbi (the now defunct statistic) also led the club and raised his career total to 98, 4th on the O's all-time list).

He's finished 1st (3 times) or 2nd (5 times to Eddie Murray) on the club in tying/go ahead rbi in each of his 8 full seasons...His year-by-year totals: '82-36 (#2); '83-33 (#2); '84-25 (#2); '85-40 (#2); '86-33 (#1); '87-40 (#1); '88-26 (#2), '89-37 (#1).

With men in scoring position, he batted .255 (165-42) last year with 22 walks, 6 sac flies and a hit by pitch...Lifetime he is batting .282 (1227-346) in that situation.

With the bases loaded, Cal struggled throughout '89...He was 1-for-14 (.071) with 2 walks and 2 sac flies, and scored 6 of 54 runners (11.1%)...The club average was 20% scored...Lifetime, he is batting .233 (90-21) with 2 grand slams, and has scored 59 of 303 runners (19.5%).

HOME RUNS: Has been remarkably consistent in annual home run production... His totals in 8 full years, starting '82, are: 28, 27, 27, 26, 25, 27, 23, 21...His annual average is 25.5...Went 40 games without a home run in '89 (Apr 10 thru May 28), and 29 games between homers once in '88 (See "Individual Batting, '88 & Lifetime" on page 81).

VS OPPONENTS: See "Orioles vs Opponents" section, pp 52-72 for more details...Has never missed a game against the Red Sox (104), Twins (96) and Rangers (96)...Has career high .337 average (368-124) against the Twins. He's also hit over .300 against Texas (.306, 382-117) and Chicago (.305, 361-110)...He's homered most (23 times) vs Chicago, and driven in the most runs (72) against both the White Sox and Brewers.

His 10 home runs against the Red Sox and 41 rbi vs Oakland are lifetime lows.

On the road, he has homered 99 times total, 11 of them at Tiger Stadium and 10 at both Comiskey Park and Minnesota's Metrodome...Under roof in Minneapolis, he is batting .368 (190-70) with 38 rbi and 21 extra-base hits (2b-11) in 48 games.

JAPAN TRIPS: Has a cumulative .353 average (68-24) on 2 trips to Japan...Cal accompanied the Orioles on a 14-game trip in '84 and batted .315 (54-17) with 4 homers and 9 rbi as the O's went 8-5-1...Two years later, in '86, he accompanied a U.S. Major League All-Star team that went 6-1 against an assortment of all-stars from Japan's Central and Pacific Leagues...Cal led that team in batting (.500, 14-7, 2b-2, hr-2, rbi-6) while splitting shortstop chores with the Cardinals' Ozzie Smith.

EJECTIONS: Has been ejected twice, both times in Baltimore: Sep 25, '87 by Tim Welke (vs Yankees) and Aug 7, '89 by Drew Coble (vs Minnesota)...In the latter case, he was thrown out in the 1st inning with an 0-2 count on him after the 1st 2 Orioles batters had been called out on strikes...Brother Bill has not been ejected from a big league game while Cal Sr has been tossed 26 times (see his biography).

ON THE ROAD: He has hit better on the road than at home in 7 of his 8 full seasons which explains why he's batting .285 lifetime (2615-744) away from home and .270 (2440-658) at Memorial Stadium.

home run over the last 16 games of the season after connecting in Baltimore off the White Sox' Bill Long on Sep 11.

Led the club in hits (166), doubles (30) and rbi (93), and finished 2nd to Mickey Tettleton in homers (26 to 21)...Arrested a 5-year progressive decline in hits...His '89 total was more than either '87 or '88...The total had dipped every year since he led the majors in '83 with 211.

Recorded 51 extra-base hits (2b-30, hr-21), and now has 494 over the last 8 years. In the A.L., only Dwight Evans (500) has more over that period...Dale Murphy's 518 leads the majors in that span, beginning '82.

He had 3 hits and Brother Bill had 4 at Boston on Aug 2, the night the O's came from 0-6 to win after losing 13 of their previous 14 games...The only brother combo to have exceeded that total, we think, were Paul and Lloyd Waner who had 3 and 5 respectively for the Pirates on June 25, '32, according to research by Al Kermisch.

Batted 4th in the O's 1st 28 games, but was moved up to the 3rd spot permanently on May 11 (one exception: he batted 2nd on July 8).

IRONMAN

CONSECUTIVE GAMES: The 1,250-game streak began May 30, '82, the day after Floyd Rayford subbed for him at 3rd base in the 2nd game of a doubleheader vs. the Blue Jays at Baltimore.

It has been the longest streak in the majors since Dale Murphy's 740-game skein ended July 9, '86...The 3 longest streaks previous to Cal's in Orioles history were by Brooks Robinson (463), Eddie Murray (444) and Billy Gardner (361).

Cal, who has played in every Orioles game in each of the last 7 years, is one of 5 Orioles to have played every game in a season at least once: Brooks and Murray-4 times, Gardner and Bobby Grich, once each.

Everett Scott (1,307), also a shortstop and the current runner-up to Lou Gehrig (2,130), had a streak 57 games longer than Cal's at the start of this season. Scott, who played most of his big league career with the Red Sox and Yankees, was an old Oriole as well...He played 109 games for Jack Dunn's International League O's, and batted .335 with 11 home runs in '27...See Top 10 Streaks All Time on page 260.

CONSECUTIVE INNINGS: His streak of 8,243 straight innings (spanning 904 games), believed to be the longest of its kind in major league history, began June 5, '82 (6 days and 5 games after the start of his consecutive games string) at Minnesota...The day before (June 4), Jim Dwyer had pinch hit for him in the 9th inning, also at Minnesota...The 82 post-season innings he played in '83 are NOT included in these figures.

The innings streak ended Sep 14, '87 in Toronto when he didn't take the field for the bottom of the 8th in an 18-3 Toronto walkover (Ron Washington replaced him defensively)...That was the game in which the Jays hit a major league record 10 home runs.

During his current 1,250-game streak, the Orioles have played 12,412 regular season innings, and Cal has been a part of 12,380 of them (99.74%)...He missed only 14 of the O's 1,487 innings in '89.

At the time that both his games and innings streaks began, Cal was playing 3rd base...He moved to shortstop on July 1, '82...Since that defensive transition, he has missed only 31 innings defensively.

Noted baseball researcher L. Robert Davids determined some years ago that the previous leaders in the consecutive innings category were a couple of former Red Sox who played in the Hub City during the early 1900s--Buck Freeman and Candy LaChance. Freeman, a 1st baseman, played every inning over some 534 games (7/28/01-6/5/05), and outfielder LaChance missed nary a canto over a span of 424 games (5/23/02 to 4/28/05).

Rip, whose innings streak covered some 5 1/2 seasons, was the 1st to have played every inning for at least 2 straight years since Rudy York with the Tigers in '40-'41...In addition to Cal & Freeman , only one other major leaguer has played every inning for at least 3 years (not necessarily consecutive)...That was "Marcus Hook" Mickey Vernon in '42, '47 & '53 with those pesky Nats...The only other Oriole to play every inning in one season was Eddie Murray in '84 (including 3 games as dh).

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Led major league shortstops in both home runs and rbi for the 6th time in the last 7 years (exception: '87-Alan Trammell) while enjoying his best year ever defensively...He also led major league shortstops in putouts (276), assists (531), total chances (815) and double plays (119), and fielded a career-high .9902.

That was just .0002 off the old Eddie Brinkman A.L. record, but only 2nd in the league to Toronto's Tony Fernandez who erased the Brinkman standard by fielding .992 (tc-741, e-6) in '89... Cal made only 8 errors, 13 fewer than in '88 (21), and put together a career-high 47 consecutive errorless game streak (239 tc)...See "Fielding" below.

For the 7th straight year, Cal played every game...He was one of 6 in the majors to answer the call every day: '89: Ruben Sierra (Tex); Joe Carter (Cle); Dave Gallagher (Chi); Jose Oquendo (StL) and Bobby Bonilla (Pit)...

Started his 6th straight All-Star Game at shortstop, an A.L. record...The only shortstop to have started more consecutive games is N.L. contemporary Ozzie Smith who started for the the 7th straight time in '89. See "All Star Game" below.

Cal also became the 1st shortstop ever to hit 20 or more home runs in 8 straight seasons...That broke a tie with Hall of Famer Ernie Banks who hit 20 or more long balls for 7 straight years at that position ('55 thru '61)...See "vs Cleveland" under "Game Highlights, Sep 5" for dramatic details of his 20th homer almost stolen by Brad Komminsk.

Junior's career total of 196 home runs at shortstop (204 total) is 3rd on the all-time list behind Banks (293) and a former Oriole, the late Vern Stephens (213)...Is one of 4 actives who has hit 20 or more in each of last 8 campaigns: Tom Brunansky, Dwight Evans and Dale Murphy.

Chosen the American League's "Smartest Player" (baseball sense) by A.L. Managers in a Toronto Sun survey...Was 2nd in the vote for the Lou Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award behind Gregg Olson (see "Major Honors & Awards").

He was named to the: A.P. Major League All Star Team; the USA Today A.L. All-Stars; The Sporting News A.L. All Star Team (for the 4th time-'83, '84, '85, '89), and received his 5th Silver Slugger Award from TSN as the most productive shortstop in the A.L. ('83, '84, '85, '86, '89)...He also won the 1st "Bart Giamatti Caring Award" presented by the Baseball Alumni Team (See "Major Awards" below), and was honored by the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club at its annual dinner in January.

Started and finished slowly...Was 4-for-36 (.111) in his 1st 9 games, and 12-for-75 (.160) in his last 21 (starting 2nd game Sep 7)...In between he batted .280 (535-150) in 132 games...In '82 he'd gone 7-for-60 (.117) in his 1st 18 games, and in '88 was 2-for-43 (.047) (including an 0-for-29) after 12 games.

Reached a season high of .313 on May 18...His highest average after the break was .279 on Aug 2...His late season low was .256 on Sep 26...Was last at or above .300 (.301) on June 5 (216-65)...Batted .235 (430-101) the rest of the way...September (including Oct 1) was his worst month for the 2nd straight year...He hit only .198 (101-20) in '89 and .216 (102-22) in '88.

After a critical 3-run homer off Roger Clemens opening day, and a 2-run smash 4 games later off Frank Viola, Cal went 40 games without a home run, until connecting against Nolan Ryan on May 29...That was the longest homerless streak of his career...He also went without hitting a FAMILY: For full particulars, see Cal Senior's biography on page 132.

STREAK: His current stretch of 1,250 consecutive games represents the 3rd longest streak in baseball history...He hasn't missed a game since the nightcap of a doubleheader on May 29, '82...He has played the equivalent of 7 3/4 straight seasons without missing a game (or a start)...See "Ironman" below for details.

TALLEST: Is tallest ever to play shortstop regularly in the majors. Ray Busse (Houston, '71-'74), and former Orioles Enos Cabell and Jamie Quirk, are among 7 others 6'4" tall who have played some shortstop.

over Chicago...Worked 6 innings, longest stint of season...Next start on June 23 he lost 10-0 to Minnesota, and made only one start the rest of the season.

That lone start came at Boston against the Orioles on Aug 2...At the time, 2nd-place Boston trailed the 1st-place O's by one game...Price took a 6-0 lead into the 6th inning, but after yielding a solo homer to Mickey Tettleton and a single to Keith Moreland, he struck out Randy Milligan and then left the game...O's went on to blast the Red Sox bullpen and eventually win 9-8 to remain in 1st...Price struck out a season-high 8 batters that game.

CAREER NOTES: His 322 major league appearances are 147 more than any other Orioles' pitcher...Has averaged 6.45 strikeouts per 9 innings, 32nd among active pitchers (500 career innings)...While in the N.L., did his best pitching against the Dodgers (6-3, 2.76 era, ip-84.2, er-26)...In 238 relief appearances he is 13-12 with 13 saves (3.20 era, ip-337, er-120)...In 84 starts, he is 29-33 (3.95 era, (ip-503.2, er-221).

GIANTS, '87-'88: Signed an AAA contract with the Giants in February, '87 and was invited to spring training...Began the season at Phoenix, but was recalled July 5 and wound up with the lowest era on the staff...Opponents batted just .154 (123-19) against him.

Was the club's most effective pitcher in the NLCS vs St. Louis...Pitched 5 innings of 1-hit relief to earn a 6-4 victory in game #5, giving Giants a 3-2 lead...They eventually lost, 4 games to 3. In '88, inflamed left shoulder put him on the disabled list twice...Still, his 35 relief appearances were 3rd on the staff.

1986: Beat St. Louis for his only win on May 30, lowering era to 3.33, but pitched only 8 times the rest of the season and gave up 15 runs in 17.1 innings...Disabled in August.

1984: Allowed 3 runs or less in 24 of 30 starts...Had 8 no decisions in games he left either ahead or tied...His 13 losses included scores of 1-0, 2-0, 2-1, and 3-1...June 3 vs. Atlanta, lost a no-hitter in the 7th inning and left after 8 with score 0-0...Threw 1st complete game shutout, July 27 vs. LA.

1983: Had made only one start in his previous 100 appearances, but was converted back to a starter during spring training...Named N.L. "Pitcher of the Month" in July and thru that point had the league's 5th best era (2.58), and was averaging nearly 8 innings in his 18 starts...Inflamed left shoulder kept him out for most of the remainder of the season...Pitched twice the last 2 months...Finished 7th in era.

1981: Converted from starter to short reliever by Manager John McNamara...While the Reds were on their way to the best record in baseball, had the best era on the staff...Didn't allow a run in 13 appearances after Sep 1.

1980: Beat J.R. Richard at Houston on June 28 for his 1st major league victory...The Reds' top rookie also had wins over 3 other former 20-game winners: Randy Jones, Phil Niekro and Jim Kaat...Allowed 2 runs or less in 9 of his 13 starts...Was 0-3 vs San Francisco, 7-0 against the rest of the N.L.

MINORS: Was "mvp" of Billings team in his 1st season, '77...In '78, he was 2nd in the Florida State League in era (1.47).

AMATEUR: Graduated from Santana High School (Santee, CA)...Played collegiately at Oklahoma State University and University of Oklahoma.

PERSONAL: He and his wife, LeeAnn, have 2 children: Ryan (10/26/79) and Andrea (8/3/88).

BOBBY YOUNG THE FIRST

The late Bobby Young, native of Granite, MD near BWI Airport, was the 1st to bat in a regular season game for the modern A.L. Orioles...He grounded out leading off the 1st inning at Detroit on Apr 13, '54.

Adrianna Venditti during the 1988 all-star break..They have a son, Joseph Jr (8/4/89).

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Led the club in batting for the 2nd year in a row, having hit .288 and .285 in 2 A.L. seasons, though he had less than the necessary 502 plate appearances to qualify....Hit .444 (9-4) with bases loaded, but his lifetime average is even better, .500 (12-6, with a walk, sac hit and sac fly).

Has driven in 15 of the 45 runners on base while batting with the bases loaded...His average was the 8th highest for a lefthanded batter (minimum 400 plate appearances).

Enjoyed what was easily his most productive major league season, and almost doubled his previous rbi high (53 to 27 in '88)....Before '89 he had driven in 71 runs in 1,255 big league at bats (1/17.67 at bats)...Last year, however, he averaged one rbi every 7.2 at bats...He drove in more than 31% of all runners in scoring position (43 of 137), best rate among all Orioles with 200 or more at bats...Drove in 17 tie/lead runs (tied for 4th on the club).

His .400 average (15-6) as a pinch hitter was the league's highest among those with 15 or more pinch-hitting at bats.

Was batting .310 on July 6 (213-66), hit only .160 (75-12) over the next month, then batted .324 (102-33) from Aug 6 to the end of the season, raising his average from a season low .271 to a final .285.

Was the only Oriole to walk more (41) than he struck out (35)...Started 99 games, and batted in all 9 positions in the order at one time or other, but mostly he hit #3 (12), #4 (14), #5 (37)...Had a career high 34 extra-base hits.

Hit a sprightly .373 (59-22) in 19 games on artificial turf, compared to .269 (331-89) on real grass. Batted .296 (196-58) on the road and .273 (194-53) at home...Hit all 7 of his home runs on the road...Hasn't hit one in Memorial Stadium since he connected off Jim Clancy on Sep 9, '88.

Has enjoyed substantial and consistent success against 4 clubs in his 2 A.L. seasons: vs Toronto-.380 (50-19), vs. Cleveland-.364 (66-24), vs New York-.352 (71-25) and vs. Seattle-.333 (60-20)...He's been particularly effective in the following 4 road stadiums lifetime: SkyDome (.381, 21-8), Yankee Stadium (.414, 29-12), Cleveland Stadium (.424, 33-14) and Kingdome (.452, 31-14).

Led O's with 10 outfield assists, one of 11 in the league with double figures.

Enjoyed a number of big days in '89, but none bigger than Aug 26 against the Yankees in New York...He was 3-for-3, hit 2 homers (both off Walt Terrell) for the 1st time in his career, scored 4 runs and drove in 3 while batting in the cleanup spot before a national tv audience (NBC). It

Fifty two of his 64 appearances were scoreless and only 4 times did he allow more than one run, all on the road...Finished 2nd on the staff in strikeouts...Amassed 75 points in the Rolaids Relief Man Standings, 5th in the A.L. and 58 more points than any other major league rookie.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: Became the 6th Oriole, first O's pitcher, to win the BBWAA award...The others: Ron Hansen ('60); Curt Blefary ('65); Al Bumbry ('73); Eddie Murray ('77) and Cal Ripken ('82)...First A.L. East player to win it since Cal Jr. in '82.

Olson won the award while capturing 26 of 28 1st place votes...The voting breakdown: Olson 136 points (26 1st place); Tom Gordon, K.C., 67 points (one 1st place); Ken Griffey Jr., Sea., 21 points (one 1st place); Craig Worthington, Orioles, 16 points; Jim Abbott, Cal., 10 points; and Kevin Brown, Tex., 2 points.

Also named Major League Rookie of the Year by Baseball America and selected to Baseball Digest's A.L. All-Rookie team...Tied for 5th with Dennis Eckersley and teammate Jeff Ballard in BBWAA's Cy Young balloting (each recorded 3 points).

MOST VALUABLE: Became the 1st rookie to win the "Most Valuable Oriole" Award as selected by the sportswriters and sportscasters who cover the team on a regular basis...Also finished 12th in BBWAA's A.L. "Most Valuable Player" voting with 35 total points (including three 6th place votes)...The only pitchers to finish ahead of him were Bret Saberhagen and Dennis Eckersley.

CONVERTED FIRST 15: Converted his 1st 15 save opportunities and was 3-0 in 35 games (1.89, IP-47.2, H-31, ER-10) thru July 14...Early highlights came in consecutive appearances on Apr 22 and 26 when he fanned a season-high 4 batters in earning a win at Minnesota and a save at Oakland...At Oakland he fanned Dave Parker, Dave Henderson and Mark McGwire in the 9th inning to preserve a 2-1 win.

WILD THING: After converting 1st 15 saves, went into his only slump...In 7 appearances, July 16-31 blew 4 of 5 save opportunities and was 0-2 (6.00, IP-9, H-12, ER-6, BB-10), while O's struggled (4-10).

SCORELESS STREAK: Did not allow a run in his last 21 app's (IP-26.2, H-12, BB-10, SO-29, SV-11), a club record for consecutive scoreless appearances...Didn't allow a run after July 31 (at Boston)...Held opponents to a .133 (90-12) average during that span and lowered era from 2.47 to final 1.69.

HEARTBREAKER IN TORONTO: His last appearance of the season came at Toronto on Friday, Sep 29 in the 1st of the pennant deciding 3-game series with the Blue Jays. Called on to protect O's 1-0 lead with one on and one out in the 8th inning...Just before striking out Kelly Gruber to end the inning, he threw a wild pitch enabling Tom Lawless to score the tying run from 3rd with 2 out...Hurled 2 more innings, allowing only one hit and no runs, but the Jays won it 2-1 in the 11th with a run off Mark Williamson.

MORE ON SAVES: Had only 2 saves the 1st 7 weeks of the season, earned 25 beginning May 26...Had a save against every team except the Twins...Of his 6 blown saves, 3 came against Kansas City; and one each against Oakland, Toronto and California....Had saves for the following Orioles: Ballard-6...Milacki-5...Holton-3...Williamson-3...Bautista-2...Hickey-2...Schmidt-2...Weston-1...Tibbs-1...Johnson-1...Harnisch-1.

TOUGH TO HIT: Lefties batted .135 (141-19) off him, lowest in the majors...Opponents batted .188 off him, 5th lowest in the A.L. (min. 50 innings)...Held the A.L. champion Athletics to a collective .053 (19-1) average in 6 innings...Lifetime, opponents are batting .194 (345-67, HR-2).

STRIKEOUTS: Had 33 more strikeouts than hits allowed, only 4 others in the A.L. had more: Nolan Ryan-139; Tom Henke-50; Lee Smith-43 and Bryan Harvey-42...Averaged 9.5 strikeouts per 9 innings, 2nd highest ratio in O's history (min. 50 innings) behind Pete Richert (10.6/66 Ks in 56 inn., '70)...At one point he fanned 17 of 38 batters he faced, Apr 22-June 8...Averaged 9.53 strikeouts per 9 innings, 7th best in A.L. (min. 50 innings)...After May 19, he struck out 17 of 49 first batters.

Hillsborough County, an award won by Gary Sheffield of the Brewers the year before...Was 10-1 with 0.20 era as a senior...Allowed just 23 hits in 68 innings, struck out 130 and walked 13...As a junior he was 9-1 with a 1.09 era, and 108 strikeouts in 54 innings.

PERSONAL: Chose the Orioles over Georgia Tech...Single.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Joined the New York Mets from Tidewater on Aug 20...Optioned back 10 days later, but recalled again on Sep 2...Worked twice for the Mets in relief: lost Aug 27 at San Diego when he allowed 4 unearned runs, and had no decision Sep 16 at Montreal.

At Tidewater, he was 3rd in the International League in innings (178.1) and complete games (7), and 5th in wins (11) and era (3.03)...Allowed only 5 home runs.

WORKHORSE: This marked the 5th time in his career that Mitchell has finished in his league's top 3 in innings pitched...The others: '84-1st in Florida State League, '85-2nd in Eastern League, '86-3rd in International League, and '88-1st in International League.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1988, PERFECT AT TIDEWATER: Led the International League in innings pitched (190)...Was 8th in era (2.84)... On June 27, he pitched the 1st perfect game in the history of the Tidewater franchise in the Tides' 4-0 win over Indianapolis in the 1st game of a twi-night doubleheader...Threw 64 pitches in the 7-inning gem and fanned 5.

1987, FIRST M.L. WIN: Was up with the Mets, May 11-Aug 23...Returned again in September...Was roughed up in his 1st 3 starts, but in his next 8 turns he worked to a 2.52 era (ip-50, er-14) even though he went 1-2 during that span...Picked up 1st major league win on June 19, a 5-hit, 8-1 win at home vs. Philadelphia, his lone complete game...Also delivered

HOME RUNS: 9 of his 12 homers drove in tying or lead runs ...Hit only 2 homers after Aug 2 but they came off 2 of the toughest in the A.L. (KC's Mark Gubicza and Texas' Jeff Russell). Hit 2 of the O's most dramatic home runs: Aug 2 at Boston, a 3-run homer off Rob Murphy to tie game at 6-6 after O's trailed 6-0...O's eventually won 9-8 to retain hold on 1st place over Red Sox and salvage only their 2nd win on a 2-12 road trip...Also hit 2-run, 10th inning, homer off Russell at Texas on Sep 9 giving O's 4-2 victory.

FIELDING: He and fellow 1st baseman Jim Traber didn't make an error until June 17...They had gone 63 games without one...Randy finished 5th among A.L. 1st basemen in fielding with a .995, just ahead of 5-time Gold Glove winner Don Mattingly.

BY MONTH: Apr (.211, 38-8, hr-1, rbi-5)...May (.283, 60-17, hr-1, rbi-5)...June (.356, 45-16, hr-3, rbi-10)...July (.242, 62-15, hr 4, RBI-8)...Aug (.240, 75-18, hr-1, rbi-8)...Sep-Oct (.282, 85-24, hr-2, rbi-9).

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1988: Began the season with Buffalo in the International League, but was called up to Pittsburgh after playing in just one game...Singled off Philadelphia's Mike Maddux for 1st ML hit, Apr 6...First homer was as a pinch hitter off Candy Sierra at San Diego, Apr 30... Appeared in 40 games, started in 23, then was returned to Buffalo on June 27...Finished season with the Bisons.

1987: Had his 2 best seasons in '86 and '87 working with Mets roving batting instructor Tom McCraw, the O's current hitting coach...In '87, almost won the International League Triple Crown at Tidewater, and for his efforts was named "Minor League Player of the Year" by The Sporting News, as well as the MVP of the IL.

Led the league in batting average (.326), rbi (103), runs (99) and walks (91), and his 29 home runs ranked 3rd behind Jay Buhner of Columbus (31) and Pawtucket's Sam Horn (30)...Set Tidewater record for homers in a season.

Had a 17-game hitting streak between May 30-June 14 (64-27, .422)...Later added a 16-game streak, Aug 1-14...Made ML debut vs. St. Louis on Sep 12 as a pinch hitter...Won winter ball batting title in Puerto Rico (.347).

1984-'86: Except for a brief stay at Tidewater in '86, he spent all 3 seasons at Jackson (Class AA, Texas League) and batted a combined .304 (853-259).

EARLY PRO CAREER: Began career as a shortstop and outfielder...Stole 115 of 127 bases first 3 years in pro ball, a 91% success rate...Stole 49 bases in '81, 5th in the South Atlantic League.

Began playing some at 1st base in '82...Was 6th in the Carolina League in batting in '83...Later that year he hit a 2-run homer in the bottom of the 8th inning to give Lynchburg a 4-3 win over Winston Salem in the Carolina League championship game.

AMATEUR: Graduate of San Diego High School and attended San Diego Mesa Junior College for one year...Studied child psychology.

PERSONAL: Married the former Rene Sumler on Oct 21, '89...Has 3 children by a previous marriage: Sharon (6/14/79); Joshua (10/27/82); Randall (3/12/85).

THE "TWENTY-TWENTY" CLUB

Three Orioles in 36 seasons have hit at least 20 homers and stolen at least 20 bases in the same season:

1969-Paul Blair (hr-26, sb-20).

1975-Don Baylor (hr-25, sb-32).

1976-Reggie Jackson (hr-27, sb-28).

Hitting Streak: 7, (Sep. 12 thru Sep. 20, '89).

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

After getting only 83 major league at-bats in 8 seasons in the Pirates and Mets organizations, Randy spent his 1st full season in the majors and had the Orioles' best on-base pct. (.394, compared with the league average of .326) and 2nd best slugging average (.458)...Was 58 plate appearances shy of qualifying among league leaders in on-base percentage.

His 74 walks led the O's and his average of one walk every 6 times to the plate was the 3rd best ratio in the A.L. behind Oakland's Rickey Henderson (1/5.34) and Toronto's Fred McGriff (1/5.71)...Reached via hit or walk in 90 of 106 starts.

Batted .217 in O's 1st 31 games...Then went 33-for-101 (.327) with 29 walks between May 12 and July 1 while O's went 30-16...Was the club's leading hitter in June (.356, 45-16), the Orioles' best month (17-10)...Hit only .231 over next 53 games thru Sep 7, but down the stretch he hit .340 (50-17) in the last 15 games of the season.

BATTING: In 14 games between June 13-July 2 he reached 32 times in 53 trips (15-for-36, with 17 walks)..Included in that stretch was a 4-game stretch, June 24-July 1, when he went 7-for-13 with 3 homers, 2 doubles and 7 rbi...Enjoyed best game of M.L. career June 27 at home vs. Detroit when he went 4-for-5 with 4 runs, 2 doubles, one homer and 4 rbi...The 4 runs tied a club record also accomplished by Mickey Tettleton in the same game.

Beginning Aug 23, he went 7-1 in his last 9 starts (2.82, IP-70.1, H-66, ER-22)...The Orioles went 18-5 the last 23 games started by either Milacki or Jeff Ballard.

WIN STREAK: Finished the season with a 5-game win streak (2.33, IP-46.1, H-44, ER-12) over 7 starts and the O's won all 7 games...His last loss was at Chicago on Sep 1...Gave up 1st major league grand slam (Darryl Boston).

3 DAYS REST: Started with 3 days rest 10 times, all over his last 12 starts, and was 6-1 (2.50, IP-72, H-53, ER-20).

NON-SUPPORT: Eight times he worked into the 7th or later and allowed 2 runs or less and didn't get a win (0-2, 6 no dec.)...The Orioles scored 142 runs in his 36 starts, 3.9 per start (4.5 for everyone else) and that included getting 32 runs in his last 5 starts.

THE MINIMUM: On Apr 23 at home vs. Minnesota, he became the 3rd pitcher in Orioles history to face the minimum 27 batters in a complete 9-inning game, beating the Twins on a 3-hitter...(The other 2 were Jim Palmer on May 12, '67 vs. the Yankees and Mike Flanagan on May 3, '82 vs. Seattle).

FAVORITE STADIUM: Has made 3 career starts at Tiger Stadium and is 3-0 (0.36, IP-25.1, H-6, ER-1).

MISCELLANEOUS: Worked 9.1 innings vs. Cleveland on May 18 but didn't get the decision in the O's 3-2 win...First Oriole since Mike Boddicker (July 8, '87) to go more than 9 innings...Named to Baseball Digest's all-rookie team...Had an 8.10 era in 4 starts indoors (Seattle & Minnesota) and a 3.34 in the fresh air...His 8 strikeouts Aug 5 at Texas equaled the club's season high by one pitcher.

BY MONTH: APR (1-1, 4.20, G-5, IP-30, H-28, ER-14)...MAY (1-4, 3.92, G-6, IP-43.2, H-41, ER-19)...JUNE (2-3, G-6, 4.66, IP-38.2, H-43, ER-20)...JULY (1-1, 4.20, G-6, IP-30, H-36, ER-14)...AUG (4-2, 3.42, G-6, IP-47.1, H-33, ER-18)...SEP-OCT (5-1, 2.70, G-8, IP-53.1, H-52, ER-16).

1988, DAZZLING DEBUT: Recalled by Orioles from Rochester Sep 13 and got off to one of the finest starts in Orioles' history...Made 3 starts, the only 3 games the Orioles won after Sep 11 (19 games)...Opponents batted .110 (82-9).

His big league beginning (2-0, 0.72, IP-25, H-9, ER-2) is comparable to only 2 others in Orioles' history: Dave McNally was 3-0 (1.04, IP-26, ER-3) in '62-'63, and Tom Phoebus was 2-1 (1.23, IP-22, ER-3) in '66 after throwing shutouts in his 1st 2 starts.

Milacki made debut at Detroit Sep 18 and combined with Tom Niedenfuer for a one-hit, 2-0 win, the 28th one-hitter in Orioles' history...Had no decision in next start at home against Detroit when bullpen failed him after he took a 3-1 lead into the 9th...In his 3rd start on Sep 28, he shut out the Yankees on 3 hits with a career high 10 strikeouts to all but knock the Yankees from the A.L. East race.

At Charlotte (AA), Rochester (AAA)-including playoffs-and with the O's, was a combined 18-11 (2.59, IP-264, ER-76) with 15 complete games in 35 starts...Led the entire organization in wins, innings, starts and complete games...Had only 5 complete games in his first 3 years of pro ball (74 starts).

EARLY CAREER: Won only 16 games 1st 3 years, in O's system, but went 11-9 at Charlotte in '87, his 4th year...Highlight of career came May 28, '87, when he carried a no-hitter into the 12th inning vs. Chattanooga, allowing just one hit and 3 walks in 13 innings to get the win.

AMATEUR CAREER: Played football, basketball, and baseball at Lake Havasu (AZ) High School...Was all-state in baseball...Played in the National Sports Festival...Played one year at Yavapai Junior College (AZ).

PERSONAL: He and his wife, the former Kimberly Myciek, were married 2/16/86.

TWO WINS IN ONE DAY

Wes Stock is the only pitcher to have won both ends of a doubleheader in an Orioles uniform. He did it on May 26, '63 in Cleveland.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Tied with Kansas City's Mark Gubicza and Oakland's Dave Stewart for the A.L. lead in games started (36)...Became the 1st rookie in 71 years to lead the A.L. in starts...Hadn't been done since Scott Perry of the '18 Philadelphia Athletics.

Finished one shy of the A.L. record for most starts by a rookie held by Detroit's Herman Pillette in '22 and Minnesota's Roger Erickson in '78.

His 243 innings were an Orioles record for a rookie, 47 more than any other major league rookie in '89, and 5th overall in the A.L...The last A.L. rookie to throw more innings was Erickson (266)...The last Oriole to throw more was Mike Boddicker (261) in '84.

His 14 wins were 2nd among major league rookies behind Kansas City's Tom Gordon (17)...Led the O's staff in starts, innings, shutouts (2) and strikeouts (113).

Gave up 2 runs or less in 18 starts, including 6 of his last 7, when he went 5-0 (for more details see below under "Win Streak")...Had a pair of 3-hit shutouts: Apr 23, 3-0 over Minnesota in a game he faced only 27 batters (for more details see below under "The Minimum") and Aug 15, 2-0 at Detroit...Now has three 3-hit shutouts in career.

Pitched into the 7th inning or later in 25 of 36 starts and into the 8th inning 19 times...Has worked into the 7th in 28 of 39 career starts.

DOWN THE STRETCH: Won only 5 times in his 1st 22 starts (5-9, 4.24, IP-142.1, ER-67), but after Aug 1 went 9-3 (3.04) in 14 starts. Only Bret Saberhagen and Storm Davis won more games in the majors the last 2 months...Had 3 straight starts-Aug 11-15-19-that he didn't allow a hit until the 5th inning.

play again until May 12...He celebrated the occasion by going 3-for-4....Twenty of his 32 rbi came with 2 out.

Enjoyed one of his best games ever on Aug 27, against the Yankees in New York. He had 3 hits with 4 rbi, a triple and a 3-run homer off Greg Cadaret. It was Bob's 1st homer since his historic blast (also with 2 aboard) off Orel Hershiser Aug 14, '88 in Los Angeles, the last home run yielded by Hershiser that year ...He went on to pitch 131.2 consecutive homerless innings (including 48.2 in post-sea- son)

1988 SEASON: Led Giants catchers with 72 starts, and for the 3rd straight year was tops on the club in gunning down base stealers...Threw out 17 of 62 :(27%)...See "Eraser Rate/Defense" below.

Began the season with the Giants, but was in a 1-for-19 slump and was batting only .181 (116-21) when optioned to Phoenix June 2...Returned June 30, and batted .274 (157-43) in 54 games the remainder of the season...Hit .348 (89-31) in a 26-game span, July 23 to Aug 30, including .415 (41-17) the 1st 10 days of that stretch...His 22 extra-base hits were a career high.

ERASER RATE/DEFENSE: In his 3 years with the Giants, he threw out 85 of 243 (35%) runners attempting to steal...For comparison's sake, the N.L. average during those 3 years was just under 30%...In '87, he threw out 31 of 78 (40%), 2nd best percentage in the league behind the Pirates' Mike Lavalliere...He threw out Vince Coleman and Tim Raines twice each...Those 2 speedsters were caught only 18 times combined that year.

In '87, his .998 fielding percentage would have led the league, but he was 3 games short of qualifying...In '86, he gunned down 37 of 103 (36%) base- stealers.

N.L. CAREER: Hit 12 of his 24 homers in the N.L. against San Diego (7) and Los Angeles (5)...Hit 3 off Fernandez Valenzuela, including 2 in one game on Sep 22, '87...His favorite park on the road for home runs was Jack Murphy Stadium (San Diego), where he hit 4...Did his best hitting for average against St Louis (.293, 82-24).

GIANTS, '87: Hit 7 homers with 17 rbi in his first 29 games...Batted .348 (23-8) over 2 weeks in September to help the ultimate division winners to a 10-4 run...Started 2 NLCS games against Cardinals (#2, #6)...Went 3-for-3 in game #6, collecting half of the Giants' hits in a 1-0 loss to the Cards.

GIANTS, '86: Hit his 1st major league homer on June 18, '86 off Mark Thurmond at San Diego...Was hitting only .159 on May 21, but then batted .321 (106-34) over next 43 games, raising average to season-high .260 on July 25...He ultimately finished the year at .224.

TIGERS, '85: Started '85 at Nashville (AAA), but was promoted to Detroit on May 22 after hitting .312 in 36 games...Made big league debut at Seattle May 25, and was 2-for-4 with 2 doubles....Returned to Nashville Aug 12, but was recalled by the Tigers in Sep.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER: Has twice led minor leagues in fielding percentage...Was drafted by the Orioles in June '79, but Bob chose college instead...Was drafted again by the Tigers in Jan '81, and that year he led the South Atlantic League's catchers in fielding (.996) and slugging (.425)...In '82 at Birmingham, he hit 2 grand slams, and led Southern League catchers at fielding (.993).

AMATEUR CAREER: Played basketball, golf and baseball at Menlo-Atherton High in Menlo Park, CA...Graduated in '79...Attended Canada College in Redwood City, CA and the University of California (Berkeley).

PERSONAL: He and his wife, the former Kelly Robertson, were married Jan 7, '83...They have one daughter, Alexi(12/21/88).

LATEST FINISH

The latest a game has been completed at Memorial Stadium was 1:22 a.m. on June 4, '88, a 14-inning game against New York that consumed 5:46.

AMATEUR/PERSONAL: Was a baseball star at Ramon Vila Mayo High School in Puerto Rico...Played American Legion ball...Enjoys music...Married Lesbia DeJesus (8/17/84)...One child: Francisco Javier (6-25-88).

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

#1 DRAFT PICK: Was the 1st player selected in the baseball's free agent draft last June 5...First time O's have had the top pick...It marked the 1st time in the history of the draft (since 1965) that a team selected 1st while in 1st place...Ben received the highest rating ever for a pitcher by the major league baseball scouting bureau...Signed with the Orioles Aug 19.

PRO DEBUT: Four days after signing with the Orioles, he made his pro debut with 3 innings on Aug 23, pitching for the Class A Frederick (MD) Keys at home against Winston-Salem (Cubs) in the Carolina League (IP-3, H-5, R-1, ER-1, BB-0, SO-2)...Approximately 6,500 attended his debut at Frederick...His other minor league appearance came Aug 27 at Frederick against Durham (Braves) and he worked 6 innings (H-5, R-1, ER-1, BB-0, SO-8)...Threw 55 pitches (47 strikes/8 balls) including 34 straight strikes at one point.

ORIOLES: Recalled by the Orioles on Sep 1...Made his major league debut at home vs. Cleveland on Sep 6 and on 1st pitch he got Cory Snyder to hit into a double play...Earned 1st major league win last day of season with one scoreless inning at Toronto in O's 7-5 triumph...Allowed his 1st major league homer at Texas to Pete Incaviglia on Sep 8. Played for the Orioles' instructional league team in Sarasota and was 1-0 (4.09, IP-11, H-12, ER-5, BB-4, SO-7) in 3 games, one start.

GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD: Last fall was the recipient of amateur baseball's highest individual honor-the 1989 Golden Spikes Award presented annually by the U.S. Baseball Federation, the governing body for amateur baseball in the United States, to the nation's most outstanding amateur player.

COLLEGE: Grew up 12 miles from Louisiana State University and originally attended LSU on a basketball scholarship, but after 2 seasons played baseball only.

As a junior last spring, was named College Player of the Year by The Sporting News and Baseball America and was ESPN's Co-Player of the Year with University of Texas outfielder Scott Bryant...Was 14-4 with 4 saves and a 3.49 era. He fanned 202 batters in 152 innings while helping lead LSU to a 52-15 regular season record and a berth in the College World Series.

Set LSU strikeout record for season and career (373)...Established Southeastern Conference record with a streak of 44.2 consecutive score-

Win #3 was a complete game victory over Milwaukee and Orioles nemesis Chris Bosio, 4-2, on Aug 22, the middle game of a crucial 3-game sweep that sent the Brewers reeling.

After earning his 4th win in his next start at Yankee Stadium Aug 26, he went 0-5 in his last 8 starts while the O's scored a total of 16 runs...He did, however, give the O's a clutch performance his final turn, a must-win game at Toronto on Sep 30, the final weekend of the season.

Named as a last-minute starter when Pete Harnisch stepped on a nail walking from the SkyDome back to the O's hotel the night before...Dave took a 2-hitter and 3-1 lead into the 8th, but came out after walking the leadoff hitter that inning...Toronto scored 3 times that inning and won the game and the division championship.

COMPLETE GAMES: Completed 4 of his 14 starts (29%), 5th best percentage among A.L. starters with 10 or more starts behind: Jack Morris (42%, 10 of 24); Bret Saberhagen (34%, 12 of 35); Chuck Finley (31%, 9 of 29); and Frank Viola (29%, 7 of 24)... Became the 1st Oriole since Dave McNally ('62-'63) to pitch complete game wins in his 1st 2 appearances at Memorial Stadium.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Was the 1st rookie pitcher to win the "Player of the Week" award since Boston's Al Nipper won it Sep 2-9, '85.

MISCELLANEOUS: Opponents were 0-for-6 in stolen base attempts when Dave was on the mound, including 3 pickoffs...O's scored 42 runs in his 14 starts, exactly 3 runs per game, lowest on staff...Was a shutout victim 3 times.

1988: In his 7th season in the Pirates' system, he led the American Association in wins (15), starts (29), and complete games (9)...Allowed only 6 homers in 192.1 innings, including only 3 in the last 170.1...Following the '88 season he was signed as a 6-year free agent by Houston, but didn't play a game in Astros organization.

1987, M.L. DEBUT: After 152 minor league appearances, made his major league debut on May 29 against Cincinnati (ip-1,er-3) after his contract was purchased by the Pirates from Vancouver earlier that day...His next 3 outings were scoreless, but he was optioned back to Vancouver on June 18...Remained there the rest of the season and tied for the Pacific Coast League in complete games (9) and finished 8th in ERA... Threw the 1st no-hitter in the PCL in over 2 years when he beat Portland, 3-0, with 5 strikeouts and 2 walks.

EARLY CAREER: He led the Pacific Coast League in '86, his 1st year at the AAA level...In '83, he was 6th in the Carolina League in ERA while at Alexandria.

LOCAL BOY MAKES GOOD: Born in Baltimore, grew up in Middle River and graduated from Baltimore's Overlea High School in '79...Over the next 3 years he drove an 18-wheel trailer and played in several summer leagues...Also played 2 years at Community College of Baltimore.

Went 22-2 in 2 years at CCB and helped lead the school to the '82 Junior College World Series where they lost to Kirby Puckett's Triton Community College team in the semi-finals...Johnson, on the mound in the last of the 9th with the score tied and the bases loaded, dropped the ball for a balk, allowing the winning run to score.

Signed with Pirates in '82 and spent the next 7 seasons in the Pirates' minor league system while driving a truck during the off-season.

5TH BALTIMORE NATIVE: Is the 5th Baltimore-born pitcher to play for the O's...The others were Dave Boswell ('71), Jim Lehew ('61-'62), Tom Phoebus ('66-'70), and John Miller ('62-'63; '65-'67).

PERSONAL: He and his wife, Tera, have a son, Steven (8/31/87)...Was the Oriole most in demand for off-season appearances.

The award was presented Jan 11 in New York by Giamatti's successor as commissioner, Fay Vincent.

ALL-STAR GAMES: Has opened at shortstop for the A.L. for the past 6 seasons, the elected starter in 5 of those instances ('84 thru '87, '89), a record for consecutive starts by an A.L. shortstop. Ozzie Smith, who has started the last 7 games, holds the N.L. record. The A.L. shortstop leader in overall starts (not necessarily consecutive) is the late Joe Cronin with 7 for Boston & Washington...Luis Aparicio started 6 times.

In '88, Cal finished 2nd in the voting to the Tigers' Alan Trammell, but started anyway when the Detroit star had to withdraw because of injury.

Cal's 6 starts in a row are a club record. Brooks once started 5 straight from '64 thru '68, but still holds the Orioles' standard for most overall starts (10 years, 11 games--2 in '61).

Rip Junior has twice led the A.L. in votes. In '85 (1,398,901) and '86 (1,486,806) he outpolled runner-up George Brett, and in the latter year was 2nd in the majors only to Darryl Strawberry (1,619,511)...In '89, he finished 5th in A.L. balloting (1,172,506)...Bo Jackson was the leader with 1,748,696 votes.

He made his debut in '83 as a defensive replacement for starter Robin Yount after being appointed to the squad...He went 1-for-3 last year at Anaheim with a double off the Expos' Tim Burke...That was his 1st extra-base hit in All-Star competition...He's now 3-for-18 (.167) including singles off Nolan Ryan at Minnesota in '85, and Rick Sutcliffe at Oakland in '87..Note all 3 hits have come in A.L. parks.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE: In his 8 full years, he's twice won the Lou Hatter "MVO" award, '83 & '88 (both times co-winner with Eddie Murray), finished 2nd 3 times ('85, '86, '89) and 3rd 3 times ('82, '84, '87).

Was runner-up to Murray in '85, to Don Aase in '86, and to Gregg Olson in '89...Was outpolled by Murray and Jim Palmer in '82; by Murray and Mike Boddicker in '84, and by Larry Sheets and Murray in '87.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER, A.L.: Last year, Rip finished 3rd in the BBWAA balloting with 216 votes, behind Robin Yount (256) and Ruben Sierra (228).

In '83, he shaded teammate Eddie Murray, 322 to 290, to win the award as Orioles finished 1-2 in balloting...That wasn't unprecedented, however. In '66, Frank, Brooks and Boog were 1-2-3 (and Luis Aparicio was 9th)...Cal & Eddie were the only players listed on every '83 ballot.

Became the first to win "Rookie" and "MVP" honors in back-to-back years... Fred Lynn, of course, had done him one better in '75 by capturing both awards in the same year.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: In '82, he registered 132 points (5-3-1 system) to beat out Twins' Kent Hrbek (90 points), the only other player named on all ballots. Wade Boggs was 3rd (10 1/2 points). Rip polled 24 1sts, and 4 2nds while Hrbek received 4 1sts, 23 2nds and a 3rd.

He is one of 6 Orioles to have won BBWAA "Rookie" honors along with: Ron Hansen ('60), Curt Blefary ('63), Al Bumbry ('73), Eddie Murray ('77) and Gregg Olson ('89).

PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Was chosen Major League Player of the Year in '83 by TSN, and A.L. Player of the Year by both Baseball America and TSN.

OTHERS: Picked as shortstop on A.P. Major League All-Star, TSN A.L. All-Star and TSN/Hillerich & Bradsby "Silver Slugger" teams (given to most productive offensive players at every defensive position) each of 4 straight years ('83-'86).

PREVIOUS HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1988 SEASON: Shared "MVO" honors with Eddie Murray for the 2nd time...Led major league shortstops in homers & rbi for the 5th time in 6 years and ranked 3rd in the league with a career-high 102 walks (Wade Boggs-125, Jack Clark-113)...His 152 hits were the lowest of his career and the 5th straight year the total had declined...He also had a career-low 49 extra basehits.

Hit 7 homers in his first 17 games after agreeing to a 3-year contract on July 27...Hit .216 (102-22) from the start of September thru the end of the season.

Was only 2-for-43 (.047) after the 1st 12 games (thru Apr 17), including an 0-for-29, the longest hitless streak of his career...Starting Apr 19, however, he launched one of the hottest streaks of his career...Hit safely in 16 of the next 17 games, and batted .527 (55-29) while raising his average from .047 to .316 on May 8...His on-base percentage in that 17-game span was .653 (75-49).

1987 SEASON: Became the 1st Oriole other than Murray to lead the club in rbi during the 80s...Ken Singleton was the last, in '79...Led club with 40 tying/lead runs driven in and batted .295 (149-44) with runners in scoring position despite a career low .252 average overall.

Became 1st A.L. shortstop to be elected to starting All-Star team 4 straight times. But, after leading big league shortstops in homers, rbi, runs and slugging for 4 straight years, he finished 2nd in all 4 categories to the Tigers' Alan Trammell (hr-28, rbi-105, r-109, slug-.551).

Was batting .326 (144-47) thru May 16 with 8 homers and 34 rbi in 36 games, but hit only .229 (480-110) the rest of the way with 16 homers and 64 rbi in his last 126 games...During 6-game stretch from Apr 29 thru May 6, Cal went 9-for-25, and all 9 hits were for extra bases (2b-4, 3b-1, hr-4).

1986 SEASON: Tied for league lead with Don Mattingly in gwrbi with 15...Led A.L. shortstops for 4th straight year in homers, rbi, runs and slugging (.461)...Was 2nd in fielding percentage to Tony Fernandez at shortstop, .982 to .983.

Was 1st other than Murray to lead club in homers (25) since Singleton in '79... (Eddie had led 6 straight years)...Led club in runs, hits, doubles, homers, total bases (289) and in tying/go-ahead runs driven in (33), yet finished 2nd to Murray in the "MVO" vote.

1985 SEASON: Was 2nd to Rickey Henderson in runs scored (146 to 116)...It was 3rd straight year he'd scored over 100 runs...Hit .282 overall, but had a .321 (165-53) average with men in scoring position...Was 1st or 2nd on the club in 12 offensive categories, and tied Murray in gwrbi (15), but again finished 2nd to Eddie in "MVO" vote...Set club record with 32 gidps.

1984 SEASON: Batted over .300 for 2nd straight year...Set A.L. record for assists by a shortstop (583)...Went as long as 3 games without a hit only once...Batted .311 (148-46) with runners in scoring position to lead club...Batted .355 (242-86) over 60 games from June 27 thru Sep 1.

From Sep 1, '83 thru May 9, '84, Cal hit .372 (258-96) with 16 homers and 41 rbi over 63 games...Led major league shortstops in chances with 908 and net chances (880), most in A.L. since Leo Cardenas in '69.

1983 SEASON: Was A.L. "MVP" and TSN "Player of the Year," and shared "MVO" laurels with Murray...Played on A.L.'s 1st winning All-Star team since '71, and also played on the winning team in both the ALCS & World Series.

Led majors in hits with a club record 211 and doubles (47); was 2nd with 76 extra-base hits to the Expos Andre Dawson (78), and, with 343 total bases, was runner-up to major league leader Jim Rice (344)...Cal led the A.L. with 121 runs, just one off Frank Robinson's club record set in '66..His .318 average was 3rd highest in club history behind Ken Singleton's .328 in '77 and Bob Nieman's .322 in '56.

Stretch Run: During 44 games from Aug 13 thru Sep 25, a period in which the O's went 34-10 to win the Eastern Division Championship, Cal hit .391 (192-75) with 14 doubles, 9 homers, 30 rbi and 40 runs scored.

Post-Season: Batted a combined .273 (33-9) in 9 post-season games...Drove in O's only run in 9th inning of ALCS #1, won by LaMarr Hoyt, 2-1...Made final putout of WS when he caught Garry Maddox' line drive in bottom of 9th, Game #5.

1982 SEASON: Led all major league rookies in doubles, homers, rbi, total bases (284), gwrbi (11, tied with Von Hayes), games (160), at bats (663, led A.L.) and runs.

Missed only 3 games all year, none after May 29th (his games streak began the following day)...Played 44 straight errorless games at 3rd base from Apr 24 thru June 14...Stole his 1st big league base the hard way, stealing home on the front end of a double steal with Lenn Sakata off the Rangers' Jon Matlack on May 31 in Baltimore.

Slow Start: After a glittering opening day on which he went 3-for-5 with his 1st big league double, homer (off KC's Dennis Leonard) and rbi, he plunged into a deep slump (55-4)...He was batting only .117 (60-7) on May 1st after 18 games...His career big league average over 2 seasons was at that point .121 (99-12) in 41 games.

Start of Something Big: The next day, May 2, he picked up a pair of scratch hits, and was beaned by fellow rookie Mike Moore...He missed only one game, however, and batted .281 (538-151) from May 2 to the end of the season.

1981 SEASON: Recalled from Rochester Aug 8 right after the major league player strike was settled...Made big league debut as pinch runner Aug 10 for Ken Singleton in Baltimore against the Royals...His 1st hit was a single off Chicago's Dennis Lamp on Aug 16, also at Memorial Stadium...Played in 12 games at short (9 starts) and 6 at 3rd...After Sep 11, he didn't make a plate appearance, and appeared in only 2 games.

Rochester: Despite his early recall from Rochester, he was voted "Rookie of the Year" in the International League, and was named to the loop's All-Star team at 3rd base...In survey of I.L.'s managers and coaches, Rip was picked as top major league prospect in the league (Von Hayes was 2nd)...Played in 85 games at 3rd for Red Wings and 35 at shortstop (primarily when Bob Bonner was injured).

Winter Ball: Led Puerto Rican League in rbi (49) after '81 season, and was "MVP" on the Caguas club, managed by then-Orioles' pitching coach Ray Miller.

EARLY CAREER

MINORS, '78-'80: Was Southern League's All-Star 3rd baseman in '80 and tied for league lead in games...One of 2 Charlotte players that year to break club's home run record...Rip had 25 and Drungo Hazewood had 28...Cal had homered only 8 times in his 2 previous pro seasons combined...He also led S.L. 3rd basemen in fielding (.933, tc-415, e-28)...Helped Caguas win Puerto Rican title that winter (the 1st of his 2 seasons in Caribbean winter ball).

In '79 he was picked as shortstop on Topps' Class A All-Star team, though he played more games at 3rd (58) than at shortstop (52)...Led Florida State in doubles that year.

Was signed by the late Dick Bowie in '78, and played mostly shortstop that summer in Bluefield...Played in Florida Instructional League after both '78 and '79 seasons.

AMATEUR BACKGROUND: Pitched and played short at Aberdeen (MD) High graduated '78)...Was 7-2 with an 0.70 era as a senior with 100 strikeouts in 60 innings...He also won Harford County bat title (.492) and had 29 rbi in 20 games...Pitched a 2-hitter and fanned 17 to win '78 Maryland Class A baseball championship game.

Was voted American Amateur Baseball Congress (AABC) "Graduate of the Year" in '86, an honor won previously by Eddie Murray ('84) and many other prominent major leaguers.

Also earned 2 letters in soccer...Was team captain and both an all-county and all-metro selection...Played Little League, Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle League baseball...Led Putty Hill, MD team to Mickey Mantle World Series in Sherman, TX (lost in a best of 3 competition).

COMMUNITY: Cal supports the community actively and in a variety of ways... See "Bart Giamatti Caring Award" under "Major Honors and Awards" above... Last year, he and wife, Kelly, pledged $250,000 to the City of Baltimore to establish an adult literacy program....The City has agreed to match that donation thru a corporate fund-raising program (the O's were the 1st corporate contributor)...The program fits nicely into Mayor Kurt Schmoke's "The City that Reads" promotion.

Cal is also active on behalf of the University of Maryland Hospital's Shock Trauma Center, the Johns Hopkins Hospital's Children's Center, the Baltimore School for the Performing Arts, the Bryn Mawr School (Baltimore), and the Harford Center, a day-care facility for retarded citizens.

He continues to donate 25 tickets for every Orioles' home game to "Because We Care," a program he and Eddie Murray initiated several years ago.

in prior years, he has supported the Harford County Humane Society; has served as honorary chairman of the American Lung Association's anti-smoking drive; The Easter Seal and March of Dimes campaigns, and the United Way Softball Marathon.

He has been the regional spokesman for the Middle Atlantic Milk Marketing Association, and has also worked on behalf of Project Survival, and the Baltimore Symphony.

PERSONAL: Cal and the former Kelly Geer were married Nov 13, '87...Cal Senior was best man, brothers Bill and Fred were ushers, and sister Ellen was a bridesmaid...Kelly, from Cockeysville, MD is a graduate of Dulaney High School and the University of Maryland...The Ripkens have a daughter, Rachel Marie, born Nov 22, '89.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

His best month was May when he batted .313 (67-21)...On May 31, he was hitting .284 (102-29) which matched his high for the year...Hit 2 homers (off Mike Witt at Anaheim Apr 25 and off the White Sox' Jack Hardy in Chicago on May 23), and now has 6 lifetime, all on the road...Hit .333 (21-7) vs. Boston and .314 (35-11) against the Mariners.

Logged his 1st 4-hit day in the majors on Aug 2, the night the O's came from a 6-0 deficit to beat the Red Sox in Fenway (after losing 13 of the previous 14 games)...Brother Cal had 3 hits in the same game...Unofficial research by Al Kermisch reveals the probability that only once has a brother combination surpassed that total...On June 25, '32, Paul (3) and Lloyd Waner (5) combined for 8 hits in a game for the Pirates.

Wore #3 when he 1st came up, but after his Dad was relieved of his job as manager in April '88, Bill asked for Senior's #7 as a gesture of respect to his father,...Went back to uniform #3 when his Cal returned to the club and reclaimed his old #7.

Injuries/Surgery: Missed the first 2 weeks of the regular season after sustaining a broken bone on his left hand after being hit with a pitch in a March 25 exhibition...Came off the DL on Apr 14, started for the 1st time on Apr 19, and remained the regular 2nd baseman until another injury sidelined him in late August (in 4 months from mid-April to mid-August he started 96 of 113 games).

Was again disabled, from Aug 23 to Sep 7, with a strained right shoulder... Tim Hulett was called up to replace him on the active roster...After Bill returned to active duty, he started only 4 of the O's last 22 games...The affected shoulder required surgery in November.

FIELDING

In 2 1/2 big league seasons, Bill has played 321 games at 2nd base and compiled a .986 (.98552) percentage...He's handled a total of 1658 chances including 697 putouts, 937 assists and only 24 errors...He's also participated in 244 double plays.

He began his pro career as a shortstop, and didn't become a fulltime 2nd baseman until '86 at Charlotte, though he did play some 2nd and 3rd in '85 at Hagerstown.

'89 Season: Started 100 games at 2nd base, and ranked 3rd among the 10 qualifying A.L. 2nd baseman with a .98497 percentage, just behind: Steve Sax-.9872 and Jim Gantner-.9869, and just ahead of Lou Whitaker-.98495, and Frank White-.98473...A minimum of 108 games at the position are required to qualify... Orioles observers were often heard to say that Bill "played the best 2nd base around here since Bobby Grich."

Joined with Cal in turning the Orioles' 1st triple play since '79 on June 15 at Baltimore vs the Yankees...Steve Balboni lined to Cal who threw to Bill to get Steve Sax, then Bill relayed to Randy Milligan for the out on Don Mattingly returning too late to 1st...The Brothers Ripken also collaborated on 54 double plays.

His longest errorless streak was 22 games from May 2 thru 29...He also played errorless ball over his last 19 games of the year after a miscue on Aug 12...His career high is 34 games set in '88 (May 21 to June 28).

'88 Season: Played 149 games at 2nd base and fielded .984 (po-309, a-440, e-12) while handling 761 chances, 3rd highest total in the A.L...His 110 double plays were just one off the lead held by Harold Reynolds. Ranked 6th in percentage among qualifiers with a .984...The total chances accepted by the 2 Ripkens (1,546) topped all second base combinations.

Played 3rd base for the 1st time on Aug 21 and again on the 28th...Had started both games at 2nd....Had only one chance at the hot corner.

'87 Season: Committed only 3 errors in 298 chances (.990) after being called up July 11, and did not commit his 1st miscue until his 26th game. Handled his 1st 115 big league chances (at 2nd base) without error...The night he made that 1st error he handled a total of 15 chances.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1988: Enjoyed a relatively healthy year...Was beaned by White Sox' John Davis at Comiskey Park Apr 29, the night the O's snapped their 0-21 streak...He suffered a concussion, but missed only 2 games...Had played every game up to that point....Also missed the last week of the season with a sore shoulder.

1987: Was called up July 11 (Rick Burleson was released to accommodate his addition to the roster)...He made his debut that day and the O's lost while he went 0-for-3 with a walk vs. the Twins...However, the Birds then won their next 11 straight with Bill as the starting 2nd baseman.

Played 58 straight games from July 11 to Sep 15 when his season ended at Toronto after he tore a lateral ligament in right ankle while fielding a ground ball on artificial turf (spikes caught).

From the All-Star break to Sep 15, he ranked 3rd in league in hits (72, tied with Robin Yount) behind Paul Molitor (89) and Kevin Seitzer (79).

Reached a high of .323 (127-41) on Aug 14...From Aug 6 thru Sep 15, a period of nearly 6 weeks, his average remained over .300 for all but 2 days... He batted .330 (212-70) over 51 games from the break thru Sep 9... Batted 2nd in the lineup for all but 2 games.

His 1st big league hit in his 3rd game after going 0-for-6 was a double high off the left field fence at KC on July 16 with 2 aboard off Charlie Leibrandt..

Hit his 1st home run 3 days later, also in KC, on July 19 with 2 aboard off Bud Black...It was not only his 1st big league homer, it was his 1st of the year anywhere...He had not homered in 74 games at Rochester.

Enjoyed a career high 5 rbi on Aug 22 at Seattle while going 3-for-3 with a 3-run homer off Scott Bankhead, a double, a sac fly and a walk.

EARLY CAREER

ROCHESTER: Just before his July recall to Baltimore, he had 9 hits in his last 10 at bats to raise his International League average from .268 to .284....

CHARLOTTE, '86: In his 1st full season at the keystone, he was named to the Southern League All-Star team, and topped all 2nd basemen in games (141), chances (723), putouts (305), assists (395) and double plays (79)...Also had a string of 31 consecutive errorless games that year...Missed only 3 games all season while leading club in games as well as average (.268) and 9 other categories.

AMATEUR CAREER: Batted .385 and .326 in his last 2 years at Aberdeen High ('81 & '82)...Was 13-1 during that time as a pitcher...Also played soccer like his Dad and brother Cal before him...Signed for the Orioles by Jim Gilbert.

PERSONAL: Married Candace Cauffman, a Hagerstown native and an '88 graduate of the University of Maryland (College Park), on Feb 3, '89...Former Oriole (now with Yankees) John Habyan was his best man, and brothers Cal Jr and Fred were ushers, as was another ex-teammate Ken Gerhart (now in Giants organization)...Bill's sister Ellen, Cal's wife Kelly, and Jennifer (Mrs Ken) Gerhart were among the bridesmaids.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Had solid season at Rochester...Led the International League with 185.1 innings pitched...Was tied for the I.L. lead in wins (13), starts (27), complete games (9) and shutouts (3)...His 109 strikeouts were 5th in the league and his 3.21 era was 8th lowest among qualifiers.

Was particularly effective in May and June when he was 6-4 with a 2.46 era (ip-84, er-23, so-62)...Did not have a losing month: Apr 2-2, May 3-1, June 3-3, July 2-2 and Aug 3-3...Walked only 8 batters in 40.1 innings in August (1.8 per 9 innings)...In consecutive complete-game victories, May 27 vs. AAA champion Indianapolis and June 2 vs. Louisville, allowed only one run (unearned) and 11 hits in 18 innings, walking 5 and striking out 22.

SHUTOUTS: Fanned professional-high 12 in 7-0 win, June 2 vs. Louisville (had 15 K's in a game, see Winter League, '88, below)...Tossed a 3-hit shutout, June 24, beating Pawtucket, 2-0...Blanked I.L. Champion Richmond, 1-0, Aug 2.

WITH ORIOLES: Joined the team when rosters expanded, Sep 1...Started and lost, Sep 6 vs. Cleveland, his only decision of the season...Struck out 3 Indians, a personal ML high...Appeared in 5 other games, Sep 10 at Texas, Sep 12 vs Chicago, Sep 17 vs. KC and Oct 1 at Toronto.

POST SEASON: Pitched in the Florida Instructional League and then played for Estrellas in the Dominican League (2-2, era-6.46, ip-15.1, er-11, so-18).

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1988: Acquired with Brady Anderson from Boston, July 30, for Mike Boddicker and was assigned to Charlotte...Recalled by O's on Sep 2 and made his 1st 2 starts vs. the Red Sox...Made his major league debut at home, Sep 7...Not the pitcher of record, as O's won 4-3 with 2 runs in the 9th...It was his 1st appearance above AA ball...Lost his last 3 starts: 6-1 at Boston, Sep 12; 5-1 vs. NY, Sep 27, and 9-3 at Toronto, Oct 2.

MINOR LEAGUES: Was 13-7 (era-3.03, ip-151.2, h-127, er-51) in 28 games, 24 starts combined at New Britain (Red Sox AA club) and Charlotte...After May 27, was 12-3 (era-3.05, ip-115, er-39) in 18 starts before recall.

Started the season at New Britain and lost 4 of his 1st 5 decisions...Then went 7-1 in last 11 starts before trade to O's...Lost his 1st start at Charlotte, then went 5-1 in his last 6 starts (era-1.96, ip-41.1, er-9).

Hurled one-hitter in his last start at Charlotte on Aug 29 over Greenville (Braves)...Struck out season-high 10 batters on June 2 for New Britain vs. Williamsport (Indians).

WINTER BALL: Pitched with Hermosillo in the Mexican Winter League and tossed a no-hitter, striking out 15, on Nov. 15 against Culiacan.

1987: Led the South Atlantic League (A) in strikeouts (189), was 3rd in innings (184), and 4th in complete games (7)...His 15 losses were also tops in the S.A.L.

1986: Selected in 2nd round by Red Sox in Jan. '86 free agent draft...Signed by Ray Boone, May 30, '86...In 1st year, led the Elmira staff in era (among qualifiers).

AMATEUR BACKGROUND: Played baseball at Shadow Mountain High School in Phoenix...Attended Yavapai Junior College (Prescott, AZ) for one year...Team placed 3rd in JUCO World Series...Five players off that team are now playing pro ball.

PERSONAL: Family moved from his birthplace, Anchorage, AK, to Phoenix when he was 5....Single...Enjoys fishing.

O'S 1ST GAME ANYWHERE

The O's opened their 1st season, not in Baltimore, but in Detroit on Apr 13, '54 and lost to the Tigers, 3-0, Steve Gromek over Don Larsen. The following day, still in Detroit, the O's gained their 1st win as Duane Pillette went the route to beat Ray Herbert, 3-2...The distinction of driving in the O's 1st run ever went to outfielder Sam Mele with a single in the 1st inning.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

Spent his 1st full season in the big leagues and set personal highs in every offensive category, except stolen bases despite missing 29 games, Aug 5-Sep 1, following knee surgery (for more details see below under "Knee Surgery").

Tied for 8th in the A.L. in homers with Milwaukee's Rob Deer...His 26 homers in 411 at-bats were only 7 less than he entered the '89 season with in 992 career ABs...Hit 18 homers as a catcher, most in the majors, despite spending only 75 games (72 starts) behind the plate.

Was 13 plate appearances shy of qualifying with the A.L.'s 6th best slugging average (.509). At the time he went down with his knee injury (Aug 4 vs. Texas), he was 3rd in the A.L. in slugging (.523), tied for 4th in homers (22), 5th in runs (67), 6th in walks (67) and extra-base hits (44).

Returned Sep 3, and served as O's designated hitter the rest of the season...Batted .268 before injury and .193 (57-11, HR-4) in 19 games after return.

HOME RUNS: Eclipsed his previous career high on May 29 with a homer off Nolan Ryan...Reached double figures in home runs (May 24) quicker than any A.L. catcher since Earl Williams (Oakland) in '77 and entered June with 13 home runs, believed to be the most ever on that date by an A.L. catcher..

.Was leading the A.L. in homers as late as June 5, the latest an Oriole has been atop the the A.L. in home runs since Eddie Murray finished the strike-shortened '81 season tied for 1st with 22...His improvement of 15 homers from '88, was among the A.L.'s best (Jeffrey Leonard +16, Lou Whitaker +16, and Nick Esasky +15).

Was 3rd among major league switch hitters behind the Mets' Howard Johnson (36) and Texas' Ruben Sierra (29)...Homered against all 13 A.L. opponents and the O's were 22-3 in games he cleared the fences...Had the 2nd 2-homer game of his ML career, June 9 vs. Milwaukee (both off Bryan Clutterbuck).

BATTING: Was batting .200 (95-19) thru May 8, then went on a tear between May 11 and June 9 when he hit 11 homers (.302, 86-26, 23 rbi) in 26 games while O's went 19-7 (from 13-17 to 32-24)...Over 62 games, May 11-July 22, he batted .308 (221-68) raising average to season-high .275...Had four 4-rbi games, career highs...Tied a club record on June 27 when he scored 4 runs at home against Toronto...Also had 4 rbi that game...Had 22 game-tying or lead rbi and 10 gwrbi, 2nd behind Cal Ripken.

HOME/ROAD: Batted 103 points higher at home (.310) than on the road (.207)...Had a .610 slugging mark at home with 30 extra-base hits in 203 at bats...Since joining the Orioles, he's hit .298 (336-100, HR-22, RBI-63) at Memorial Stadium, or one homer every 15 at bats.

AWARDS: Named to A.L. All-Star squad by A.L. Manager Tony LaRussa...Named to the post-season Associated Press major league all-star team, The Sporting News and UPI A.L. all-star squads...Also winner of A.L. Silver Slugger Award given to the top offensive player at each position.

DEFENSE: His .994 (TC-341, E-2) fielding pct. was the best in the A.L. among catchers with at least 75 games...Went 97 games (219 total chances) without making an error from June 28, '88 to June 23, '89...Threw out 17 of 71 attempted base stealers (24%)...In O's career has thrown out 39 of 155 (25%).

KNEE SURGERY: Placed on the 15-day disabled list, Aug 5, after coming out of game against Texas the previous day...Had arthroscopic surgery Aug 6...The operation disclosed he had a cyst on his left knee, not cartilage damage as was originally suspected.

1989 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

ORIOLES CAREER: Since joining the Orioles has 37 homers/102 rbi in 694 at bats...In big leagues previously with Oakland, he had 22 hrs/81 rbi in 709 at bats.

SWITCH HITTING: Batted .245 (139-34, HR-10, RBI-20) righthanded and .265 (272-72, HR-16, RBI-45) lefthanded...Lifetime is hitting .240 from both sides of the plate: righthanded (.2400, 550-132, HR-29, RBI-72) and lefthanded .2403 (853-205, HR-30, RBI-111)...Natural righthanded hitter, learned to switch in high school.

FAVORITE PARKS: Has done his best hitting at Cleveland (.370, 27-10) and New York (.302, 53-16).

BASES LOADED: Is 6-for-37 (.162) lifetime with the bases loaded but has had 10 bases-loaded walks.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1988: Was out of a job on opening day, but signed a Rochester contract on Apr 6 which was purchased by O's on May 9...Finished 3rd in balloting for "Most Valuable Oriole" behind co-winners Cal Ripken and Eddie Murray...Batted .282 (170-48) after July 5 and .350 (80-28) in 21 games, July 7-Aug 14, raising average from .230 to season-high .280...15 of his 37 rbi (41%) were game-tying or go ahead, the best ratio on the club.

At Detroit on June 13, he became the 36th player in major league history to homer from both sides of the plate in one game...Only 3 others have done it in Orioles' history (Eddie Murray, Don Buford, and Mike Young)...First multi-homer game of career...Hit solo homer off Walt Terrell in the 7th, then hit 3-run homer with one out in the 9th off Guillermo Hernandez to give O's 6-4 win.

1987: For the 2nd straight year was Oakland's starting catcher on opening day, but had only 3 hits in April...Began to turn season around and was enjoying the best month of his career (.321 in July) when he suffered a severely bruised left shoulder in a home plate collision with Jim Walewander at Detroit on July 21...Assigned to Modesto for rehabilitation, the 6th of 7 pro seasons that he had played at the A's California League (A) affiliate...Batted only .181 (72-13) after returning from disabled list Aug. 6.

1986: Opened the season as the starting catcher, but a badly infected foot allowed him to play in only 32 of the 1st 80 games...Went on the disabled list in May and underwent rehab assignment at Modesto...Hit 8 home runs in an 89 at bat stretch in Aug-Sep...Hit an inside-the-park homer at Seattle on Aug 5 off Lee Guetterman.

Unusual 5-RBI Game: Had a career-high 5 rbi game Aug 24, '86, at Yankee Stadium...Entered the game as a pinch hitter in the 6th inning...Had a pair of bases-loaded walks, then added a 3-run homer in the 9th. His line: ab-1, r-2, h-1, rbi-5.

1989 SEASON SUMMARY

His season mirrored the Orioles' unbelievable turnaround...From 4-15 in '88, he improved to 8-0 with a 2.16 era last year with Rochester and the O's before a shoulder injury curtailed his season, July 2...Had surgery Sep 12 to repair partially torn rotator cuff...Operation was done by team physician, Dr. Charles Silberstein...His rehabilitation is expected to continue for half of '90.

ROCHESTER: For the 2nd straight year, he started the season with the Red Wings and was promoted early in the season...Did not allow a run in final 2 games (ip-16) and struck out 7 in last appearance, Apr 24, vs. Toledo...His contract was purchased Apr 28, when he was 3-0 (era-0.93, ip-29, er-3, bb-10, so-14)...In '88, he was recalled with a 3-1 record and a 2.84 era.

BIG DIFFERENCE: After dropping his final 10 decisions of '88, a club single-season record, he went undefeated in '89...Of his 10 appearances last year with the O's, 8 were starts...Orioles were 6-2 in those games, but 0-2 when he pitched in relief.

The O's supported him with 54 runs in his 8 starts, an average of 6.75 runs per game...In turn, he allowed 2 runs or less in his 1st 6 starts...He was the only A.L. pitcher with at least 4 decisions to go undefeated...Against Oakland's Carney Lansford, the league's toughest batter to strike out, Tibbs victimized him twice on June 16, the only pitcher to turn that trick all season.

CG WIN: Hurled the Orioles' only complete game win between Apr 23 and Aug 8 when he beat Toronto, 16-6, on June 27...It was his 1st complete game win since Sep 16, '86 for Montreal over Chicago (40 starts)....Allowed 13 hits, tying the club record for most hits given up by an Orioles pitcher in one game.

TOUGH ON THE ROAD: He combined with Mark Williamson for an 8-0 whitewash of the White Sox, May 24 at Chicago, for his 1st A.L. road victory following 7 setbacks...In fact, he won all 3 of his road games and had a 1.42 era...Other away wins came June 4 at Detroit and June 21 at Seattle.

CAREER: Major league record is 36-47 (era-4.13, ip-805.0, er-369) in 143 games, 123 starts...Was 27-32 (era-3.91, ip-592, er-257) in the N.L....Career record with O's is 9-15 (era-4.73, ip-213.0, er-112) in 40 games, 32 starts..Broke in with the Reds in '84, but has spent only one full season in the big leagues since ('86 with Montreal).

1988: Following recall from Rochester, May 2, he was 2-0 after 3 starts (era-3.98)...Went 2-15 (era-5.59) in 27 games, 21 starts, the rest of the season...Was 2nd on the staff with 82 strikeouts...Four times he had a lead in the 6th inning or later and failed to get a win.

Made Orioles' debut May 2 with a 9-4 win at home over Texas before 50,402 on "Fantastic Fans Night"...Tied his season-high 7 strikeouts that night and walked 5...Pitched complete game, losing 6-3 on Aug 16, at home to Oakland...Allowed 1st career grand slam to Danny Tartabull at Kansas City on Aug 11.

STREAK: His 10 straight defeats broke the previous club single-season record of 8...Team record for consecutive losses over 2 seasons is 13, by Mike Boddicker in '87-'88...Milwaukee's Chris Bosio had the longest losing streak in the majors in '88 (11)...During the streak, Jay had 6.30 era (ip-80, er-56) in 16 appearances, 10 starts.

EXPOS, '86-'87: Opened the year as the Expos' #2 starter in '86, his only full season in the majors and was 2nd on the staff in starts and innings...The Expos won his 1st 7 starts (he was 3-0, earning "co-Expo of the Month" award for April)...Lost for the 1st time on May 21 and dropped 6 of 7 decisions, May 21-July 30.

In '87, a strong spring training effort earned him a start in the 2nd game of the season...Started the 1st game under the roof at Olympic Stadium, Apr 20...Was 4-4 with a 5.54 era when optioned to Indianapolis June 7...Was recalled twice more, including September.

REDS, '84-'85: Acquired by the Reds from the Mets on June 15, '84...Made major league debut July 15 at Montreal, beating Steve Rogers, 3-2...Pitched his 1st shutout and complete game on July 31, defeating San Francisco, 3-0...Won his last 4 decisions.

Spent time with 5 different clubs in a 4-month period in '84...Started with Phillies (#1) in February after they had chosen him in the major league draft in December...Returned to the Mets in March, and was reassigned to Jackson, MS (#2), the Mets' AA club; promoted to AAA Tidewater (#3); traded to Cincinnati and assigned to Wichita (#4), and ultimately, called up by the Reds (#5).

Began the '85 season as the Reds' #2 starter behind Mario Soto...Started 0-4, and was 4-11 after 20 starts when he was optioned to Denver...Recalled at the end of July and won 4 straight from Aug 30 until he lost Oct 3.

MINOR LEAGUES: Was the 1st player selected in 2nd round of June '80 draft, the 4th chosen by the Mets that day, behind Darryl Stawberry (#1) and 2 compensation picks (Billy Beane and John Gibbons).

PERSONAL: Graduated in '80 from Huffman High School (Birmingham, AL), also the alma mater of former White Sox lefthander, Britt Burns...Chosen as Alabama's High School Player of the Year in '80...Married Renee Henderson on Dec 5, '87.

SENIOR LEAGUE

Batted .393 (107-42) in the Senior League this past winter for the Orlando Juice, highest in the league among players with 100 or more at bats. . . . His Senior League stats: avg-.393; g-29; ab-107; r-22; h-42; 2b-9; 3b-0; hr-5; rbi-27; bb-19; so-13 . . . Didn't join the league until Dec 9, one month into the season.

JAPAN

In his 5 full seasons with the Hanshin Tigers (Osaka area) Bass averaged 40 home runs and 97 rbi . . . He set more than a dozen Japanese League batting records, and is widely considered the best foreign player ever to play in Japan . . . Among his records: highest average for one season by any player in Japanese baseball history (.389) and the most home runs in one season by a foreign player (54) . . . His lifetime slugging average was .660 . . . In '85, he helped the Tigers go from 53 wins the previous year to 74 wins and a 1st ever Japan championship.

BACK-TO-BACK TRIPLE CROWNS: Won 2 straight Central League Triple Crowns in '85 (.350, hr-54, rbi-134) and '86 (.389, hr-47, rbi-109) . . . First ever foreign player to win a triple crown, as well as the 1st to win home run and rbi titles . . . Only 2 others have ever won back-to-back triple crowns: Sadaharu Oh ('73-'74, Central League), and Hiromitsu Ochiai ('85-'86, Pacific League).

HOME RUNS: His 54 home runs (126 games) in '85 remain a single season home run record for foreign players. It's the 2nd highest home run total in league history behind Oh's record of 55 in '64 with the Yomiuri Giants (140 games) . . . In his final game of the season, against the Giants who were managed by Oh, Bass was walked every time he came to the plate.

HIGHEST BATTING AVG IN JAPAN HISTORY: In '86, he set a Japanese League record with a .389 (453-176) batting average, highest in the 54-year history of Japanese baseball . . . Was batting as high as .395 on Sep 26.

1983: Suffered broken left wrist in exhibition season and got off to a slow start in his 1st season in Japan . . . Still finished 3rd in the Central League with 35 homers . . . Hit 26, with 56 rbi, in 59 games after the all-star break.

1984: Led the Central League in slugging (.598) and was 4th in hitting (.326), the top average among foreign players in the Central League.

1985, LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP: Named Central League MVP while leading the Hanshin Tigers to their 1st Central League pennant in 21 years and then led the club to its 1st ever Japan Series Championship. The Tigers defeated the Seibu Lions 4 games to 2 and Bass was the unanimous choice for the Series MVP while batting .368 with with 3 homers, 9 rbi, 2 gwrbi and 6 runs.

In addition to the triple crown, his 22 game-winning rbi in '85 also represent an all-time Japanese record . . . He also topped the league in hits, slugging, total bases and slugging . . . In the season's MVP balloting (as in the majors, voting is done by the members of the Baseball Writers Asssociation), he received 230 of a possible 239 1st place votes. He was only the 5th foreign player to win MVP acclaim in Japan.

1986, MORE RECORDS: Homered in 7 consecutive games, June 18-26, tying record held by Sadaharu Oh in '72. Bass tied the record in his final at bat on June 26 when he hit a ball completely out of Tokyo's Korakuen Stadium.

Set record with rbi in 12 straight games, June 18-July 3 . . . Tied a record with homers in 4 consecutive trips to the plate, May 31, June 1.

The triple crown winner also led the Central League in slugging, hits, walks, on-base pct. and total bases.

1987: Hit his 200th homer in his 587th game, faster than any player in Japanese professional baseball history.

1988: He returned to the U.S. on May 14 with his family to arrange medical treatment for his 8-year-old son Zachary, who was suffering from a brain tumor . . . At the time of his departure, Randy was 2nd in the Central League in batting (.321) . . . The prescribed therapy (radiation rather than surgery) was more prolonged than originally anticipated, requiring Randy's extended presence . . . When he was not able to return to Japan by late June, he was released.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

His 1st homer in the major leagues was a 400-foot home run on Sep 9, '80 off San Francisco's Allen Ripley in his 1st swing as a San Diego Padre . . . In '81 he began the year as the Padres' starting 1st baseman, but he hit only .183 that 1st month and ended up starting 45 of the Padres' 110 games . . . Hit the Padres only grand slam that year, Apr 12 at Candlestick Park off the Giants' Tom Griffin.

His last major league homer came while playing for Texas at Memorial Stadium on May 31, '82 off Dennis Martinez . . . Last game in the majors was June 7, '82 . . . At that time, he was optioned by the Rangers to Denver.

MINOR LEAGUES

Won 4 home run titles during his minor league career: '72-Florida East Coast Rookie League; '73-Midwest League; '74-Carolina League; '80 American Association . . . Was the National Association's Minor League Player of the Year in '80 and runner-up in '79 . . . Hit 4 home runs (8 rbi) in a 10-inning game on June 9, '77 at Phoenix while playing for Tacoma (AAA).

AMATEUR: Graduated from Lawton (OK) High School . . . Played football, basketball and baseball . . . Turned down offers of football scholarships to Oklahoma and Kansas State.

PERSONAL: He and his wife, Linda, were married 11/17/75 . . . They have 2 children: Zachary (4/18/80) and Staci (7/11/82).

"READ LIKE A PRO"

The Orioles, taking a cue from Mayor Kurt Schmoke who pledged in his 1988 inaugural address to make Baltimore "A City That Reads," have developed a program called, "Read Like a Pro."

"Read Like a Pro," directed at Baltimore City 6th graders and Baltimore County 5th graders, challenges pupils to read a specified number of books during a 3-month period. Those who achieve that goal receive complimentary Orioles tickets for themselves and a parent or guardian.

Over the past 3 years, the Orioles have contributed in excess of $15,000 to help fund Mayor Schmoke's adult literacy program in Baltimore City. Serving as chairpersons for the program are Kelly and Cal Ripken Jr. who themselves pledged $250,000 to the project in '89, that amount to be matched thru a corporate fund-raising drive, administered by the City.

O'S JAPAN TRIPS '71 & '84

The Orioles have made 2 trips to Japan, both sponsored by the Yomiuri Shimbun, Japan's largest newspaper and owners of the Tokyo Giants.

In '71, the O's were 12-2-4 on a 31-day tour and went 8-0 with 3 ties against the Giants who had just captured their 7th straight Japan championship, led by 2 of the country's all-time greatest players, Shigeo Nagashima and Sadaharu Oh. The O's left on that month long junket just 3 days after losing a 7-game World Series to the Pirates.

The Birds earned the '84 trip by beating the Phillies in the '83 World Series. Despite a 5th place '84 finish, the O's went 4-1 in the first 5 games, all against the Japan Champion Hiroshima Toyo Carp, and 4-1 as well vs. the sponsoring Tokyo Giants. The Birds overall record on that trip was 8-5-1.

In the fall of '86, Cal Ripken Jr represented the Orioles on a team of American Major League All-Stars that went 5-1 against an All-Star aggregation from the Japanese Central and Pacific Leagues . . . Cal led the Americans in hitting with a .500 average (14-7) . . . See his biog for more details.

DIAMOND VISION VIDEO BOARD

Memorial Stadium's "Diamond Vision" Scoreboard by Mitsubishi stands 25'7" by 33'3" and was installed in 1985. Included among its many capabilities are instant replays, video features, closeups, full color message board displays and animations. It is operated by Orioles Productions Director Charles Steinberg, DDS, and a staff of 10.

There are now 20 full color video replay boards in major league ball parks. The "black & white" board in left center field has been in use since the middle of the 1970 season.

The major league draft is held annually at baseball's winter meetings, and is followed with a separate selection by National Association clubs from class AAA to A levels . . . Until 1958, major league clubs could draft players within a range between $15,000 (for AAA players) and $2,000 (for class D players) . . . In 1958 the price for big league drafts rose to $25,000 and in 1985 it became $50,000.

However, in 1959, a first-year player draft at the big league level was set up to discourage the payment of inordinately large bonus payments to free agents. The new rule provided that first-year players could be selected at the major league level (if not protected on a major league team's 40 man roster) for $12,000. In 1961, an even lower draft price was set up for more recent first-year players. That figure was $8,000.

That year, incidentally, the Baltimore organization set a record of sorts by being relieved of 19 eligible first year players (seven during the big league selections and 11 more during the minor league draft). In 1965, the first year player draft began to lose its significance and then disappeared in 1970.

SPRING TRAINING NOTES

For the 2nd straight season, the Orioles will open spring training at Twin Lakes Park in Sarasota and play their Grapefruit League home games in Miami. It will be their 32nd consecutive spring (since '59) in Miami. Only 5 other clubs have played their spring games at their present sites for a longer period of time: Detroit (Lakeland since '46); St.Louis (St. Petersburg since '46); Philadelphia (Clearwater since '47); Cleveland (Tucson since '47), and Los Angeles (Vero Beach since '48).

ORIOLES TO HOST '93 ALL-STAR GAME

The 1993 All-Star Game will be played in Baltimore in July 1993 at the new downtown ballpark, scheduled to open in April 1992 . . . It will be the 2nd Major League All-Star Game for the city, the 1st in 35 years (1958) . . . In the previous game, the A.L. defeated the N.L., 4-3, and the O's Billy O'Dell was the game's MVP after hurling 3 scoreless innings in relief to earn a save . . . See page 87-89 for more details.
